

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., NOV. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McELEE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

THE NEWS OF WASHINGTON.

The Dewey Talk Not Very Complimentary to Him—The Criticisms Piercing to Him.

From our Regular Correspondent.
Washington D. C.

Maybe it was only a tempest in a tea-pot, but it was a hard "blow" for cousin George Dewey. The old sea dog, admits himself that it was the nastiest sailing he ever encountered. Anent the transfer of the Dewey home, everybody had something to say, particularly those who did not contribute to the original fund.

And to tell the truth, the bulk of the comment was very uncomplimentary to Cousin George. Even the mention of his once idolized name was received with hisses at one of the local theaters.

The fact is that society has had a quarrel with Dewey for getting married at all. Washington girls expected to have no end of fun baiting the Admiral this winter. No public hero can take unto himself a wife without getting himself disliked by all the other women. They simply bottled up their wrath in waiting for a suitable excuse.

Admiral Dewey knows now that not only kings, but even republics may prove ungrateful. There is no doubt that the gossip cut the old sailor to the quick. He seems to be a sensitive man, but aside from that, the storm of criticism was enough to pierce the hide of a rhinoceros. Brother-in-law McLean got on his ear and offered the dissatisfied contributors their money back. But of course the affair did not go so far as that and the troubled seas of talk have gradually quieted down. It is all very much to be regretted.

Admiral Dewey claims that it was intended simply to transfer the property to his son. A good many people think the young man is lucky to get it. You "pays your money and takes your choice" of the two views. The fact remains that twice as much was spent for government stamps on the transfers as was necessary.

But then the government needs the money.

LAST CALL FOR TAXES.

TO THE PAYERS OF CABARRUS COUNTY:

Section 57 of the school law of North Carolina says that the sheriff shall settle the school tax for his county on or before December 31st, of each year and the law also says that the sheriff shall settle the State taxes by the first day of January in each year.

Now in order to do this I will have to collect about $25,000 between this and the 31st of December. This is no idle talk but the solid facts that are looking us squarely in the face. Some are coming in and settling up but if you haven't paid your tax this is to tell you that you must do so at once. If I have to visit you it will be at your expense so please attend to it at once and save cost.

Very respectfully,
J. L. PECK, Sheriff.

Notice to Tax-Payers.

The tax books for 1899 have been placed in my hands for collection and all tax-payers are requested to come forward and pay their taxes at once.
