

WINE OF CARDUI
THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 22.
 I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.
 Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

WINE OF CARDUI

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.
 I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, N. C. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.

Newt Robinson, the humorist-philosopher, of the Orange (Va.) Observer, puts it this way: Men of intellect stand by their ideas; drinkers fall by their rye dears, and men with extravagant wives are ruined by their high dears.—Ex.

For Over Fifty Years
 Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

That Lady Newspaper Reporter.
 The Asheville correspondent to the Charlotte Observer adds the following about the disguised reporter on her way to Manila, of which we spoke some days ago:

"Charles Coe, bandmaster of the Twenty-Ninth Infantry, formerly leader of the First Regiment Band, writes to his wife here that one of the waiters on the transport, en route for Manila, fell on deck with a tray of dishes. The waiter was taken to the ship's hospital for treatment, but would not have a physician make an examination. Some time later, however, medical attention was given in spite of protests, when it was discovered that the waiter was a woman in disguise, reporting for some newspaper in the States. She was left in the hospital at Honolulu."

Needed the Roasting.
 A local paper published a long obituary of a man who had died in the community, closing with the statement that a "long procession of people followed the remains to their last roasting place." The family read the notice and discovered the supposed error and asked the editor to make a correction in the word "roasting," but he said he could not do it until the seven years' back subscription that the deceased owed had been paid.—Ex.

High Explosions a Success.
 Gen. Miles is said to have witnessed some very satisfactory tests recently at Sandy Hook which demonstrated that high explosives can be successfully used in all artillery firing. The cannon shots may be sent 12 and 14 miles and made to explode after passing through heavy steel plate.

Champion 'Possum Hunter.
 Mr. Frank Leonard, despite the several hundred pounds of flesh he carries around, is the champion 'possum hunter in the county. He has caught sixty-one this season. Mr. Leonard was exhibiting a fifteen-pound 'possum yesterday.—Salisbury Sun.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

Dangerous Way of Fighting Insects.
 At Hendersonville, W. Va., sometime since a gay wedding party was poisoned by eating slaw made from cabbage on which poison had been sprinkled some months before to exterminate insect enemies.

Chronic Nasal Catarrh poisons every breath that is drawn into the lungs. There is procurable from any druggist the remedy for the cure of this trouble. A small quantity of Ely's Cream Balm placed into the nostrils spreads over an inflamed and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses, heals and cures. A cold in the head vanishes immediately. Sold by druggists or will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.
