DON'T "CHEW THE RAG."

In the battle of life when your cares as a knife Cut deep and are freighted with pain, When your skies are all black and before you the track Is washed by adversity's rain, Never weaken your grip, keep a stiff upper lip,
And permit not your courage to flag, Just keep bulging ahead through the gullies instead, Of sitting 'round chewing the rag.

Though the lightnings may flash and the thunder may crash, And the tempest in anger may roar, Every cloud will be rent when its fury is spent,
And skies be as blue as before.
There is never a woe you can overthrow,
But you never must loiter nor lag,
For you never can hope to successfully cope With your troubles by chewing the rag.

'Tis the will of the King that each mortal must swing The energy sword in the fight, Must struggle and toil in the midst of turmoil, Till the day breaks the shadows of night,
And we surely will miss the bright goal of success.

Of achievements we never will brag, Never bask in the sun of sweet victory won
If we sit around chewing the
rag.

There is never a height in the scope of our sight But the feet of ambition can scale,
There is never a prize set to magnet our eyes
But is ours if we hang to the trail.
We can climb every steep, every chasm can leap,
Can surmount every hindering crag,
But we never can take e'en a crumb of the cake
If we sit around chewing the
rag.

—Denver Post.

A fire in New York Friday destroyed 8,000 bales of cotton worth about $300,000. The flames broke out again late Friday night with strong probability of doubling the destruction. The lot was insured. As every little helps this will be no disadvantage to those who have cotton to sell.

The story goes and it claims to be authentic that one Dr. Charles Smith, of Atlantic City, who makes an elixir of life which he learned from the Persians, presents himself as a good sample of its powers. He was married on the 8th of September and gave his age as 122 years. What becomes of the adage, though, that the doctor who prescribes for himself has a fool for a patient?

John A Boebling is a good-road enthusiast of Buncombe county. The commissioners have elected him superintendent of roads in the county and at his pressing request made the salary one dollar per year. Under what motive will be assigned by those who never see anything but the shiister in man.

NOW THE movement is on to get up a fund and purchase a home in Washington for Admiral Schley. The Woman's National Industrial League is back of the movement, therefore it will go, but then Schley is regarded us a Southerner.

THOSE DURHAM burglars are about to inaugurate a new style it seems, that of sitting down in the dining room and eating a square meal. We suppose next they will be drinking the health of their sound-sleeping benefactors.

Where They Come From.

Gutta-percha is the milky sap of the Isonandra gutta trees of the East Indies.

Cinnamon is the inner rind of the cinnamon tree. The bark of the young shoot is the best.

Linseed is the seed of flax.
They are smooth, shining, brown, oblong, and have a whitish, sweetish kernel.

Emery is the fine particles of a mineral—emery—and is prepared by heating to a high degree and cooling suddenly with water and then crushing.

Cream of tartar is the refined crust or sediment formed in the interior of wine vats and wine bottles, existing primarily in the juice of the grape.

Madder is the root of an herb-like growth. It is about the size of a lead pencil, and much longer. It is cleansed, dried and ground. It is a dye stuff.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form.
We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of.

I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life.

I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.

Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.

HARRIS LITHIA WATER

water on the market and has the endorsement of the most noted physicians of the country as to its superiority over all others. Read what the noted Dr. John Hey Williams, of Asheville, has to say for Harris Lithia, springs.

Asheville, N. C., April 24, 1893.

An extended clinical use of Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best, Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvellous. Its use in the Rheumatic and County Diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry Waters.

Very truly yours,

JOHN HEY WILLIAMS, M. D.

fer when you have the guarantee?

Thoughts to Think Over.

He holds much who holds his tongue.

To enjoy today, stop worrying about tomorrow.

Among the most dangerous of edge tools are cutting remarks.

There is nothing like an obedient today to reveal God's will to tomorrow.

Behavior is a mirror in which every one displays his own image.—Goethe.

God sometimes uses disease as a lever to prize men out of the "slough of despond."

Courage consists not in blindly overlooking danger, but in seeing it, and conquering it.—Jean Paul Richter.

Prudence is self-surrender to the strongest impulse; duty is self-surrender to the highest.— James Martineau.

More dear in sight of God and his angles than any other conquest is the conquest of self, which each man, with the help of heaven, can secure for himself.

—Dean Stanley.
