A FALSE PRETENDER.

Tom Furr, a White Man, is Confined to Jail On the Charge of Getting Goods Under False Pretences—Falls to Get a Bondsman for Twenty-Five Dollars.

Some days ago a white man named Tom Furr purchased goods from the Cannon & Fetzer Co., claiming that he had money coming to him at the Cannon mills. He moved out of town and failed to pay his bill after two pay days had passed.

Mr. Caleb Robinson, who is now a deputy, went to arrest him Friday down the railroad near the old section house. The fellow showed a bad disposition by wanting to fight but handcuffs quieted him.

He was tried before a magistrate and bound over to court. The fellow could not find a man that would go on his bond for $25, hence he is confined to jail.

Hickory After the College.

The Hickory Democrat has this:

"This institution (N. C. college) could be secured for Hickory with little effort, and the importance of it should not be underestimated. This is a stronghold of Lutheranism, and there would be practically no opposition to the establishment of the college here if the proper steps were taken toward securing it. The town's claims should be put before the Synod in its approaching meeting by the Lutherans of Hickory and the business interests of the town demand that this opportunity should not slip. Inaction will lose it, as the widest awake town always carries off the prize."

Prof. Hamill Arrives Monday.

As previously announced Prof. Hamill, the great Sunday school worker, will arrive Monday and will deliver a lecture at Central Methodist church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. These lectures are a means of renewing vigor in the Sabbath school work, and the workers of all the different denominations are especially welcome.

Rev. W. L. Grissom Appointed.

Bishop Joseph S. Key, of Sherman, Tex., who presided over the last session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, has appointed Rev. W. L. Grissom, of Greensboro, representative of this conference in the Ecumenical Mission Conference, which will convene in New York the latter part of April. This body embraces representatives from the Protestant churches of the entire world. Mr. Grissom will attend the Conference.

A Reception Given Her.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable occasions of the New Year was a reception given Thursday night by Miss Beulah Haden at her home on Church street, complimentary to her attractive friend, Miss Sadie Fisher, of Concord.—Salisbury Truth-Index.

THE NEW DRUG FIRM.

The Company Purchases the Stock of Goods From Dr. J. P. Gibson—Improvements to be Made on the Building.

For some time there has been a trade on for the Gibson drug store by a new company. The trade has been closed and Messrs. Jno. C. Wadsworth, Frank L. Smith, Jos. F. Goodman, now of Augusta, and Will Flowe, of our county, have purchased the stock of goods and the new company now has charge of the business.

Mr. Jos. F. Goodman will not come here to assist in the work until this coming May. Messrs. J. C. Wadsworth and Will Flowe will not be connected with the business otherwise than as members of the company. Mr. Frank Smith will be in the store, also Mr. Scott Freeze.

It is the intention of the company to at once take steps towards the improvement of the building by placing plate glasses in the front and otherwise improving the appearance of the building.

Charming Social Event.

A participant in the pleasures of Friday night at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Fetzer's desires an expression so richly deserved of their most accomplished way of making a happy circle. The feast of good things could only be surpassed by the charming way it was presided over. To add to the pleasures Misses Van Wagner and Lucy Lore discoursed charming piano music in solo and duet.

The invited guests were, Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Fetzer, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stuart, Dr. and Mrs. Herring, Misses Van Wagner, Lucy Lore, Mary Ramsear and Willie Richmond, Prof. Kessler and Messrs. C. L. White and W. M. Stuart.

It was an occasion productive of those most endearing sensations of respect, true friendship and lasting attachment.

Her Mother Dead.

Miss Bessie McNeely, one of the young lady students at Sunderland hall, received the sad news Friday of the death of her mother at Statesville. She received no particulars of her death. She heard from her mother on Tuesday and she was as well as usual. Mrs. McNeely was the widow of Mr. William McNeely. Miss Rumble, one of the students at the school, accompanied Miss McNeely home.

We learn since that Mrs. McNeely was found dead in bed Friday morning.

Miss Mary Ella Cannon Returns.

After undergoing an operation for appendicitis in the hospital and a confinement of some time there Miss Mary Ella Cannon has returned home from the hospital at Salisbury. She is now almost entirely recovered and is able to walk about.

Mrs. G. H. Taylor, of Spartanburg, arrived here Friday night to spend a day or two. Mrs. Taylor is a member of the firm C. F. Taylor & Co., the top roll coverers, which does work for our cotton mills.

THE COLORED MISSION.

The Work of the Conference of Workers in the Colored Mission.

Reported for The Standard.

The conference of the workers in the colored mission in the State of North Carolina was called to order Friday morning in Grace Lutheran church (colored) by the pastor loci, Rev. J. Ph. Schmidt. The first business conference proceeded to was the election of officers, placing the Rev. N. J. Bakke, D. D., of Charlotte, in the chair, and electing Rev. John C. Schmidt, of Greensboro, as vice-president, Rev. George Schutes, of Salisbury, as secretary, and Mr. E. F. Roff, of this city, as treasurer.

After several matters of minor importance had been disposed of, conference gave its attention to a discussion by the Rev. Bakke on the requirements of applicants into our colored Lutheran congregations, the quintessence of the debate, in which all members present took an active part, being, that in ordinary cases the applicant be expected—his sincerity and Christian standing having been proven—to know the six chief parts of the small catechism of Dr. Martin Luther. It was also pointed out that exceptions must be made with regard to this general rule in cases of utter illiteracy, but that the minimum requisite would be a thorough understanding of both the law and the gospel, or of sin and grace.

After thoroughly discussing this theme, conference unanimously passed the resolution to adopt the work and presentation of this subject by Br. Bakke with thanks.

During the afternoon in public session a paper on the Fourth Commandment was read by Rev. George Schutes.

In the evening at 7:30 there was public worship and a sermon by Rev. W. P. Phifer, of Charlotte, after the close of which the continuation of the discussion on the Fourth Commandment was taken up.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be public services, at which the Rev. John C. Schmidt, of Greensboro, will preach, which will be followed by a discussion on the nature and mode of baptism.

In the evening at 7:30 there will again be a sermon by Rev. George Schutes.

Working at Night Now.

Superintendent Suther of the Cabarrus mill has begun running the looms in the old mill now at night. He started them Friday night in full force.

We Give No Rewards.

An offer of this kind is the meast of deceptions. Test the curative powers of Ely's Cream Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay fever and cold in the head and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. It soothes and seals the membrane. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.—Ely Bros, 56 Warren, St New York.

Mrs. W. R. Harris and children have returned home from Monroe.

A Literary Society Organized.

Written for The Standard.

The Institute Literary Society which was organized a week ago, held its first meeting Friday night. The society was called to order by the president, Miss Frances Lippard.

After the opening exercises by the chaplain, the following program was rendered:

Select Reading—Miss Rosa Mund.

Recitation—Miss Edith Shubert.

Vocal Solo—Miss Daisy Barrier.

Essay—Miss Conie Pounds.

This program was well rendered and was highly enjoyed by all present. After transaction of business and motion of adjournment, the meeting was brought to a close, by a brilliant piano duet, by two of our musical members.
