Destroyed by Fool Friends.

In the midst of the rejoicing over Admiral Dewey's home coming, and the celebration of his splendid victories in the Philippines, there is the daily disgusting spectacle of the wordy newspaper fights over the merits and demerits of Admirals Sampson and Schley.

If there were ever two unfortunate men, who had fallen completely into the hands of fool friends, these American Admirals are the two.

The result of these recriminations has been to overshadow the great victory at Santiago, and instead of celebrating that victory, as was Manila, the tiresome and senseless trash of fake interviews, false doings and impossible sayings of these two men are published in newspapers which know their falsity.

These fool friends have not merely kept Schley and Sampson from receiving due and fair recognition for their services, but they have by their efforts of trying to down each other, kept both their own favorite back, and prevented any just reward or recognition being paid the gallant captains of the warships who assisted in defeated Cervera's fleet.

Sampson, Schley, Clarke, Philip, Evans, Wainwright and the rest, together with the men behind the guns who sank Cervera's fleet, or assisted in the fight, all deserved and would have been given an ovation by the American people, except for the fool friends of the two admirals.

As it is a hardship has been done all the men, officers and crews, for not being given due credit for their magnificent behavior at Santiago, all on account of mischievous bickerings and attempts to hoist Schley over sampson, or Sampson over Schley.

It is a splendid illustration of being in the hands of fool friends, and the bad results of such a position.—New Bern Journal.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

Doubt is born of mind; faith is the daughter of the soul.

God estimates us not by the position we are in, but by the way which we fill it.—Edwards.

There is inspiration for prayer in the thought that God's goodness is greater than our expectations.

That God loves, and therefore we love, is the essence both of theology and morality.—Ran's Horn.

Simplicity and purity are the two wings by which man is lifted above all earthly things.—Thomas A. Kempis.

A patriot uses his private influence for the public good; a politician uses the public influence for his private good.—Ran's Horn.

They who disbelieve in virtue because man has never been found perfect, might as reasonably deny the sun, because it is not always noon.—Augusta Hare.

If you wish success in life, make perseverance your bosom friend, experience your wise counsellor, caution your elder brother, and hope your guardian genius.—Addison.

The Laws of Health.

The true secret of health and long life lies in very simple things.

Court the fresh air day and night. "Oh, if you knew what was in the air."

Sleep and rest abundantly. Sleep is nature's benediction. "Work like a man; but don't be worked to death."

Avoid passion and excitement. Associate with healthy people. Health is contagious as well as a disease.

Don't carry the whole world on your shoulders, far less the universe. Trust the Eternal.

Never despair. "Lost hope is a fatal disease."—Chicago Medical Times.
