Concord, N. C., Nov. 24.

Some wreckers at work on the Almirante Oquendo found a safe low in the vessel that contained $19,000 in Spanish gold.

Only a few days before, says a Santiago dispatch, they found a silver set on the torpedo boat destroyer Furor.

There is some rich pickings from that ocean floor it seems. The company conducting the salvage does not care much who won the victory, Schley or Sampson.

The latest from Aguinaldo is that he was seen hatless, with clothes muddy and torn and horse jaded, with only about 15 followers, making his way before the American dash which he did not anticipate before the rainy season is ended. "Aggie" is doubtless wiser than he was last February and lacks only the profitable application of the lesson.

Some noble hearted women of Chicago have completed an organization to honor Generals Lee and Wheeler each with a sword. They will also urge the appointment of these two objects of their admiration to positions as Major Generals in the United States Army. That sounds better than the home business.

It is calculated to be quite soothing to Admiral Dewey in the late reversal of popular outburst that Chicago does not approve of the criticisms of his transfer business and wants him to be present on the first of May next to celebrate the anniversary of the famous victory.

THE Fourth Annual Convention of the Southern Publishers' Association was held in New Orleans on the 21st. It was a cluster of our journalistic stars of the first magnitude.

Honeycutt Not Killed.

A Marion dispatch of the 22nd says that ex-Sheriff Pritchard corrects the report that he killed the alleged Honeycutt. He says Honeycutt is yet at large.

Lightning Will Have to Strike Him.

A dispatch from Cordele, Ga. of the 20th says:

"Notice was served on a Mr. Anderson at Listonia, near here, yesterday that he must give up a Sunday school which he had started in which there are both white and negro children in attendance. Listonia is a colony of Northern settlers on the Georgia and Alabama road about seven miles from Cordele. Mr. Anderson is one of the settlers and some time ago started his 'mixed' school. A meeting of the people in the neighborhood was held and a committee was appointed to inform Mr. Anderson that his school must be disbanded or he would have to take the consequences. This gentleman informed the committee that he would continue his school at all hazards. Should he persist in his determination, serious trouble will be certain to result."

H L Freeman returned yesterday morning on the 9:55 train from Lexington, where he spent Sunday with friends and relatives. Mr. Freeman has accepted a position as boss machanic at the Erwin mill and will make West Durham his future home. Mr. Freeman is a mechanic of much experience, and the Erwin mill management should congratulate themselves on securing his services.—Horning Heard.

Forty Years of Good Work.

In beginning his sermon Sunday morning Rev. Jethro Rumble, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, adverted to the fact that he had now entered upon his fortieth year as pastor of that congregation. His work has been wonderfully blessed and his people pray that he may long be spared to continue it.—Salisbury Sun.

Concord Institute Growing.

Students doing thorough work. Up-to-date institution in Literary, Art, Music, Business and Commercial departments. Five Graduate Teachers. New class rooms. Low prices. More bright young men and women wanted to take Business course and qualify themselves for good positions in Stenography, Typewriting, &c.

J. H. LIPPARD, Pres.

Branson's Agricultural Almanac for 1900—Centenary edition is out in good time as usual and full of valuable information about North Carolina. Dr. Branson makes his own calendars, and guarantees his calculations to be correct to the nearest whole minute. This and other reference books, have made Dr. Branson quite an enviable reputation, as to current State history. Few ten cent books, if any, are so valuable as the Almanac.

August Flowers.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Fetzler's drug store. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

CARR-EDWARDS TRIAL.

The Jury Drawn Thursday Afternoon and Witnesses Testify—Witnesses Excluded Until Called to Testify.

The Salisbury correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says that the trial of Tom Carr and Will Edwards, the defendants in the Concord murder case, came up Thursday afternoon. Col. Paul B Means, of Concord, who, with Mr. Lee S Overman, represents Edwards, moved for a continuance as to his client, alleging that he had been prevented from executing the order of the court authorizing him to have Robert Richardson, who was in company with the two defendants at the time of the slaying, taken to the scene where the shooting had occurred, there to be examined in behalf of Edwards. Notice had been duly served, he said, on both the solicitor and Mr. W G Means, counsel for the State. He had not been able to hold the examination on the 20th inst., and an attempt to do so on the 21st was frustrated by Mr. L T Hartsell, Richardson's counsel, and Mr. W G Means, who advised the prisoner not to testify. Both of these gentlemen, corroborated by the mayor of Concord, Mr. G W Means, denied this, stating that they had only told Richardson that he need not testify unless he wished to. Richardson has not been indicted and is subpoenaed as State's witness. Col. Means' motion was refused. Messrs. A H Price and John S. Henderson moved for a severance, as they believed the line of defense of their client, Carr, to be utterly incompatible with that of Edwards. This also was refused, when the next matter in order became to select a jury, which was done with gratifying promptness, though the veniremen had to be acceptable to three sets, namely, the State, Carr and Edwards, all hostile each to each.

On motion of Col. Means all witnesses were excluded from the room until called to testify. Dr. L M Archey and T R Penninger were put on the stand by the State; counsel for defendant, Edwards, introduced Mr. Gowan Dusenberry and Chief of Police J F Harris, all the witnesses, of course, from Concord. The evidence of Dr. Archey and Penninger only seemed to be of any consequence.

WITNESSES BEING EXAMINED.

Salisbury, 8:30 p. m.—Robert Richardson is on the stand being examined as to the shooting. Several other witnesses are yet to be examined.

While There is Life There is Hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shautz, Rahway, N. J.

The Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by drug gists at 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.
