THE AMERICAN MULE.

Bring up your mule stories now, they're strictly in order. Since the English at Ladysmith had two regiments cut to pieces and captured by the Boers all because the mules took on a caper and ran away with the ammunition the mule has become a being of distinction.

The Atlanta Constitution leads off with a couple characteristic stories that take away some of the surprise that those mules be had in such unmilitary style.

The one is that once upon a time a Georgia negro with his Sunday clothes on and ornamented with a brass breast-pin attempted to bridle the pacing roan that had not yet finished her Sunday morning feed. The negro with the Sunday clothes on was "cast on the other side of Jordon" and the brass breast-pin went to a near-by field while old roan with unrattled nerve ground away on her cut straw.

The other story was of "Old Whitley" taking his Sunday rest in a stall with a four foot alley behind him which was bounded by a wall. A dog was bounding past in full speed but landed against that wall with every bone in him broken. This was noticed by some boys, not in Sunday school, who pitched tin cans that way to see them flattened as pancakes against that wall. The mule however did not wake up from his tranquil slumbers.

The Charlotte Observer "chews the rag" a little that these mules in the British service were American mules and from the Southern States at that. The Morning Post (Raleigh) is patronizing enough to say, though, that these mules were not in their native land and that anyhow too much must not be expected of these being that nothing to be proud of in their ancestry nor hopeful of in their posterity.

The mule is not without historic prestige, however. He bore on his back the head and personation of the great Jewish empire and doubtless graced it with the rainbow shape of his spinal column, for the heavier the burden the more he abhors a sway. He has to his credit, too, that he is not a whining martyr for the heavier the load the less he seems to strain at it. So brave is he too that half the time he runs away he goes backward thereby keeping his face (if face you call it) to the foe.

As for his fidelity, any body knows he can always be depended upon to bring about the thing least expected.

TWO NATIVES SPEAK.

A Philadelphia dispatch of the 6th says:

"Two Filipinos arrived in this city on the bark Calburga, which reached this port with a cargo of hemp, from Manila, after a voyage of 147 days. Their names are Ceferino and Morris Cannon, and both express extreme hatred for Aguinaldo. In speaking of the war in the Philippines, Ceferino said:

"The Filipinos are losing ground, and do not think the war will last much longer. Aguinaldo is a tyrant. He fools his poor, ignorant, followers, and makes them believe that if the Americans win and get possession of the islands they will be worse off than they were when the Spaniards held possession. Many of them still think they are fighting Spaniards.

"When there are any signs weakening among his troops, Aguinaldo whips them back into line by threatening to kill them. He and his lieutenants have thousands of Filipinos who would be good and peaceful citizens if they were not forced to fight, so as to help him get money and power. In Manila and other places where the Americans are in control, everything is quiet and peaceful. The people like the open-hearted way in which the government is carried on, and are anxious to see Aguinaldo crushed."

This is the statement of two probably very irresponsible testifiers but they have a better chance to speak knowingly than many who are awfully shocked at the outrage against Aguinaldo and the strugglers for independence.

ONE item of evidence of the unhusband-like conduct of Dr. Buffalo as brought out in the trial was that he was never seen to draw his wife to his bosom in affectionate embrace. From this, we married men may draw the conclusion that it is not best to be so overmodest as to be always behind the curtain when the sweetheart impulses are not forgotten.

From Our Neighboring Village.

GLASS, Nov. 7.—Rev. Nelson is holding a series of meetings at Mt. Olivet church.

Miss Maggie May Rogers, who has been quite sick with fever, is improving.

Rev. Jas. H Lippard, of Concord, will preach at Bethpage Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Miss Van Wagner, his music teacher in the Concord Institute, will be present and will give us a musical treat.

The people of Centre Grove had a "pounding" party at the home of Mr. Richard Patterson Saturday night.

Miss Cora Isenhour's school opened here Monday.

Rogers & Triese have employed Miss Carrie Gillon to stay in the store during the illness of Miss Maggie Rogers.

Used By British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as command of the force that captured the famous rebel Gaiasha. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.

HARRIS LITHIA WATER

is the strongest Natural Lithia water on the market and has the endorsement of the most noted physicians of the country as to its superiority over all others. Read what the noted Dr. John Hey Williams, of Asheville, has to say for Harris Lithia, springs.

Asheville, N. C., April 24, 1893. An extended clinical use of Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best, Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvellous. Its use in the Rheumatic and County Diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry Waters.

Very truly yours,
JOHN HEY WILLIAMS, M. D.
We guarantee that one glass of Harris Lithia carbonated water will relieve any case of indigestion in one minute or our agent is authorized to refund you the money, or if taken after each meal will cure the most stubborn case of indigestion. Why suffer when you have the guarantee?

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store

Died on Surgeon's Table.

W A Andrews, of Durham, died Monday on the surgeon's table. An operation was regarded as the last hope of relief. When the incision was made it was found that no relief was possible, and death followed.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.

A THOUSAND TONGUES

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her hacking cough that for made years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure "it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.
