The Wilmington Morning Star says the Rowland Lumber Company will run a branch of railroad, 25 to 40 miles long, into Faison, Duplin county, tapping a very fine lumber region, where they will erect a two-band saw mill, planing machines and necessary appendages. The capacity of the mill will be 100,000 feet of lumber per day, employing about three hundred hands for mill and railroad.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Question Agitating the Minds of the Diplomats—The President's Situation.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON. — China evidently thinks that we are going to grab a section of her seacoast. At the State department it is claimed that we are only looking for fair play for American products at the hands of foreign nations controlling ports in China. Representatives of northwestern States have already put themselves on record as being in favor of the movement. Prominent among them is Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, who regards China as a most desirable market for our grain and other agricultural products. Meanwhile, nothing definite is announced. The "open door" has not yet swung ajar.

Early in the week President McKinley went to Canton, as is his usual custom; to vote. Following his return comes a strong report that Senator Hanna will have no hand in the campaign of 1900. Since the latter's recent talk about the harmless nature of trusts, the President has received many letters advising that his henchman had committed a grave blunder and had better be thrown over.

Politicians on the inside say that the President will accept the inevitable. There are many things to give color to this report.

Senator Hanna was backing Judge Paxson, of Pennsylvania, as Interstate Commerce Commissioner to succeed Mr. Calhoun. Senator Cullom, however, secured the appointment of ex-Governor Fifer, of Illinois.

This is claimed to be the first time that any of Senator Hanna's friends have been turned down. The President has also taken occasion to speak warmly of Senator Foraker, who, as everybody knows, was frozen out by Hanna. The large labor vote, too, that went to Mr. Jones in the late election might be expected to have some effect.

Altogether, the report seems to be more than mere rumor. In case it is true, Chairman Dick, who managed Nash's campaign against McLean, is said to be slated as Senator Hanna's successor.

The members of the diplomatic corps have had a busy week, especially the representatives of those nations interested in the Chinese question. There is little doubt that all these embassies are armed with instructions from their respective governments. From the numerous visits of the staff of the Chinese minister, an out-sider would think that the State Department was about to open a laundry.
