STIEFF
PIANOS

"SING THEIR OWN PRAISE."
Under No Circumstances Can a Reality Be Disputed;

and it is a reality that we make strictly one grade. A large or small size, as desired, but only one grade. Why buy an instrument because it is advertised as cheap? Purchase an instrument that stands high in the estimation of your friends and the Greatest Musicians all over the world. A Piano with a pure tone, delicate touch, etc. In fact a Piano with every improvement that is beneficial to the wear; and at one price within the reach of all, because we save you the Middleman's Profit, and it is worth saving, too.

Old instruments taken in exchange. Terms accommodating. Catalogue for the asking. Some bargains in square pianos.

Chas. M. Stieff, Piano Manufacturer, Baltimore Md.
Factory Branch Wareroom, No. 213 N. Tryon St., Charlotte, N. C.

C. H. Wilmoth, Mgr.

Mr. G W Ould, of Lynchburg, spent Monday night here.

Mrs. D F Cannon has gone to Salisbury to visit her relatives.

A lock on the chicken house door is now useless, since the conference was here.

Mrs. Barnhart, who has been visiting at Mrs. R A Brown's, has returned home.

Mr. C A Pamplin returned to Asheboro Monday after spending Sunday here.

Bishop Key has gone to South Carolina, where he will hold conference next week at Orangeburg.

Mr. Claude Hix, of Turnersburg, arrived here Monday night to visit his sister, Miss Dora Hix.

Mr. Henry Neal, who has been living out at the Bala mill, has moved to Bosts Mills in No. 9 township.

Miss Annie Furgeson, who went to the Greensboro State Normal to nurse the sick, has returned home.

Miss Nannie Cannon has gone to Durham to spend several days. While there she attends the marriage of Miss Watts.

Dr. W H Wakefield, of Charlotte, N. C. will be in Concord at St. Cloud on Friday, Dec. 15th one day only. His practice is limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

GOOD RICH CREAM every morning and evening this week.
RIVIERA DAIRY.

Mr. Chas. Boyd to Leave Columbia.

The following is taken from one of the Columbia papers:

"Mr. Charles Boyd, one of the most obliging men the Western Union has ever had in Columbia leaves for Roanoke in a few days to accept a position with the Associated Press. Mr. Boyd has been in the Western Union office here for about 11 years and has risen step by step, becoming night manager and then day manager. He is an expert telegrapher and as clever a young gentleman as ever manipulated the keys. Again he is reliable and faithful, and the paper that has him handling its wire is to be congratulated. He will be sadly missed in the Western Union office here."

Mr. Boyd will spend Thursday night here on his way to his new home.

Changes In the Appointments.

Several changes have been made in the appointments since the reading of them Monday night. Bishop Key has changed Rev. T W Smith to Central church here as second man. Rev. G T Rowe, who had been assigned to Mooresville, goes to Bessemer City station, and Rev. W P McGhee, who was assigned to Pilot Mountain circuit, goes to Mooresville station. By these changes the Pilot Mountain circuit is yet to be supplied.

M. L. Marsh & Co. guarantee very bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take and prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

The St. Cloud barber shop will be closed Thursday morning at 10 o'clock on account of Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. W B Holt, who for some time has been a loom fixer at the Cabarrus mill, has accepted a position at Rockingham.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving box for Barium Springs Orphanage to be packed this evening at 7 o'clock at Gibson & Morrison's store.

Misses Jennie Skeen and Maggie Moser, of Mt. Pleasant, who have been visiting Mrs. Pink Misenheimer, have returned to their homes.

Miss Brenson, an orphan girl who has been staying at the Thompson orphanage in Charlotte, is now living with Mrs. Alice Parlier, who lives near this place.

Miss Mary Thompson has returned to school at the Greensboro Female seminary after spending a few days at home during conference.

Mrs. Jas. McCanless and daughter, Miss Irene McCanless, have returned to Salisbury after spending several days here at Mr. Geo. W Brown's.

Madame Lela Elrado went to Durham on business today instead of going to Charlotte as she intended. She still has her room in the Litaker building and will be back and open Friday until Saturday night twelve o'clock. She will go to Charlotte next Monday.

Fields and Hansen's Minstrels Tonight.

Tonight the Fields and Hansen minstrels will have the opera house to give to our people the funny jokes, singing, dancing, and other things well calculated to make any one laugh. They promise all a royal treat, and that it will be devoid of vulgar speeches or bad features.

They gave a parade today with their band and several other members. Their band is a good one, and of course brought out a crowd. The prices are 25, 50 and 75 cents. Tickets on sale at Gibson's drug store.

The minstrel will open this evening at 8:45 o'clock with the special scene, "Admiral Dewey's reception." There are thirty-one members in the company and twenty-three of them will be on the stage tonight. This is said to be one of the best minstrels on the road.
