THE DYING YEAR.

Good-bye Old Year! We speed the parting guest.
 Although your life was short, you lived your span.
 You have your time to live and die like man,
 And now has come your time to go to rest.
 You rounded out the life you well began,
 You frolicked with the Spring when you were young,
 And to the long, warm summer came.
 When over the hills the blushing Autumn ran,
 You followed her and lingered at her side
 Until she fled when Winter came in sight,
 Armed with his weapons for a sturdy fight.
 With him so grim you could not well abide,
 And you lay out and weary, he in his prime,
 And you came to you just in the nick of time.

August Flowers.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that my lips in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy. It is a good remedy for indigestion, liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons suffering with indigestion, constipation and general bad feelings from irregular habits, that August Flower is a good remedy. It does not injure the system by any means, and it is the best for all such troubles and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store. Sold by druggists in all civilized countries.
