DOES ANY ONE CARE FOR FATHER?

Does any one care aught for father?

Does any one think of the one Upon whose, tired, bent shoulders,

The cares of the family come? The father who strives for your comfort,

And toils on from day unto day,

Although his steps ever grow slower,

And his dark locks are turning to gray.

Does any one think of the due bills

He's called upon daily to pay, Millinery bills, college bills, book bills,

There are some kinds of bills every day.

Like a patient horse in a treadmill,

He works, on from morn till night;

Does any one think he is tired,

Does any one make his home bright?

Is it right, just because he looks troubled,

To say he's as cross as a bear? Kind words, little actions kind Might banish his burden of care.

'Tis for you he is ever so anxious,

He will toil for you while he may live;

In return he only asks kindness,

And such pay is easy to give.

THE PATRON and Gleaner has been changed in name to the Roanoke-Chowan Times. The journal undergoes no other change however. There is not much in the name and way but the indisputable privilege of adopting what one pleases. The esteemed Patron and Gleaner will henceforth be the esteemed Roanoke-Chowan Times.

It is all right we suppose that the nation should make much of Mr. Dewey but when it is flashed over the wires that he got up a little early and took a stroll before breakfast it provokes a smile.

The Citizen is boasting that the Mississippi Valley Medical Association will meet in Asheville next year. Well these are the pillars of vital existence.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. M. L. Marsh & Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Striking Signs of Prosperity.

Among the many signs of good times reported from different parts of the country, and which show that the people of the United States are enjoying an almost unprecedented degree of prosperity, is a most pronounced shortage of labor in the mills of South Carolina and at various points in North Carolina as well.

According to report from Charleston, considerable difficulty is experienced in securing a sufficient number of employes to keep the mill machinery running on full time.

The number of persons now employed is larger than it has been at any previous time, no exodus having taken place. But nearly all the mills have been compelled, by the heavy demand for their fabrics, to extend operations and enlarge their productive capacity; and it is this excess over former labor requirements which cannot be obtained.

Many thousands of additional looms and spindles have been installed during the past six months, and how to get the operatives needed to run them presents a problem that causes employers much anxiety.

This question may be expected to assume a more acute form with each succeeding month, for the enormous profits, amounting in some instances almost to 100 per cent., in a single year, earned by the Carolina cotton mills are attracting capital. New plants are in course of erection everywhere, and the industry promises to undergo enormous expansion during the next few years.

A more signal proof of prosperity in the South would be difficult to adduce. The problem presented by the scarcity of labor will soon solve itself under the inevitable operations of the law to supply and demand. There is no section of the country in which the signs of "good times" are not palpable.—Baltimore Herald.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50c. or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

To Inspect the Rice Fields.

Hon. Jas. T LeGrand, of Richmond county, and A B Young, Esq., of Concord, members of the board of directors of the State penitentiary, were here yesterday and made a tour of inspection to the rice farms across the river, it is presumed, with a view of purchasing. They were accompanied by Mr. G H Cannon, superintendent of the farms.—Morning Star of 5th.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

Reduced Rates to the State Fair.

On account of the State Fair the Southern will sell round trip

tickets to Raleigh, including one admission into the fair grounds,

$8.80. Tickets on sale Oct. 14, 15, 16, 17, and 20, with final limit to Oct. 33rd.

Golden Rules of Health.

The following are the "Golden Rules of Health," established by Frances E Willard's father, which Miss Willard followed in her girlhood:

Simple food, mostly of vegetables, fish and fowls.

Plenty of sleep, with very early hours for retiring.

Flannel clothing next to the skin all the year round; feet kept warm, head cool, and nothing worn tight.

Just as much exercise as possible, only let fresh air and sunshine go together.

No tea or coffee for the children; no alcoholic drink for anybody.

Tell the truth and mind your parents in all things.—Anderson

Intelligencer.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick,
