

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARGE, BENTON CO. ARR., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.
MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

WINE OF CARDUI

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

Jay Sims All Right.

From the time the transport "City of Para" sailed from Honolulu, parents of our Concord soldiers have not been able to get intelligence from their loved ones. Esq. W J Hill and Mr. Jno. A Sims each wrote to the war department at Washington for information. Mr. Sims got an answer from the Adjutant General's department today (Saturday), saying that the vessel arrived at Manila on the 3rd of November, and that the name of Mr. Jay Sims was not included in the list of casualties forwarded under date of the 18th. This is complete assurance that Jay arrived all right. We hope Esq. Hill and others will receive equal assurance soon.

The Palmist Closes Her Stay.

Mme Elrado closed her doors today at twelve and will go to Charlotte Monday. She is pleased to have excited much interest in the science of palmistry. She has gotten a good degree of patronage from the most desirable class of our citizens who are doubtless, like the writer, curious to gain some insight into this science. As far as we know her stay in our town has been without incident to detract from her professionally or personally when we bear in mind that Palmistry like many other sciences seems not completely mastered by any one.

Louis Swink Home.

Little Louis Swink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swink, has returned home from Philadelphia, where he has been in the hospital for several months. He is very much improved.

Too Green to Pop.

Miss Susan had a beau who was too bashful to propose, although she was always ready to help him out. One day, she invited him to dinner, and among the rest of good things to eat was green corn. Upon this last, he congratulated her. "Yes," said she, "it is very nice. It reminds me of you." "How so?" "Because it is too green to pop," she answered with not a blush. — Our Church Paper.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottle free at Fetzer's Drug store.

August Flowers.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells.
