CONCORD, N. C., Nov. 10.

THE PENITENTIARY SELF SUSTAINING.

It has been claimed that the state penitentiary is essentially an expense to the state and that Mr. Leazer was ill-designing when he told the fusion legislature that no state appropriation to the penitentiary was necessary and that he would take it for ten years and give bond for proper conduct of the affairs.

Now Col. Osborn who is superintendent Day's most active helper claims that the penitentiary will meet expenses this year and he offers to take and run the penitentiary for the next ten years free from expense to the State and give bond for good faith in every particular.

Col. Osborn is not the man to make empty boasts. It is a fact beyond reasonable doubt that the penitentiary is capable of being self-sustaining.

WILL IT REPEAT "8 TO 7"?

The situation in Kentucky seems much like the presidential affair in 1876.

Both sides claim a majority in this case of about 4,000 votes. Fraud is charged by both. One of the 8 to 7-electoral-commission in that famous contest said that probably the friends of the contestants were more nearly right in what they asserted than in what they denied. This seems probable in the Kentucky case. As a last resort for a decision the legislature will pass open the case. The legislature will be Democratic, so if the voting be a repetition of the 8 to 7 episode Goebel may land in the gubernatorial chair.

Viewed from this distant standpoint it would probably be a miscarriage of right, reversing the parties gratified.

Our thanks are most gratefully tendered to Misses Ellen and Alice Cruse and their brother, Mr. Anderson, Cruse for a basket of the finest Irish potatoes we have seen this season. Twenty-three is the number and 19½ pounds is the weight, one of the largest ones weighing one pound and six ounces. The 23 make nearly one and one-third pecks. We are glad to see the success attending their efforts to produce such extraordinary farm products, we are glad to receive them as substantial contributions to a not overflowing pantry, but the climax of our gratification is inspired at their presentation in memory of the days when the relations of teacher and pupils set aglow a flame that yet burns freely on the altar of friendship.

Gen. Lee Wouldn't Sell His Name.

Soon after General Lee went to Lexington, Virginia, he was offered the Presidency of an insurance company at a salary of ten thousand dollars. He was at that time receiving only three thousand dollars as President of the Washington and Lee University. "We do not want you to discharge any duties, General," said the agent, "we simply wish the use of your name; that will abundantly compensate us." "Excuse me, sir," was the prompt and decided rejoinder; "I cannot consent to receive pay for services I do not render." Nearly every mail brought him similar proposit, and just a short while before his death a large and wealthy corporation in New York City offered him fifty thousand dollars per annum to become its president. But he refused all such offers and quietly pursued his chosen path of duty. —Ladies Home Journal.

Judge Robinson and the Iredell Bar.

Judge Robinson in opening court at Statesville Monday instructed the solicitor to draw up a bill against the commissioners of Iredell for not drawing a jury for the second week of court and instructed the grand jury to investigate the matter as it had gone forth that the bar charged him with discourtesy and that they therefore caused the commissioners to not draw the jury. This construction was given in the Charlotte News. Judge Robinson said that Mr. B F Long was the only member of the bar that had written him disavowing it.

Mr. L C Caldwell said that the judge seemed to slap the bar in the face, though he hardly thought he so meant it. The judge disavowed such purpose, and the bar generally disavowed objections to the judge as the cause of their action, but that it was because the supreme court heard cases in this district at that time. There was an amicable adjustment of the matter and Judge Robinson withdrew proceedings against the commissioners.

Oyster Crop Short.

The New Bern Journal says there is a decided shortage in the oyster crop in the State this fall. Dealers in New Bern have already notified their customers, says the Journal, of an advance of from 75 cents to $1.00 per bushel without promising a supply at the advanced prices. Every probable region of supply is sought but the shortage continues. Ordinary oysters in the city have sold during the week for $1.25 per gallon.

The Journal explains several causes, such as the very hot summer and severe storms.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows that thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, help digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Cow Causes a Fatal Wreck.

A log train of the Atlantic Coast Lumber Company, running on the Georgetown (S. C.) and Western railway, struck a cow Thursday and six cars overturned. The great logs rolled over and ground three men to a pulp. Three others were perhaps fatally injured.—Greenville Reflector.
