STIEFF PIANOS

"SING THEIR OWN PRAISE."
 Under No Circumstances Can It Really Be Disputed;

And it is a reality that we make strictly one grade. A large or small size, as desired, but only one grade. Why buy an instrument because it is advertised as cheap? Purchase an instrument that stands high in the estimation of your friends and the Greatest Musicians all over the world. A Piano with a pure tone, delicate touch, etc. In fact a Piano with every improvement that is beneficial to the wear; and at one price within the reach of all, because we save you the Middleman's Profit, and it is worth saying, too.

Old instruments taken in exchange. Terms accommodating. Catalogue for the asking. Some bargains in square pianos.

CAT KILLS AN EAGLE.

Then Saved Her Own Life by Using Her Victim as a Parachute.

A tiger cat belonging to Farmer Hazard, of Herrick, Susquehanna county, Pa., was strolling out toward the barn a few days ago, carrying in her teeth a piece of meat for her young. A bald eagle, which had been hovering over the farm for a week, suddenly descended upon her and whirled her upward in a rapid vertical flight.

The path of ascent, to the eye of a spectator watching the scene, was clearly indicated by loose feathers violently tossed from the point of combat. In a brief time the struggling pair came to a standstill in the sky. The eagle's wings had dropped now and then, and he had given plain evidence of pain and terror, yet not once had his awful grip appeared to relax. At length a descent was begun, with a rapidity which increased every moment, and the two animals struck the ground at the very point where they had at first encountered each other, but the eagle was dead, and the cat, as soon as she felt terra firm beneath her feet, shot away for the barn, still carrying the bit of meat.

Investigation proved that the cat had cut the eagle's throat and so lacerated its breast that its body was literally laid open. After the death in midair, however, the cat had been too clever to relax her hold and thus fall to the ground, but had let her enemy serve as a parachute to ease her descent.

The cat is none the worse for her aerial flight and battle.—Selected.

Can It Be True?

A gentleman living a few miles north of Monroe lost his bearings, so far as the reckoning of time is concerned, last week and did a hard days plowing seeding wheat last Sunday. He started his plow by daylight and quit the field a little before dark in order that he might shave and get ready for Sunday, as he thought it a desecration of the Sabbath to shave on that day. As he was shaving a neighbor came up and informed him that it was Sunday and not Saturday. It was a hard matter to convince the man who had lost a day from his reckoning that he was wrong as to the day of the week.—Monroe Enquirer.

O! CUSTOMER!

"Down on the farm," when the good housewife calls her husband to dinner—"John! John!"—John does not come, but when she cries, "O-o-o-o! John," and puts the emphasis on the "O," then John comes to his repast. So with us—we call from week to week, "Customers! customers! come to the feast of bargains in Furniture!" Many have availed themselves of the opportunities for buying the past season, but those who have not, you heard our trade call, and we again cry through this paper, "O! customers."
