STILL MORE BUSINESS.

Night Work to Commence Soon in the No. 4 Mill at Odell's—More Houses to Be Built for the Operatives.

On account of the vast amount of business before them in filling orders, Superintendent Coble, of the Odell mills, informs us that work will soon commence at night in the No. 4 mill. This work will only be carding and spinning.

By running this department at night, it necessitates about 235 more hands. As there are now no vacant houses in town for these incoming people, the Odell company will soon begin the erection of twenty-four new houses. Most of them will be situated over toward the Buffalo mill.

Two More Being Added to His List.

Our townsman, Mr. H M Barrow, is getting to be somewhat of a property owner these days. In addition to his beautiful new residence on North Main street and the other two on the Burrage property, he is now having two residences built on St. Charles street at Forest Hill. He purchased the lot from Mr. W A Wilkinson.

Court Opens the 22nd.

On Monday, the 22nd of January, Superior court will open with Judge Timberlake on the bench. There is a goodly number of cases on the criminal docket. One of the principal cases to be tried will be that of the negro, Duan, for shooting Mr. Dolph Mauney near Gold Hill.

Moving to King's Mountain.

S M Gaskel, who for some time has been merchandising in the store room next door to S. J. Ervin's grocery store, has moved his stock of goods to King's Mountain. The vacant room has been rented by Mr. V D Sikes, who recently opened a nice grocery business in one of the Lita-taker rooms.

The Bank Flooded.

The National Bank floor has been undergoing a good scouring since some one left the water spigot open one night, flooding the entire floor with more than an inch of water. It was detected that night by the night-watchman.

The Dukes Buy a Large Slice of Florida.

A Leesburg dispatch of the 27th says: "Ninety-four thousand acres of land have been recently purchased in Lake county, this State, by the Dukes, of North Carolina. They expect to cut off and utilize the timber, plant the land in tobacco and eventually run a railroad across the country to connect with the Florida East Coast Railroad.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

MAINE'S VICTIMS

Laid to Rest at Arlington Cemetery With Military Honors.

The remains of the one hundred and fifty-one victims of the great Maine disaster were laid to their final rest in Arlington cemetery on the 28th with full military honors.

Capt. Sigsbee, who commanded the Maine, was in command of the military arrangements.

The Maine's chaplain participated in the ceremonies, which were simple though devout. Three volleys by an infantry squadron were fired and taps were blown, when all withdrew.

President McKinley and cabinet officers were present.

Several survivors of severe injuries from that terrible tragedy were present.

North Carolina Leads.

Boston, Dec. 27.—The number of textile mills constructed or contemplated in the United States for the last half of 1899, reviewed by the American Wool and Cotton Reporter, is 183 against 116 for the first half of the year. This makes a total of 299 mills for the year, against 262 for 1899, and 155 for 1897. The south still leads in the new cotton mill construction, with a gain of 14 mills over the number for the first of the year. The north has shown a greater increase, having an accession of 53 over the 25 reported the first six months in the year.

North Carolina, as usual, leads the list, with a total of 41. Georgia comes second, with a total of 21. Pennsylvania shows 19; South Carolina, 16; Alabama, 16; Massachusetts, 13; New York, 9; Rhode Island, 9; Maine, 9; Mississippi, Tennessee and Virginia, 6 each; Texas, 5; Connecticut, Louisiana and New Jersey, 3 each; Ohio, 3; Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota and Vermont, 1 each.

Fatal Walk On Trestle.

A fearful occurrence is noted from Anderson, S. C., on the 27th. A Mr. James J Jones and wife and two children, together with a brother-in-law of Mr. Jones were all caught on a railroad trestle. Mr. Jones with one child jumped into the swamp below as did the other man, and the other child fell through the track, but Mrs. Jones was caught and killed, her body being awfully mangled. All the others were seriously hurt by the fall.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Ridenhour returned to Kings Mountain this morning after visiting near Mt. Pleasant.

Character in the Hat.

Show me how a man wears his hat and I will tell you what manner of man he is. Notice yourself how he wears his headgear, and you can make a fair estimate of his character.

In choosing a companion for "life," for business, for an afternoon's jaunt among the hills or a few lazy hours on the beach, select a man whose hat seems to have been made for him, and which he has set squarely upon his head as it was designed to do, and never a tilt to the right or left nor fore or aft.

He is a methodical man and a comfortable man, with a rare endowment of common sense. He is not given to flights of fancy. He obeys the injunction of the homely philosopher who advised all mankind to keep his feet upon the ground.

His enemies never dreamed of calling him visionary, although they might be heard whispering behind their hands "prosaic." The man whose hat habitually fits him is a man of accuracy and logic.

Men whose hats are always too large for them are of reflective habits. They are careless of externals and given to introspection. They are philosophical and likely to fall into fits of pre-occupation. They are men of large ideas and broad views. They are apt to ignore mere details. Conspicuously of this class was the late Premier, Mr. Gladstone, whose hat brims always showed a disposition to reach his ears.

Men whose hats are always too small for them are vain and finical. Of this type are the pretty boys who promenade on Broadway and admire themselves, Narcissus-like, in shop windows.

The man whose hat is perfectly straight and nicely adjusted is a man of mathematical exactness of purpose and practice.—N. Y. World.

A Powder Mill Explosion

Removes everything in sight, so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures headache and constipation. Only 25c. at Fetzler's Drug Store.

The Genius of Woman.

"Speaking of women with saying dispositions," said Smith, "my wife's in a class all by herself." "How so?" queried his friend Jones. "Last week I bought an upright piano," replied Smith, "and my wife made a beautiful green plush cover for it, so the polish wouldn't get scratched. Yesterday she made another cover of linen, to go over the plush, to prevent that from getting solid. Next week I suppose she'll make a calico cover to protect the linen. Oh, I tell you, women have great big fertile minds."

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas C. Bower, Glencoe, O. Churchill's Experience.

The escape of Winston Churchill from Pretoria reads more like romance than reality. Having fallen into the hands of the Boers and, though not a combatant, he despaired of release, and while the guards were not vigilant he crawled over a wall and walked boldly and unchallenged through the streets, escaping the guards. He had to take detours around the guards at bridges and culverts. He boarded a train at full speed in the night and hid under coal sacks, jumping off the train while running just before day. He suffered intensely from hunger, knowing that great efforts were being made to recapture him. Till he got out of danger he was lean and weak.

It appears, however, that the authorities had about concluded to release him when he escaped. He has some costly glory from it.

British Soldiers Confident.

The British soldiers under Gen. Buller are said to be chafing under their defeat. They have the utmost confidence in their leader and will display a reckless determination to cross the Tregula river when forwarded again. It promises to be a fearfully dear victory if won though, for the Boer position is of great natural strength fortified with engineering of the advanced art of war and armed with heavy modern guns. The world will literally stand on tip toe to see the coming battle if Ladysmith is to be saved from capitulation.

Congressman Boutelle Insane.

Congressman Boutelle is in the McLean hospital at Waverly near Boston, being treated for insanity. His condition is said to be very precarious.

Pythians Take Notice!

Work in third rank.
C. L. White, C. C.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and paining me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me."—For sale by M L Marsh & Co. Druggist.

Grip makes one sick, weary and restless. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine brings rest.
