SALISBURY'S OFFER.

It is a bid for North Carolina College. The Tennessee Synod submits a proposition to the North Carolina Synod. The matter yet.

By telephone from Salisbury this afternoon we learn that there was a good working quorum at the opening session of the Lutheran Synod. Rev. R. C. Holland, D. D. read a report of the committee.

Salisbury made its offer for the college, which was $3,500 in money and subscriptions, and a 16 acre lot worth $6,500.

The Tennessee Lutheran Synod says if removal is determined upon it will offer a half interest in Conover college and an equal share in the management. The consideration will come up this afternoon. The program of this afternoon is in the hands of a committee appointed.

Mr. Henry Barger, with his young bride, who lives between Faith and Concord, will soon move to Faith. He has just bought a fine corner lot and let out the contract to W. S. Earnings to build his new residence right away. That's right young men, come to Faith, where there is plenty of work and plenty of money to pay for it, and where the people all live contented and happy.

Written for The Standard.

Georgeville, Feb. 20.—L. T. Shinn is preparing lumber for a new house. Think a moment about it.

Notwithstanding the cold weather we had a very good crowd at the debate last Saturday night and the old folks say that it is one of the most hotly contested debates that they have ever heard. It lasted nearly three hours. After the discussion was over the judges rendered decision in favor of the affirmative. We will debate the same question in Unionville on Saturday night, March 10th.
