A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.- Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.

Surviving Cofederate Generals.

Col. Chas. E Jones. the Georgia historian, has compiled a list of the surviving Confederate generals, which showes that out of the original nineteen lieutenant generals seven survive; of the 81 major-generals, 16 are living; and of the 362 brigadier-generals 92 survive. The living lieutenant-generals are James Longstreet, Alexander B Stewart, Stephen D Lee, Simon B Buckner, Wade Hampton, John B Gordon and Joseph Wheeler.—Times Visitor.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave Geheral Burnham, of Machis, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Boone's Gun.

Old Daniel Boone's shot gun, flint and steel, has just been bought by J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, N. C. It is a fine old relic of the olden times. It has "D Boone" cut on the barrel and was found in the settlement where Daniel Boone lived, in possession of a farmer. Who can beat that for a good old relic.—Salisbury Sun.

Concord a Prosperous Town.

Mr. Claude Matthews, of the Charlotte News, has the following in the Monday's edition in regard to Concord, and its growth from a "once sleepy town:"

Right at Charlotte's doors is one of the most wide awake towns in the State. We have reference to Concord. There is an air of thrift and progress that pervades all the avenues of trade in this once sleepy town. The large cotton mills located in and near Concord have injected new life into all lines of business and, today, there is not a town of Concord's population in the State, or as far that matter, in the South, that can boast of a more contented and prosperous people than others.

He Moved, He Did.

The New York Times prints a dispatch from Chester, S. C., showing their unique way of getting rid of a troublesome citizen against whom there is evidence satisfactory to the public mind, but not conclusive before the courts. Too much blind tiger was abroad and was a source of evil. A meeting was called and the presiding officers stated the case saying: "If you conscientiously believe there are any person or persons whose presence is contaminating to the moral and social atmosphere of this community, then write his or their names on a piece of paper, fold, and deposit in a ballot box. On the contrary, if you conscientiously do not believe there are any such person or persons in the community, then so write it."

The ballots were counted and one man was elected to leave. He did not hesitate nor ask what it meant. He knew it meant to get out and he got.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

Ugly Kind of Thieving.

One L. Epps a white man of Greensboro is in jail on a charge of robbing the Finishing Mills there of goods that he would slip out at night and would sell to merchants, representing that he was closing out a country stock of goods at a sacrifice. It was a bold scheme and it is not known how far he carried it but probably to the extent of $600 or $700 worth of goods. The meanest part of it is that he was an employee and fixed a window that he used going in and out between the periodical visits of the night watchman.

Chronic Nasal Catarrh poisons every breath that is drawn into the lungs. There is procurable from any druggist the remedy for the cure of this trouble. A small quantity of Ely's Cream Balm placed into the nostrils spreads over an inflamed and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflamation, cleanses, heals and cures. A cold in the head vanishes immediately. Sold by druggists or will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.

All druggists sell Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.
