

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the female organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

The commission has appealed to him for a rehearing of the issue and he has granted it. The trial is set for the 15th inst at Charleston S. C.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-Five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by M L Marsh & Co.

It is the wise head that makes the still tongue.—Lucas.

M. L. Marsh & Co. guarantee very bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take and prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Doubt whom you will, but never doubt yourself.—Bovee.

His Dream.

Papa (at the breakfast table)—Willie, my boy, why are you looking so thoughtful. Are you not feeling well?

Willie (very thoughtful)—Yes; papa; but I had strange dream this morning.

Papa—Indeed! What was it?

Willie—I dreamed, that I died and went to heaven and when St. Peter met me at the gate, instead of showing me the way to the golden streets' as I expected, he took me out into a large field. In the middle of the field, there was a ladder reaching away up into the sky and out of sight. Then St. Peter told me that heaven was at the top and that in order to get there I must take the piece of chalk he gave me and slowly climb the ladder, writing on each round some sin I had committed.

Papa (laying down his newspaper)—And did you finally reach heaven, my son.

Willie—No, papa for just as I was trying to think of something to write on the second round I looked up into the sky and saw you coming down.

Papa—And what was I coming down for pray?

Willie—That's just what I asked you, papa, and you told me you were coming down for more chalk.—Life.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for year by chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich, tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents Sold at Fetzner's Drug Store.

The greatest truths are the simplest, and so are the greatest men.—Hare.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows that thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, help digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold at Fetzner's Drug Store.

When a secrecy or mystery begins, vice or roguery is not far off.—Johnson.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

A cruel story runs on wheels, and every hand oils the wheels as then run.—George Elliot.
