

REVISION OF SCHEDULES.

The following change of schedule took effect June 12, 1909. NORTHPOUND. No. 8 arrives at 5:52 a. m.

REPHONE No. 71. FOUNDED 1842. PIANOS. "SING THEIR OWN PRAISE."

There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation. Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis.

Mr. Rufus Phillips has moved into his new residence on the east end of Corbin street two doors below Mr. Wash Earnhardt's home.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, has gone to New York to spend some time visiting the various hospitals. He will return about Christmas.

LOST—A brown shepherd dog with long hair. Finder will be liberally rewarded by returning to John Alexander at Standard office.

MR. DUGHY WRITES.

Yes He Did Slap That Spiritualist Prays for Concord to Be Delivered.

Some of our readers will remember our brief narration of an episode in Raleigh in which Mr. Dughy slapped the spiritualist, Dr. Schleisinger, for telling him, by aid of the spirits, that his bouncing, hearty boy was a puffy little girl that needed sage tea, and refusing to believe the fee of $1.00 on some cause of charity, in as much as it was the bargain that value was guaranteed or money to be refunded.

Now that the doctor is heading this way we are inclined to publish the following letter which we feel sure will better meet its purpose thereby. We feel assured from its nature and the absence of any restrictions that the author will not be offended at our taking this little liberty:

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 6, 1899. MR. EDITOR:—I see in your little, beautiful paper of December, 4th, 1899 a clip from the Raleigh 'Press-Visitor,' that I have slapped the spiritualist. It is true I tell you, Mr. Editor, and it was well done and the Lord spare your town from such a mean man. You have made a mistake in the bottom of your article that "Dughy was taken in the hands of the 'Cops.'" I had him before the magistrate to display his meanness, please correct. Please send me your paper for three months as I like it very much and I will pay.

Yours truly, A Dughy.

We learn that Mr Dughy is the prince of fruit merchants in Raleigh.

Cold Steel Or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation." was the awful prospect set before Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice.

A Frightful Blunder
