RESULT NOT SURPRISING.

Some emphasis is laid on the fact that the decision of the question in favor of Wake Forest over Trinity in the public debate in Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day, was purely on the merits of the debate and not on the merits of the question. Debates often get their force from the topic debated. All things else being equal, it is not surprising that Wake Forest should win on the negative of the query: "Resolved, that United States Senators should be elected by direct vote of the people."

IT seems that the government may yet come into possession of all the facts connected with the blowing up of the Maine. It is regarded as a fact that 4 cases of gun cotton were shipped from Spain each containing 350 pounds and that two of them got out of the magazine at Havana and were used to destroy the Maine. As we did not spank Spain for this crime, of which positive proof of guilt was lacking, why should not some body be roasted for it yet?

MISS Annie Louise, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Watts of Durham was wedded to Mr. John Sprunt Hill, of New York, on Wednesday night the 29th at the home of the bride's parents in Durham. The Sun in nearly three columns gives a beautiful account of the brilliant affair. We doubt not the Sun's excellent write up was properly appreciated.

Congress will convene Monday and will doubtless adjourn out of respect to the Vice President. It is said that President McKinley will avail himself of that one day to delay his message, hoping for a drop in Philippine affairs, perhaps even the capture of Aguinaldo. But then the watched pot never boils.

SINCE the Supreme court turned down Mr. Bedenfield and set up Dr. Abbott there's no knowing where we're at. The bars are let down so low that S. Otho Wilson and all the gang are preparing to jump back in.

IT is said that the apple crop of four counties in Virginia this year brought $280,000 and left enough at home for pies and for every kid to take his pockets full to school every day.

In Newark N. J. a pastor fell upon the plan to have lady ushers in church. It works like a charm.

WHAT OF THAT?

Tired! Well, what of that? Didst fancy life was spent on beds of ease; Fluttering the rose leaves scatter'd, by the breeze? Come, rouse, thee! Work while it is called today! Coward! arise! Go forth upon the way!

Lonely! And what of that? Some must be lonely! 'Tis not given to all To feel a heart responsive rise and fall, To blend another life into its own, Work may be done in loneliness. Work on.

Dark! Well, and what of that? Didst fondly dream the sun would never set? Dost fear to lose thy way? Take courage yet! Learn thou to walk by faith and not by sight; Thy steps will guided be, and guided right.

Hard! Well, what of that? Did fancy life one summer holiday? With no lessons to learn, and taught but play? Go: get thee to thy task! Conquer or die! It must be learned! Learn it then patiently.

No help! Nay, it's not so! Though human help be far, thy God is nigh, Who feeds the ravens, hears His children cry, He's near thee, whereso'er thy footsteps roam. And He will guide thee, light thee, help thee home.

Hopeful Signs of the Times.

The Shelby Aurora contains the following very gratifying item:

"It is very gratifying to note the spirit of unity and cordial co-operation that is growing between all classes, and especially between the country and town. It is absolutely necessary for the progress and growth of our common country that the town and country must get together. The press, banks and merchants and even manufacturers recently united their efforts to prevent the farmers being victimized in the sale of their present crop. While the interest of the town and country is not identical, it is mutual and interdependent. Let peace, harmony, co-operation and mutual helpfulness prevail."

Used By British Soldiers In Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as command of the force that captured the famous rebel Galishe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by drug gists at 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

That lame back can be cured with Miles' KERSEY PLASTER. Only 25c.

Criticism of Judge Robinson.

From some attorneys and other citizens we learn facts which makes it mild to say that Judge Robinson is wholly unfit for the position he holds. His judicial temper, his low and common, plain wit, his unjust and prejudiced flings at others, his assuming the role of attorney for one and against another, as his prejudices dictate, are such as to wholly disqualify him as a judge.

His action here, as far as misdemeanors were concerned, was the same as it was last August, when he encouraged crime by suspending judgment or fining a penny upon payment of costs, taking away the penalties, and making the enforcement of the criminal law a farce. But in the case of John Farrow, he outraged the sense of justice of all or nearly all the members of the bar and of many good citizens, when he took the case from the jury and apologized to the slayer of the poor negro woman for sending him to the penitentiary for only one year.

* * * Taking Judge Robinson all in all he is certainly unfortunately unique as a judge. Both the bar and the people hope they will never see him nor his like at another term of Rowan Superior Court.—Salisbury Index.

Cut to Pieces Under Car Wheels.

A man was killed on the Southern's yard at Charlotte Friday night. His head, both legs and one arm were severed from the body. He had not been recognized yet when the Observer went to press and nothing is known as to how the accident occurred, save that he was run over by freight train No. 56.

Are Your Scales and Measures Correct?

The law requires that everyone must every two years have his scales and measures sealed by the standard weights and measures. Failure to comply with this law lays you liable to a fine of fifty dollars. I now have the stamping and sealing tools. You will find me at my blacksmith shop in lot at rear of Sampson's store.
