THAT CUTTING AFFAIR.

Bendigo Pool Placed Under $250 Bond For Cutting Night Boss at Forest Hill.

Bendigo Pool was arraigned before the mayor's court this morning for cutting one of the night bosses, Mr. Lochman, last Friday night in Mill No. 4 at Forest Hill. It seems that Pool was drinking and came into the room where Mr. Lochman was during the working hours, which is strictly against the rules. He had his knife open when he came in. Mr. Lochman seeing that he was drinking and also violating one of the rules ordered him out of the room. When he refused to go Lochman attempted to put him out when he was cut by Pool who had his knife out when he came in.

Lochman was discharged by the mayor and Pool was fined $12 for being drunk and for disorderly conduct. He was also placed under a $250 bond for his appearance at court. Failing to get any one to go on his bond he was taken back to jail.

SUNDAY EXCURSION

Runs Into Another Train and Pleasure Seekers Meet Injury and Death.

A fearful wreck occurred near Hatfield, Pa., Sunday morning when an excursion train ran into a milk train, killing thirteen persons and wounding thirty others, many of them very seriously.

Thinks Bryan Will Carry New York and Be Elected.

Hon. George D Wise is back from his vacation. He spent some time in Nova Scotia, where he met Bishop Jagger, who has often preached at St. Paul's and Bishop Kipsolving, of Texas.

Capt. Wise spent some time in New York on his return home. He said to a Times reporter last night: "I firmly believe that Bryan will be elected President. Four years ago when I was in New York all the talk was in favor of McKinley. I was surprised to learn this week of the remarkable changes that have come about. It is Bryan now. The people realize that free silver is a dead issue. Probably 85 per cent. of the gold Democrats in New York are for Bryan. I mixed a good deal with the people. I talked with them on the street cars, in hotels and gathered information from my political and journal friends. Bryan, in my judgment, will carry New York State."

Captain Wise is in fine health, and is ready to take the stump for Bryan and the other Democratic nominees. — Richmond Times, 2nd.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Arthur Sewall at the Verge of Death — Stricken on Sunday Night.

The Hon. Arthur Sewall, the Democratic nominee for vice-president four years ago, was seized with apoplexy at 10 o'clock Sunday night. He is unconscious and is expected to pass away at any moment.

NEWS CULLINGS.

A Winston-Salem special to the Charlotte Observer says: Four prisoners, two white and two colored men, broke out of jail here just before daylight Sunday morning and made their escape. The white men are bad characters, their names being Noah Albody and Edward Quate. They broke jail at Salem, Va., a few weeks ago. They were in for holding up a Norfolk & Western freight train in order to steal a ride. They were arrested here for making an assault with a deadly weapon. They sawed two cell bars and then tore a hole in the jail basement. The door to the latter was unlocked. Jailer Masten has been advised that the two white men carried small saws in their hair and with these cut the cell bars. How they tore up the floor is a puzzle.

Gen. McArthur reports from the Philippines that Capt. H Bently of the 47th Volunteer Infantry died on Aug. 26th of wounds received in action at Camalig, Luzon, Aug. 1st and Lieutenant Roy L Fernald of the 26th was drowned in the Jalour river on Sept. 1st.

Labor Day was quite extensively celebrated on Monday. There was great speech making but rather the most singular combination that we note is that of Hon. W J Bryan and Gov. Roosevelt at Chicago. It is said that the governor stuck close to the labor question while Mr. Bryan branched off somewhat.

An Ellicott City, Md., dispatch of the 1st says: Robert A Morris, the 18-year-old son of Hickman Morris, of near Waterloo, died last night from a singular affection. Young Morris was in perfect health and had just finished his supper when he began eating a peach. In biting the fruit he took into his mouth a honey bee, which stung him in the throat. Swelling began at once, and in less than half an hour he died from strangulation.

We note that Mr. John Wilber Jenkins associate editor of the Charlotte News goes to Raleigh as the presiding genius of the Times-Visitor and Mr. J W Waddall, of Atlanta, Ga., takes his place on the News.

BOERS ALL ANNEXED.

Lord Roberts Claims the Transvaal for England—Burghers Fighting Yet.

The following interesting batch of news comes from South Africa by way of London Sept. 3rd.

Desultory skirmishes with the Boers continue during the general forward movement of Roberts' army in South Africa. Gen. Buller has reached a point beyond Helvetia on his way to Lydenburg, and is camped on the north bank of the Crocodile river, while the Burgher rear guard retires before him without opposition.

Gen. Roberts, as was rumored yesterday, has formally annexed the South African republic to Victoria's dominions.

The official announcement is made in the following dispatch to the War office, dated Belfast, September 1:

"Under the provisions of Her Majesty's warrant, dated July 4, I have this day issued at army headquarters, Belfast, a proclamation, announcing that the Transvaal is henceforth to form a part of her majesty's dominions."

This is signed "Roberts."

The following dispatch from Gen. Roberts, dated Belfast, September 1, describe the latest military operations:

"Gen. Buller marched with his force today from Helvetia on his way to Lydenburg. He is now encamped on the north bank of the Crocodile river. The enemy's rear guard is retiring before him without opposition.

Paget reports that a small column of Baden-Powell's force, under Colonel Plumer, dispatched by him, drove off a small commando under General Pretorius, east of Pienaar's river. Plumer captured 1,000 head of cattle, thirty-one wagons, twenty-six prisoners and ninety Martini rifles. The families who were with the commando are being taken care of in our camp.

The enemy managed to derail another supply train five miles south of Klip river early this morning. Two men were killed, one was wounded, and thirty-five were taken prisoners. The engine was blown up and thirteen trucks were burned.

A party of Brabant's Horse, on duty at the Klip river bridge, followed the enemy as soon as the report of the accident reached them, into the neighboring hills and recovered all of the prisoners.

Over seventeen hundred of our prisoners have come into camp. Half of these have been sent to Pretoria, and the remainder go tonight.

Another dispatch from General Roberts, sent August 30th, says:

Major Brooke, commanding at Kraaiir Station, reports that with 100 men he attacked the Boers, who were holding a kopje about 500 yards from the railway, August 27. The Boers were completely routed, and left on the field five dead, including H Pretorius. Our only casualty was one slightly wounded.

Mr. Purdy Loses His House by Fire.

Mr. W L Bell received a postal today (Tuesday) from his friend Mr. R O Purdy, of Sumter, S. C., saying that he had just been burned out of a home. Mr. Purdy and wife were asleep and were awakened by the falling of sparks and cinders. They had five children in the burning building that were very badly burned before they were gotten out of the house.

The house was worth $4,000 and there was $2,800 insurance on the house and furniture. About $300 worth of furniture was burned.

Mr. Purdy was at one time partner with Mr. Bell and is well remembered by some of the citizens of Concord.
