Miss Cannon's Dining.
 One of the nicest occasions of this season was the dining given by Miss Margaret Cannon Tuesday evening. The fortunate ones present were her friends, Misses Hooper, Harris and Caldwell, and Misses Emily Gibson and Elizabeth Gibson. The gentlemen present were Messrs.
 Jas. Van Ness, Hamilton Wilson, Osmond Barringer and Geo.
 Wadsworth, of Charlotte, and Jones Yorke and Chal White, of iting friends have returned to

Charged With Retaining Whiskey.
 Never does a case of drunk and disorderly come before Mayor Means but that he makes a desperate effort to find out where the fellows purchased their whiskey. The two drunk and disorderly cases of Sunday required such an investigation and as a result a white man named Ephraim Whitley was arrested Tuesday and is now out on bond for his appearance at the next term of court. The white fellow who was put in jail Sunday paid his fines and was released Tuesday.
