GOOD GOLD PROSPECTS.

C G Heilig Locates the Vein on His Land—To Play Here Saturday Probably—Huntersville Challenges Them—Other News.

Written For The Standard.

Mt. Pleasant, March 28:—Mr. W D Anthony is beautifying the home of Rev. Paul Barringer with the paint brush.

Mr. John H T Fisher is very low with consumption.

Mr. Alonzo Blackwelder has returned home from a trip to Durham.

Miss Kate Coleman has moved in her new house on East mill street.

Our team will try to arrange a game of baseball with the Concord High School next Saturday. They also have a challenge from Huntersville team to play in Concord at some early date.

Mr. C G Heilig, since finding the rich gold on his farm, has had some prospecting done and has located the true vein. At a depth of three feet the vein is ten inches bound with slate. He has a piece of ore weighing about 60 pounds which upon being broken open exposed to view about 20 pennyweights of pure gold.

Mr. G R P Miller, a former citizen of Mt. Pleasant, is here looking after some new buildings which are to go up this spring. He will probably move his family back here.

Good Concert Tonight.

Let's all go to the concert tonight. We should encourage the United D. C. in their praiseworthy effort to secure funds for the soldier's home at Raleigh. Beside, the musical treat promises to be well worth the cost. The New Bern Journal says of its performance there:

"The program was an excellent one of eight numbers, which was lengthened by several encores.

Miss Helen Wrenn's first selection, soprano solo, "Bobolink," was so well rendered as to demand an encore. Miss Wrenn sang in part two, a selection from Gounod, and the Tuzahit Serenade, which were splendidly sung, her entire singing was of a high order.

Miss Foster played two violin solos, Sarabande, by Bohn, and the Serenade Bodine, which showed her playing ability, although it is to be questioned if the two selections gave full display to her best work.

Mr. Stevens appeared to fine advantage in his piano solos, and in the trios his violin playing was very fine, his playing is especially strong in expressive phrasing.

Mr. Schloss is no stranger in this city and received a hearty welcome. His encore, The Holy City, was beautifully played, as were parts in the trios."

A SMALL WRECK.

One of the Wheels of a Freight Car Breaks Down But No Damage Searched Done—The Force Increased at the Depot—Local News.

Written For The Standard.

China Grove, March 28:—Junius Rose is now clerking for the firm of Holshouser, Corriher & Co.

The dedication services will be held at the Presbyterian church on the second Sunday in April.

The young people of China Grove contemplate having a drama some time soon.

For a long while there has been such an amount of business at the depot that the agent, Mr. J A Thom, was not able to keep it up scarcely. But the company has sent an additional man here now to assist the agent during the day. Mr. Hewitt is the night operator.

A small wreck occurred here Monday by one of the wheels of a freight car breaking down. It happened just before the train pulled into China Grove. They managed to get the cars that were broken on the sidetrack and the damage was small. The conductor of the train got a slight bruise.

The Will Edwards Case Argued Tuesday.

The case of the State vs. Will Edwards, the negro who stands charged with the murder of Policeman Kerns, was argued in the supreme court at Raleigh Tuesday by Attorney General Walsor for the State and Col. P B Means for Edwards. No decision has yet been rendered.

He Still Holds the Place.

Several months ago when Mr. John Lady of the county was appointed a United States Commissioner it was thought by everyone and even Esq. W J Hill himself that Mr. Lady would be the only commissioner and that W J Hill would receive a notice that he no longer held the office but no paper to that effect has ever come and Esq. Hill still holds the position as well as Mr. Jno. Lady.

He Has an Automobile.

Mr Chas. Hinderlite, who has charge of the railroad tracks in this division, was here Tuesday with his automobile. It is the same as the railroad velocipede of former days with the exception that it is equipped with a gasoline engine, electricity being used to ignite the gasoline. He makes a speed of about thirty miles an hour and unlike the former ones he doesn't exert himself in the least.

It Seems Like Years Ago.

Our farmer friend, Mr. A M Freeze, was here Tuesday selling cotton. He was very much reminded of the good old days when he received for one bale of cotton $50.35, which is the most they say that has been paid this year for any one bale of cotton. The weight of the bale and the price were both high.

THE THIEF FOUND.

Chief Harris Works Up a Case of Theft and Finds That the Negro Is in Jail on Another Warrant.

Three weeks ago it was known that some of the furniture and carpets of the Presbyterian manse had been removed by some one and the matter was reported to Chief of Police Harris. The matter was looked into by him and the furniture and the carpets have been found in different houses in New Town between the Cannon and Buffalo mills.

These people purchased the furniture at very low prices but did not have any idea that there was anything wrong about the matter as the negro delivered his goods in day time.

The negro who sold the goods turns out to be Will Powell or Ben Tuma, as he goes by two names, and was placed in jail some time ago on a warrant charging him with stealing a pair of shoes. The furniture and carpets have all been found and will be placed back. Among the furniture that he sold was a nice sofa and delivered it to the purchaser in day time. He had offered some more of the furniture of the manse at a reduced rate but one night when the intended purchaser was expecting to be taken to a place to see it the negro slipped away from him. The matter will come up in the coming term of court.

To Have a Position in the Central Office.

Miss Rose Harris will begin at the central telephone office next Monday to assist Miss Nannie Archibald, who has at present been assisted by her sister, Miss Kate Archibald. The time will be divided by the lady operators as they think best.

Death of Miss Mary Troy Klutz.

A private telegram received here last evening announced the death in Baltimore at 7:30 p. m., of Mary Troy Klutz, the daughter of Representative Klutz, of the seventh congressional district, who was operated upon three or four weeks ago for appendicitis. It was at first thought she would recover, but continued high temperature and pneumonia supervened. She was about 14 years old and a bright, sweet girl. The body will be brought to Salisbury, arriving there at 6:40 tomorrow morning. The mother has been in Baltimore from the first and near her daughter. Mr. Klutz has given his attention to his congressional duties each day but has spent his nights in Baltimore since the operation.—Charlotte Observer of 28th.

The Elkin Times Changing Hands.

Editor Hubbard has sold the Elkin Times to Rev. J E Johnson, who will run it until April 1st and then he will probably be associated with Mr. Utley, of Davidson county. Both the editors will then be Baptist ministers and the future turn of the paper is not known—whether it will be secular or religious.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Benick Hamilton West Jefferson, Ohio, after suffering eighteen months from rectal fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. Surest pile cure on earth. Only 25c. a box at Fetzner's drug store.

YOUNG LADY HEADED THE MOB.

Leads to Jail and Hangs the Brute That Assaulted Her.

A Belair, Md. dispatch, of the 27th, says:

"Last night, with her disheveled hair flying and with a pistol in her right hand, Miss Annid McIlwaine led a mob of 200 men in an attack upon the jail in which was confined Lewis Harris, a negro who assaulted Miss McIlwaine yesterday. Under her direction the mob dragged Harris from the cell and led him down the street to a big tree. After he had confessed they hanged him, and riddled his body with bullets. During the attack on the jail several shots were fired and two men were wounded by the sheriff's shots."

Dr. J. B. Fox Seriously Ill.

The Semi-Weekly News, of Staunton, Va., of the 27th says that the Rev. J B Fox, Ph. D., the pastor of the Lutheran church there, has been seriously ill of pneumonia for several days. On the day previous he had had a sinking spell, when his life was despaired of, but at the time of writing he was reported somewhat better.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. C W Boshamer, of Statesville, is here today.

—Messrs. A C Miller and F E Linden, of Charlotte, are here today.

—Mr. Jno. McDowell went to Durham this morning on a business trip.

—Mr. D F Cannon returned from Salisbury this morning where he went on account of the sickness of his little daughter. She is better.
