STANLY NEWS.

Albemarle to Have Two Iron Fronts—Mr. Stone to Probably Return Here—A Methodist Church to Be Built.

We take the following good news from Editor Bivins' Stanly Enterprise:

"Dr. O D King is having an iron front placed to his corner brick building, now going up. He has an eye to the demands of a special location, and will meet it in an appropriate way. Mr. J C Parker's building adjoining will also have an iron front.

"Mr. W A Stone is closing out his stock of groceries this week, preparatory to leaving Albemarle. We regret to lose him and his excellent wife. Our best wishes attend them wherever they go. We understand it is his purpose to engage in farming near Concord.

"A protracted meeting has been conducted during the past two weeks in the grove on factory hill, closing last Friday night. Revs. Richardson, Barnhardt and Gentry worked faithfully, and their efforts were rewarded with about fifty conversions. Some twenty or more names were enrolled as the first in the formation of the new church, for which a brick building is soon to be erected on the site of the temporary tent structure. The survey has been made and a deed given to a lot 80x100 feet. A Sunday school annex will be built for immediate use."
