The school board held their regular meeting Tuesday evening and beside the regular business it was decided that the school census of the town should be taken and determine how many children are of school age. Prof. Coler gave report of the graded school and it is gratifying to know that an increase over last year is shown.

The following are the numbers of pupils to each grade:

First Grade	60
Second "	37
Third "	56
Fourth "	37
Fifth "	51
Sixth "	27
Seventh "	35
Eight and Ninth grade	37

AWFUL OUTRAGES

Tortures and Humiliations of Missionary Women—Nuded, Outraged and Dead Bodies Thrown to the Dogs.

The Associated Press representative in China, furnishes some of the most revolting instances of barbarity in which women missionaries were sacrificed in the late uprising. There is probably no horror conceived by womanhood that they did not endure, such as being marched about nude and outraged time after time, then slain and their bodies thrown to the dogs or hung up to public gaze with the bodies of children and others. The dispatch claims to be from official and strictly reliable sources.

There is no patience, it is said, about Pekin with a lenient policy.

It is believed that a severe drubbing is necessary to prevent future repetitions. Some atrocities against the Chinese are also reported.

The Empress Dowager it is said is after all who were favorable to the foreigners but makes no investigations of barbarities inflicted on them.

New Quarry Opened—Lively Industry That Brings in Much Money.

Written for The Standard.

Faith, Sept. 5.—A force of hands has been working seven weeks blasting and tearing away the foot wall of J T Wyatt & Co.'s big ledge of granite and have just broken off the first piece, which contains 12 car-loads, and next to it are over 1,500 car-loads in sight. It is used for street curbing. At their other quarry over 150 car loads have been sent off recently.

Wagon load after wagon load of granite is passing through Faith every day going to the railroad. It brings lots of money into our county.

Will Help to Elect Him.

A dispatch sent out from Goldsboro to the daily papers of the State, under date of the 1st, says:

"Prominent Republicans in the State are of the opinion that F M Simmons will succeed Marion Butler as Senator from North Carolina, and are now taking affidavits with the view of establishing that Simmons, as chairman of the Democratic executive committee, carried the State at the recent election by fraud, hoping to prevent Simmons' being sworn in, or, in that event, have him ousted. My informant advises that Major Hiram Grant holds that the move will only be partially successful, while District Attorney Bernard holds that Simmons will not be allowed to take his seat at all."

If the Republicans want Mr. Simmons elected United States Senator they can secure that result very promptly by making war on him. Nothing will make his success so sure as attacks from that quarter. However, the senatorial race is on and it maybe that some of Mr. Simmons' friends have undertaken to aid him by magnifying such reports as the above. These can be made to do most effective service for him.—Statenville Landmark.
