CONCORD, N. C., Nov. 1.

THAT FLOWERY PHRASE.

That is a pretty phrase and has the familiar American ring about it that "government depends upon the consent of the governed" and it is quoted freely now in reference to our Philippine affairs. Some how it stagger's us to trace its application in the Louisiana purchase in which we never read that the inhabitants of the state and all that immense territory acquired had any say in the matter.

When we subdued Mexico we paid for and took a fine piece of territory with the very strong implication that those who did not consent to be governed by the United States could simply get out. When commissioner Gadsden added another compromising slice the historian fails to tell us that the consent of the inhabitants was secured.

We never saw it stated that Alaskans gave any consent to passing from Russian to American dominion. We even never heard of hands being raised in warning that taking possession of Porto Rico was a violation of the principle.

But more than all, a part of this great nation attempted in 1861 to withdraw its consent to be governed by the regime at Washington city and blood flowed like water till it seemed that the flower of American citizenship was to be annihilated in enforcing the very opposite of the principle, and relegating the maxim to the ranks of oratoric embellishments without a feather's weight of meaning. Silver-tongued orators may cull from a withered bouquet of revolutionary rhetoric this once beautiful flower and moisten it with tears of gushing sympathy for a people more capable and more needful of independence and self government than any we have enumerated but about the only odor it will emit is, I want distinction.

JUST LIKE IT.

The Durham correspondent to the Raleigh Post tells of another incident in which a drunken negro driving a team from the town was found later lying by the road dead. On examination his neck was found to be broken. It seems to be getting a little more fashionable for drunken men to go off as might be expected.

CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet

SALISBURY voted Monday on the bond question. It carried by a small though sufficient majority. The amount was $100,000. The objects as we understand are to acquire the water works, secure electric lights and institute a system of city sewerage. They are three splendid steps in urban progress that deserve congratulations.

Now they have sprung a new ward upon us in the dispatches from South Africa. It is Laagar, pronounced nearly like the beer and meaning something like a fortified camp or at least a camp where the wagons and supplies are guarded.

Thinks Him a Little Cranky.

A correspondent of the Statesville Landmark pays the following tribute to Judge Robinson: "Yadkin Superior Court convened Monday 23rd, with Judge Robinson presiding and Solicitor Rush prosecuting. His Honor delivered quite an eloquent address to the grand jury upon the moral phase of crime; paid a high compliment to this age of the world because of so few offences punishable by death, as contrasted with an earlier period of the world's history in which the Anglo-Saxon race has figured. Judge Robinson has his own peculiar way, I suppose, as a judge and as a man. He does not preside like any other judge, but I fail to see wherein any serious objection can be offered to his manner. I have always thought that a judge was just a man like other men, and Judge Robinson seems to think so himself. In this respect he is not unlike Judges Shaw and Starbuck. I am inclined to think, though, that Judge Robinson is a little cranky."

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

Was Sorry He Spoke

It was an open "experience meeting," and Brother Jones arose and said:

"Bretherin', I'm the man that put water in the milk!"

"And, I'm the man that drew the water for him," said Brother Brown, penitently.

"An' I'm the woman that milked the cow, and knowed all about it," sobbed Sister Jones.

"An' here's the man," said a loud voice from the rear, "that sold 'em the cow an' hain't got paid for it yet!"

Then Brother Jones was sorry he had spoken, and was overheard to mutter, as he reached for his hat, "Never did believe in these experience meetin's no-how!"—Atlanta Constitution.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected soon to die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. The Shubrick Launched.

Although the weather was unpropitious, the torpedo boat Shubrick was launched on Tuesday amid great enthusiasm. The boat was launched sidewise. It was christened by pretty little Miss Carrie Shubrick, of Rocky Mount, N. C.

The great feature of the day, however, was the happy speech making by President McKinley, Gov. Tyler, and others, breathing so much to strengthen Virginians in their proud history, and to knit the bonds of union more closely between the sections once alienated. The president's speech was peculiarly happy in its spirit.
