RELIEF REACHES THEM.

COMMITTEES HAVE GALVESTON IN HAND.

Provisions are Distributed—Repairing Proceeds—Money the Greatest Need—More Than $1,000,000 Raised—More Than 5,000 Dead.

Decidedly brighter dispatches are coming from Galveston. Committees have the work in hand. Provisions are distributed systematically and relief from immediate suffering seems afforded.

Mayor Jones in a dispatch of the 13th says:

"Our most urgent present needs now are disinfectants, lime, cement, gasoline stoves, gasoline, charcoal furnaces and charcoal. Near by towns also may send some bread. For the remainder of our wants money will be most available, because we can make purchases from time to time with more discretion than miscellaneous contributors would exercise. We are bringing order out of chaos, and again offer our profound gratitude for the assistance received."

The weather is fair and favorable for those in roofless houses.

Carpenters and other mechanics are busy roofing the uncovered houses and making various repairs.

The wharves are less injured than was first supposed.

The relief fund is now more than $1,000,000.

The estimate of the dead, however, does not diminish, but is placed at more than 5,000.

Arrested for Stealing.

"Duck" Ellis, a colored boy of Concord, but who recently has been living in Albemarle, was indicted this morning for stealing. Ellis has been working for Mr. Austin, of Albemarle, and several days ago he stole from his employer a coat, a pair of shoes and a gold ring. This morning he was arrested here by Policeman Beger with all three of the stolen articles on his person. He will be sent back to Albemarle for trial.

Bryan-Stevenson Club.

Friday night in pursuance to the call issued by Mr. M B Stickley, who was president of the White Supremacy club, and Mr. A B Young, chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee, ex-members of this club who desired to vote for Bryan and Stevenson assembled in the court house and formed a Bryan-Stevenson club. Fifty-eight men were enrolled as members, and much enthusiasm was shown during the formation of the club. The next meeting will be held on Friday night, the 21st. M B Stickley was elected president and G B Means secretary.

AMERICAN DISASTERS.

Galveston and Johnstown Compared—Galveston 5,000 Slain, Johnstown 2,000.

The question arises, how does the Galveston disaster compare with that of Johnstown in loss of life? We turn to Spofford's brief account and find it as follows:

"The town itself contained some 20,000 inhabitants, and along the Conemaugh river there was a total population of about 30,000, when, on May 31, 1889, this busy, thriving district was laid waste by the bursting of Conemaugh Lake and reservoir situated about ten miles above the town. Houses, churches and factories were driven by the flood into a mass of ruin which was finally piled up against the railway bridge at Johnstown and its destruction completed by the outbreak of fire. Altogether those who perished numbered 9,000."

While the death list at Galveston must remain a mere approximated total, it will hardly reach beyond 5,000, which leaves the Johnstown far in the lead of similar disasters.

Was Probably a Mad Dog.

Mr. C C Faggart, of No. 11 township, while standing in his yard this morning saw a strange dog bite his dog and then run on up the road toward Concord. He got on his mule and followed the dog and says he saw him running after chickens along the road and snapping at everything that came his way. Just outside of the corporate limits he overtook the dog and killed him. He thinks that it was a mad dog, as it had all the symptoms.

NEWS CULLINGS.

Officer C W Dunn a few days ago arrested here a colored woman named Linsey Hootsey charged with whipping her child to death with plow lines in Northampton county a year ago. The child was 14 years old. Mr. Dunn carried her to Northampton where she awaits trial.—Commonwealth.

A Brooksville special of the 13th to the Atlanta Journal says: "Hiram Lukes eloped with John Moates' sixteen-year-old daughter, from Pineville, ten miles from here, on horseback, the girl riding behind. An old feud existed between the families and Moates and two sons, furious with anger, pursued them. Getting near they opened fire and killed both girl and lover. A posse is after the murderers, who fled to the swamps."

This Is Sense.

Hon. David B Hill in his denunciation of bosses is but adopting the tactics of defeated men everywhere. If he had won in his fight on Croker he would have been as much a boss as the victorious Richard, but being defeated he cries "Boss." No man can be a boss without the consent of his party. As soon as a man establishes a reputation as a successful political campaign manager and party leader he becomes a boss, according to the envious ones and the defeated aspirants for leadership. We have no patience with this "boss" cry, since no party and no people need be bossed a day longer than they are willing to be. The man with the qualifications for leadership will inevitably lead, until the people object to his leadership and overthrow him.—Danville Register.
