BREAKERS OF THE LAW.

Trials On the Mayor's Docket—The Child Found Dead In Bed—Observing the Week of Prayer.

Written for The Standard.

Mt. Pleasant, Oct. 24.—Sheriff Peck is here today with the tax books, consequently few people are in town.

Dr. Ivy, of New London, is here "plugging" teeth. Some of our citizens have already been pained by his actions.

Mr. John O Fulewider, of Monroe, spent Sunday here with friends. "Fully" is a good deal like that cat we have heard of that "couldn't stay away."

Mr. Adam Page, the renowned coon and 'possum hunter, was a guest at the "Hotel de Calaboose" last night. "Corn" was the cause. This is the first name on the register since the erection of the new building.

Jim Tucker, son of Mr. John Tucker, was arraigned before Esq. Jonas Cook this morning for assault upon the person of Julia Page, daughter of Adam Page. Tucker was bound over until court under a bond of fifty dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. L M Odell woke this morning to find their little two months old child, Dewey Columbus, dead in its mother's arms.

Mr. J M Allen is here and will give a stereopticon and graphophone entertainment in the College chapel tonight and tomorrow night.

Mrs. C G Heilig, who as noted in our last correspondence, was very low, is very much improved.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of Holy Trinity Lutheran church and Mont Amena Seminary are observing this week as the week of prayer. Prayer meetings are held at the different homes of members every evening and a public missionary meeting will be held Sunday evening.

Honors Brumby Alone.

Atlanta goes on with her program of presenting the sword to her gallant son just as is eminently right. The following is the program.

Reception to Lieutenant Brumby at Capital City Club Wednesday night.

Reception to Lieut. Brumby by legislature in joint session at state capitol Thursday at 10:30 o'clock.

Presentation of sword to Lieut. Brumby on stand in front of state capitol Thursday at 11 o'clock.

Military parade to move at 11:30 o'clock from the capitol. At 12 o'clock the parade will be reviewed by Lieut. Brumby at Ponce de Leon avenue.

His Baboon Bit Him.

The Greensboro Record says one of the show men on the way from the Raleigh to the Winston fair had occasion to handle a half grown baboon after the train arrived at Greensboro. The ill natured animal got cross and bit the keeper's hand fearfully.

—Mr. Gus Correll and wife will arrive here tomorrow morning from Columbia where they were married today.

CABARRUS MAN RETURNS.

Some Notes on the Lone Star State.

Many friends from eastern Cabarrus will be glad to greet Mr. W Crawford Culp, now a citizen of the State of Texas. He arrived in Concord Tuesday night with a car load of horses and mules, 29 in number, chiefly of his own raising. They are all trained to work and drive.

Mr. Culp had to take roundings on the yellow fever regions therefore he came by way of Little Rock, Memphis, Chattanooga and Asheville.

While in the newspaper shop for a few minutes the pencil pusher drew out of him some interesting little items.

His postoffice is Maverick in Runnels county, a little to the north west of the centre of the great Lone Star State. There is meaning in the name. Maverick is the term for the crime of catching and branding, as one's own, every calf or other animal unbranded. This was once a protected infant industry in this particular locality.

Mr Culp now owns 330 acres of land and rents two sections, 1,280 acres, besides, which he uses as a ranch, paying four cents per acre per month. He also has the oversight of three sections, 1,940 acres, for Mr. Frerks of the Mt. Vernon in Salisbury.

The quantity of grass available depends upon the number of prairie dogs that infest it. These dogs, where abundant, eat every blade of grass in the summer and migrate as necessity requires. In the winter they burrow into the earth and feed on the roots of the grass. They are the herdsman's enemy. Along the streams grow the cotton wood and the pecan. The latter are now loaded down with fruit. Many a tree yields fifteen bushels and the price on the spot is six cents per pound. Away from the timber land is a little fruit tree the size of a small peach tree that bears rich clusters of beans called the muscat bean. It is rich as the cow pea and more palatable and is valuable as a fatener for all kinds of stock. A hungry man may get his dinner off this tree. This year, however, this fruit is a failure in Mr. Culp's neighborhood.

Miss Mattie Caldwell Weds.

A marriage takes place in Charlotte this (Wednesday) evening in which Cabarrus county furnishes the bride. Miss Mattie Caldwell, of the Poplar Tent neighborhood, who is living in Charlotte, was married to Mr. Nat Austin, of South Carolina.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

To Be Married Next Week.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Mack Kimmons, in No. 3 township, Mr. Arthur Faggart will be married to Miss Nina Kimmons. Rev. W Y Love will perform the ceremony. Miss Kimmons is one of the foremost young ladies of that community and has scores of friends who will join in extending congratulations in advance to this couple.

Mr. Faggart has for many years been a salesman here at Patterson's store and well known by all of us. The newly wedded couple will arrive here Friday and will be at Mr. S E W Pharr's until Mr. Faggart's new residence is finished on Mill street.

Mr. Mark Morrison Married.

At 6 o'clock a. m. today (Wednesday) at Clifton, S. C., Mr. Mark Morrison, one of the most prominent men about Harrisburg, was married to Miss Jessie Williams. After the ceremony they boarded the train for his new home at Harrisburg, where a reception was given the newly wedded couple. A number from this place was invited to the reception. With numbers of friends we extend our congratulations, wishing them a life of love and happiness.

No Fireworks Christmas.

The joys of the small boys and of some of the larger ones, too, will be less when they learn that at the meeting of the town commissioners Tuesday night it was decided that it will be against the law to have fireworks Christmas, but the safety of property and persons was taken into consideration, too. This means that some will break the law and will have to pay the penalty, but it also assures our people that it will be less dangerous to walk through the streets during the holidays.

His Collections Were Good.

Fruitless have been the trips made by Sheriff Peck in the county until Monday when he was in No. 7 township. He collected in that precinct over $50, and at Mt. Pleasant he collected more than $200. His trips in the eastern part of the county prove a convenience to those who don't come to Concord often.

Mr. Allison Attending the Meeting.

Mr. John P Allison left Tuesday night for Atlanta, where he went to attend a meeting of the cotton growers of the South. Mr. Allison will at this meeting submit plans as were published in the paper some weeks ago in regard to the organization of our cotton growers.

Messrs. Victor and Clint Caldwell, of Poplar Tent, went to Charlotte to witness the Austin-Caldwell marriage.

Situation Interesting in South Africa.

The news from South Africa, according to dispatches of the 24th, look less favorable to the English. Gen. Yule found it necessary on account of the superior number of Boers to give up Dundee and Glencoe, and hastily form a junction with Gen. White at Ladysmith, where they will operate on the defensive till Gen. Buller arrives. Gen. White had a minor battle with the Boers Tuesday chiefly with artillery to divert the enemy and prevent his interference with Gen. Yule.

Prisoners on both sides are humanely treated. It is only on the battle fields that the war has great horrors.

The Boer reverses seem to check their aggressiveness. The situation is rather interesting.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggists.
