DR. C. M. PAYNE.

No words of ours can adequately eulogize the Rev. Dr. C. M. Payne. Though dead he lives in the hearts and minds of many of our citizens who knew him and drank freely from the fountains of wisdom and grace as they flowed from his pure teaching and spotless example. In the hearts of the First Presbyterian congregation he lives in the atmosphere of tender affection. The fruits of his life and ministry here will doubtless appear when all things are revealed as a living, growing and ever widening beneficence.

The writer's acquaintance with him was limited, but sufficient to afford pleasant memories.

Our most vivid impressions of him were obtained from his great lecture entitled "The Ideal Man." It was fraught with inspirations to that higher moral and spiritual life to which his life labors were directed, and he was unfortunate who did not get the benefits of that lecture.

Since the above is in type we find the following very interesting biographical sketch in the Salisbury Truth-Index.

Dr. Payne was a native of Lexington, N. C., and was a brother of the late Dr. Robert Payne. He was born in 1842, and from the Davidson College Semi-Centennial Catalogue we get the following regarding his history: He took the degree of A. B. at Davidson College in 1873 after serving through the war with conspicuous gallantry. The remainder of his record is taken verbatim from the Catalogue, as follows: M. D., 1869, Washington University, Maryland; B. D., 1872, Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, Rep. 1861. Alumni Order Phi Society, 1865. Lieutenant Company K, 56 North Carolina T., 62-65. Physician, 66-68, Lexington, N. C. Spent two terms at Medical College, Rome, Ga., '76-'79. Students Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, '70-'72. Supply and pastor, Mt. Airy, Madison and Leesville, N. C., '72-'74. Pastor Second Presbyterian Church Wilmington, N. C. '78-'84. Pastor Concord Church from '84-'94. Pastor at Washington from '94 to the time of death.

THAT ECCENTRIC STORM.

The great storm whose death-dealing fury has focussed the world's currents of sympathy to Galveston is peculiar and worthy of note. From exchanges that have kept tab on its rise and progress we note that it took its start in the Gulf of Mexico about the island of Martinique on August 31st. It proceeded slowly to the south of Jamaica and crossed Cuba in a northerly direction on the 5th, threatening the Atlantic coast, but turned directly for Galveston which it struck with its greatest fury on the 8th. Here it seemed to divide and a portion going to the north was lost while the other went just south of Houston on the 9th. It was less furious as it passed Fort Worth and Oklahoma on the 10th. It seemed to proceed with increased progress and swept across Lake Michigan on the 11th with a storm velocity of 72 miles per hour and affected Lakes Huron and Erie. Serious apprehensions are felt for several vessels on Lake Michigan on which many lives were in jeopardy.

There are many wrecks of smaller vessels on Lake Erie.

About Buffalo the velocity was 60 to 72. It swept on through Canada and at latest reports was doing great damage along the Grand Banks of Newfoundland.

It now has an open sea, and if it does not veer to the south and enter the path of ocean liners it will probably end its career of calamity.

Archev Kinsauls who was to have been hanged last Friday for murdering a Sampson citizen was a follower of Crumpler and professed sanctification, whatever that is. Being very ignorant of what is claimed by the adherents to that doctrine we are led to presume that sanctification is a thing to be gained and lost as a saving spiritual condition.

MR. KLUTZ'S ENVIABLE REPUTATION.

"The republicans are making a determined effort to carry this congressional district. In the strength of Klutz and the weakness of their man and the natural Democratic majority in the district lies the danger. We are afraid our people are too sanguine and will not bestir themselves as they should. This is the banner Democratic district of the State and every Democrat in the district should work to keep it so. We have a representative in Congress whom the district and the State should be proud of, for no man has made a more enviable reputation in so short a time."—Mocksville Times.

It would be hard to say anything good of Mr. Klutz that could not be readily endorsed by the best of men.

It is only the party feeling that divides citizenship that will make any fight in the 7th congressional district. If the two men were equals in every other respects the contrast in ability to fairly represent our district should leave no hesitancy with every voter to cast his ballot for Mr. Klutz.

HOW SHALL A YOUNG MAN CLEANSE HIS WAY?

"Wine and women have ruined me." So said a fallen young man in a neighboring town to the officer as he was being taken to jail. He said he had purposed to make a man of himself at the outset, but he became infatuated and soon he was found guilty of embezzlement.

"With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattery of her lips she forced him. He goeth after her straightway as an ox goeth to the slaughter or as a fool to the correction of the stocks; till a dart strike through his liver."

How the heart of a father and mother may well tremble as their son passes out from the rural home to tread the dangerous path in urban life, beset by all that charms the natural senses. Let one rose of sensual gratification be plucked, one step from that path be taken, and alas, that picture of a man made of himself is usually spoiled.

"Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird," but not so with weak reasoning man.

Judge Purnell has pronounced the Craig law unconstitutional, null and void. Should the judge be sustained by the highest court which seems most probable it will again throw open the gates by which all courts may be made the instruments of justice. To say the least it would seem strange that justice should be promoted by limiting the right of appeal to the highest courts of logical juristicqu.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had severe attack of bilious colic got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two boxes and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicines from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured."
