Mr. Sterling Brown, the bright hopeful of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brown, on returning from a drive Wednesday, in his own earnest way, told his father: "The moon has been racing with Prince all the way. It could not beat him so when Prince stopped it stopped racing and stood still just like Prince did."

Good Sized Jag.

A Cabarrus county man had on a good sized jag at the depot Wednesday morning. He was so well loaded, in fact, that a dray was called into service and the man hauled to the lock-up. He was too drunk to give his name. —Salisbury Index.

Tobacco Growers Meet.

The tobacco growers meeting in Raleigh Wednesday night was attended by over one hundred growers of the weed and substantial steps were taken to combat the American Tobacco Trust.

Several plans were presented but that of Mr. Jordan of Greensboro was adopted.

The plan if we conceive it rightly is to fix prices for the grades and if not accepted the association will proceed to manufacture the tobacco as a joint stock company sharing the profits.

A Mother's Awful Shock.

Mrs. Marie Patterson, of Cleveland Ohio, became a deserted young wife scarcely more than 15 years old from some family disagreement, the husband carrying away her 9 month old boy whom she regained after six years only to have him gotten away again by his father 9 years ago. Her first news of him came on the 15th inst. summoning her to Pittsburg penitentiary to meet her son whose execution was to be the following day. Great was the shock she said she always expected her boy to come to some bad end.

NOT AN IDLE DREAM.

How a Young Woman Saved Her Mother From Being Buried Alive.

An Indianapolis, Ind., dispatch of the 16th tells the following wonderful story:

Mrs. Ellen Crosby had a narrow escape from being buried alive in Crawford county. She had been pronounced dead and preparations for the burial were being made. While this was in progress her daughter, 19 years old, worn out by exhaustion, lay down to rest, but her eyes had scarcely closed before she sprang up and peremptorily insisted that her mother's body be returned to the bed. She remarked that her mother had recalled to her in her sleep, saying, "Mary, don't let them bury me alive."

The undertaker complied with the daughter's request, saying it was but a dream, but the daughter stoutly claimed the contrary and would not be denied. Nearly eight hours passed, when Mrs. Crosby slowly opened her eyes and looked at her daughter, who had remained by her bedside, constantly watching for a return to life.

Mrs. Crosby is now considered in a fair way of recovery.

Little Girl Burned To Death.

A very sad accident occurred near Palmerville on Tuesday of last week that caused the death of the sweet little 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Biles.

A waggoner had camped in Mr. Biles' yard on Monday night and left a burning fire behind. The little children were playing around the fire on the following morning when Letha's clothes caught, seriously burning her before her mother could reach her. She died early Monday morning from the effects of the burns. —Stanly Enterprise.

The War Dogs Are Biting.

Dispatches indicate that there is just now much activity in the South Africa war regions. The British are on the aggressive. Gen. Buller's progress is announced as satisfactory.

Dispatches even say that the Orange Free States are getting enough of the war.

Nothing decisive on a large scale is yet reported but indications point to sharp contests soon.

He Died from the Injuries Received by Being Thrown from the Buggy When Mr. Wadsworth's Horse Ran Away.

It will be remembered that on Tuesday Mr. Jno. C. Wadsworth's horse ran away, throwing Aleck Spencer, the negro driver, violently to the ground near the Odell store.

It was a hard fall he had on the rough street and he was badly hurt internally. On Wednesday night he died.
