MR. HAMILTON DEAD.

Yields to Typhoid Fever - Aged 45 Years - Leaves Wife and Adopted Daughter Bereaved.

Mr. J S P Hamilton, whose serious illness was noted Monday, died at five o'clock this (Tuesday) morning of typhoid fever.

Mr. Hamilton was a native of our county, No. 3 township, and was 45 years old.

He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter, two brothers and two sisters, also a step-mother, to mourn his loss and cherish his memory, for he was a good man of regular habits and exemplary Christian character. He was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and for many years discharged with fidelity the office of Deacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton had no children.

Mr. Hamilton was comparatively a new citizen of our town, and did a tinning business. Some months ago he formed a co-partnership with Mr. W J Hill.

The remains will be buried Wednesday evening at the Rifner grave yard in Mecklenburg county.

Mr. Duval Promoted.

It is always pleasant to record the ever growing and widening sphere of usefulness of any one so well known, and we take the publication of the following letter as an opportunity to repay in some measure the subject for his interest in our community in the late political crisis as well as in suitable recognition of many years of useful connection with our town and community.

CAROLEEN, Sept. 17, 1900.— Editor Standard. MY DEAR SIR: By reason of the efficiency and operative skill in conducting the management of Henrietta Mill No. 2 Mr. Louis D Duval assumes the charge of Mill No. 1 today, succeeding Mr. Moreland. No doubt this will give Mr. Duval the credit of controlling more spindles than any one suprintendent in North Carolina. The capacity will reach 85,000 spindles. Thus by the efforts and recognized ability of Mr. Duval he ranks among the best mill men in the South, for quality and quantity at a minimum cost.

This is only furnished as a notice of Mr. Duval's wonderful achievement as a cotton mill man.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours truly,
D. FRANCIS CANNON, JR.

Raleigh Has a Brutal Murder.

Raleigh had a cold-blooded murder Sunday night by a negro "Boots" Brown who shot Sarah Davis a negro woman the wife of another man. It seems the brutality of passion growing out of improper relations. The murderer has escaped and it is believed is harbored by other negroes.

GOEBEL'S ASSASSIAN ON TRIAL.

James Howard the Man That Ran—Said to Witness That He Shot Goebel.

James Howard is on trial at Frankfort for the murder of Wm. Goebel. The evidence given seems to leave no doubt that he is the man that shot Goebel. A witness, Bowman Gains, identified him as the man who ran out from the rear of the State house grounds and James Stubblefield testified that Howard told him that he had shot Goebel.

The language of the testimony is of the raffian tone fitting to the deed and cross examination did not shake the testimony of the witness.

Broke His Leg.

Mr. O V Mauney, of Cannonville, while going after a load of lumber in the country Monday, was sitting on his wagon his feet hanging down and one of his legs caught on a stump and twisted his leg in such a manner that it broke above the ankle. He was brought to town and his leg was straightened. He was resting very well Monday night.

Committed Suicide From $20,000 Shortage.

George S Forbes, teller of Union National bank, committed suicide says a Chicago dispatch of the 17th on account of a $20,000 shortage in his accounts. He wrote a farewell note to his mother in which he says he was weak and trusted his friend who got him into trouble and deserted him.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had severe attack of bilious colic got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two boxes and was entirely cured", says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicines from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been gunning off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured". NORTH CAROLINIAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Prof. Ransom, Son of Gen. Robt Ransom, a Sufferer—His Story of Pathos and Want.

It has been noted as a fact worthy of congratulation that North Carolinians have escaped from the list of storm casualties, but Dr. McIver has received a letter from Prof. Ransom, son of Gen. Robert Ransom, who has been teaching in Galveston. We clip the following from the Greensboro Telegram:

"The letter is full of pathos and sadness. Prof. Ransom writes that, while he was caring for some women and children, he was caught up by the flood and almost drowned. He was rescued after drifting on a piece of timber and being driven by the wind and waves for five hours. When the waters subsided he rejoined his family to find that, while their lives had been spared, they were homeless, clotheless and penniless. They are now in the most destitute circumstances and in need of instant relief.

"In the course of his letter Prof. Ransom says: 'Ours is the only North Carolina family that lost everything. I know your bigness of heart and sympathy and beg you to try to do something for us. Could you get some pecuniary help for us? I have given every cent of money I had left to some of my pupils' families. I find that 469 of my pupils are dead. My back and legs are injured, but I thank our Father that I am alive.'"

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. For sale at Marsh's drug store.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at Marsh's drug store.
