Success In the Philippines.

Dispatches continue to show progress in the Philippines.

It is sad to note that Capt. Warwick of the Eighth Infantry and one private were killed on Nov. 26th in the Iloilo Province in gaining a substantial victory and driving the enemy and capturing munitions of war.

The following culled from Gen. Otis' reports of Dec. 1 are very satisfactory.

"Dispatches from Lawton indicate Bayombong was captured on the 26th inst. Both trails over the mountains are impracticable for wheel transportation of any kind. The troops have subsisted on rice, and scant supplies at that. MacArthur's troops have had several minor engagements, capturing men and rifles. Bell's capture in the mountains includes 14 modern guns, all in good condition. Over 50 pieces of artillery were captured by the troops of his corps in the last three weeks. The Oregon brought in 106 Spanish prisoners from Vigan yesterday. Ninety-four were received by rail the previous evening. Young, with three troops of cavalry and March's battalion of the Thirty-third Infantry, should have reached Vigan yesterday.

"Conditions in Zamboanga are satisfactory. Additional ordnance was surrendered, consisting of four field pieces, 17 rifles and a quantity ammunition. The natives of adjoining towns are visiting the city, and native military bands are serenading the troops. The thirty-first Infantry leaves Manila this evening to garrison several stations on the Mindanao coast; no difficulties are anticipated."

"Gen. Conon surrenders 800 officers and men with rifles, several Americans, and 70 Spanish prisoners, and the garrison at Bayombong, province of Nueva Vizcaya, to Lieutenant Monroe, with 50 men of the Fourth cavalry."

A Washington dispatch of Dec. 1st says:

"Word comes from the Philippines that the two companies of Maccabeo scouts, under Captain Batson, are doing so well that it has been decided to organize a full battalion of those natives. The additional two companies will be very useful in the present campaign, in tracking the fleeing remnants of Aguinaldo's disorganized army."

Killed His Wife to Death.

Jacksonville, Fla., has an ugly sensation to the effect that Jno. D. Williams kicked his wife so brutally as to cause her death. He is under arrest.

Flattering Gift to U. D. C.

Mrs. J. H. Turner, vice principal of Maryland College, at Lutherville, Md., presented to the United Daughters of the Confederacy at their late meeting in Richmond a scholarship in that noted institution of learning. The gift was much appreciated. Her husband was a gallant soldier in the Confederate Army and bears marks of his prowess.

The Difference in the Cotton Market.

Mr. Nat Johnson, one of No. 3 township's good farmers, has yet his bill of the first cotton he ever sold on the Concord market. While selling his cotton this year he brought it along to town and showed it to us. It was in the year 1854 that he sold it. The bales weighed about 340 pounds each and he was paid nine cents per pound. In 1870 he sold another lot, one of the bales weighing 568 pounds, and he was paid 17.30 for it. This lot was sold to Phifer & Cannon, which firm did business where D P Dayvault is now merchandising. For his 1899 lot he was given 7.75. So these are nearer the days of '54 than '72.

Worth Sticking a Peg by.

Do the best with your little duties. They contain the principle of true service; they are the make-up of most of our lives; and by them we shall be judged at the last. We will not be judged by the great things we intended to do. Just to do cheerfully, faithfully, obediently, the little every-day duties that come to us, not waiting for something great or high, this will go far toward making for us each a happy, rich and contented life.—Dr. Hallock.

The boss turkey so far reported is roaming around on an Illinois farm. He stands five feet high and weighs sixty-five pounds. He is too big to tackle, and has the joke on the smaller fellows.—Wilmington Star.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

CALLED MEETING.

President C B Miller Calls the N. C. Synod of the E. L. Church to Consider the College Question.

"Rev. Chas. B Miller, of this place, president of the Lutheran Synod and Ministerium of this State, has issued the following notice to the members:

The committee appointed by the N. C. Synod to solicit bids for the location of North Carolina college, have suggested a call meeting of the Synod at an early date. The same has been petitioned for also by the required number of ministers of Synod.

"I therefore call the Ev. Lutheran Synod and Ministerium of North Carolina to convene in St. Johns Ev. Lutheran church, Salisbury, N. C. on Tuesday, December 19th, '99 at 10 a. m. to consider the report of the committee appointed by Synod to solicit bids for the location of North Carolina college; and the general interest of the college.

In view of the importance of the matter in hand, let no member fail to be present unless provisionally hindered.

"The lay delegates of the last annual meeting of Synod will be members of the called meeting."

C. B. MILLER, Pres. of Lutheran Synod and Ministerium of N. C.
L. E. BUEBY, Secretary.

The Semi-Annual Election of Officers.

The Knights of Pythias at their semi-annual election of officers Friday night elected the following officers:

H M Weir, C. C.; Robt. P Benson, V. C.; Wade Barrier, P; R L McConnell, K. of E. and S.; C L White, M. of E.; Albert Frieze, M. of F.; J W Toney, M. at A.; W L Robbins, I. G.; H L Parks, O. G.

The Knights also took Prof. W S Wilson and Mr. Paul Parks over the mysterious paths of the first degree.

Concord Mill News.

The following is clipped from the Textile Excelsior:

"E-A Holt, carder and spinner at the Lippard and Shealy mill, Concord, N. C., has resigned his position there to accept another in the Pee Dee No. 2 mill, Rockingham, N. C.

"Will Hornbuckle, formerly overseer weaving at O'Fall Mfg. Co., Concord, N. C., and Lynchburg, (Va.) cotton mills has been made night overseer of weaving in the Cabarrus mill, N. C.

No doubt it's only a fancy that when Nature one fall saw the bare limbs of the trees she immediately made the chrysanthemums a kind of bloomers.—Philadelphia Times.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for year by chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich. tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold at Fetzler's Drug Store.

The Funeral of Mrs. Ann Fink.

At 10 o'clock the funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. W C Alexander, assisted by Rev. C B Miller, after which the remains of Mrs. Fink were laid in the city cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. D B Morrison, W M Smith, Jas. C Fink, M M Gilton, W W Stuart and Dr. H C Herring.

Friday a Big Cotton Day.

Not for several weeks has Concord's streets been so full of cotton wagons as it was on Friday. One side of the street was lined up with the wagons as they would get in line. It kept Mr. Propst busy most of the day. His score was 270 bales. It ranged at about 7.75.

Didn't Know of Her Death.

Mr. Valentine Stirewalt, of Davidson, reached here Friday afternoon. He came to see his sister, Mrs. Ann Fink, but had not received the news of her death. His daughter, Mrs. Paisley, Mr. and Mrs. Baron Pressly and Miss Julia Stirewalt also attended the funeral of Mrs. Fink.
