Under No Circumstances Can a Reality Be Disputed;

And it is a reality that we make strictly one grade. A large or small size, as desired, but only one grade. Why buy an instrument because it is advertised as cheap? Purchase an instrument that shall be such in the estimation of your friends and the Greatest Musicians all over the world. A Piano with a pure tone, delicate touch, etc. In fact a Piano with every improvement that is a material to the wear; and at one price within the reach of all, because we save you the Middleman's Profit, and it is a saving, too.

Old instruments taken in exchange. Terms accommodating. Catalogue for the asking. Some bargains in square pianos.

W. G. Newman Bestowing Charity.

We notice from the Salisbury Index that W G Newman, the gold miner, is very charitable. The other day as soon as he arrived on his private car he began to give to the needy, somewhat as follows: payment of house rent for a widowed lady for one year in advance; payment of house rent for another party in pressing circumstances who was very much in arrears, and the distribution of fifty dollars in cash among others who applied for help. He was indignant that same day, though, over the fact that some one had stolen a fine $85 lap-robe.

To Be Married This Evening.

This evening at 7. 30 o'clock two of Concord's most popular people, Mr. Chas. J Harris and Miss Lallah Hill, will be married at the home of Mr. W J Hill. Rev. W C Alexander will officiate. After the marriage ceremonies a reception will be given to the invited ones, after which the couple will board the northbound vestibuled train for Washington, New York and other northern cities. Many beautiful presents have been sent to the bride.

To Occupy the Leslie House.

About the first of next year when Mrs. Leslie and daughters move into their beautiful new residence on West Depot street their present one will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kimball, who now live in China Grove. It will be remembered that Mr. Kimball recently began work at the depot here.
