Bills Passed Against Six in the Federal Court.—The charges set forth in the bill are:

A Greensboro. dispatch of the 4th says:

"The grand jury in the United States District Court today returned bills against the following persons charged with the deprivation of the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States: Hunter L Wall and J T Thompson, of Winston; W L Roper and R O Fry, of Montgomery county; J A Perry and William Powell, of Burke county.

"The indictments set forth that on the first Thursday in August, 1900, an election for governor and other State officers and for members of the general assembly was held at each voting precinct in North Carolina, and that the registrars unlawfully and wilfully refused to allow the persons named in the bill to register for the said election. The bill charges Thompson with turning down twenty-four negroes; Wall, twelve; Roper four; Fry, seven; Perry, seven; Powell, nine.

"The names of the negroes are given, and they are all here to give testimony, accompanied by a number of others. Great interest is manifested in the matter, and most strenuous efforts will be made to convict the registrars. It is believed that Judge Boyd will inflict heavy punishment if they are convicted."

The Morning Post says editorially:

"The indictment of the Winston, Morganton and other registrars by the grand jury at Greensboro on the 4th is not conclusive by any means that these officers are guilty of violating the law. It is merely the attempt of Attorney Holton to use his negro witnesses now with the hope that the registrars and other election officers will be intimidated next month. And this parading the negroes, and using them to secure the indictment of these officers will be worth thousands of votes for Mr. Bryan. In a partisan sense Mr. Holton has rendered the Democrats a great service; but it is a disgrace to his office that such use of it should be made, let the benefit of it be what it may."

A later special to the Charlotte Observer says:

In the Federal Court today the cases against the six Democratic registrars were called. The cases against Messrs. Fry and Roper, of Montgomery county, were continued until the next term; those against Messrs. Powell and Perry, of Burke, were also continued, being transferred to Statesville. The cases against Messrs. J T Thompson and Hunter Wall, of Winston, were set for trial Monday. By many it is not believed that they will be tried at this term.

Messrs. Thompson and Wall will be represented by Hon. F M Simmons and Messrs. R B Glenn, Clement Manley and J C Buxton, all of whom are here.

In this correspondence yesterday it was stated, upon information, that practically all the members of the grand jury at this term of Federal Court were Republicans. An official of the court said today that there were eleven Democrats, nine Republicans and one Populist on the jury.

Enthusiastic at Bala.

Mr. M H Caldwell addressed the Bryan and Stevenson club at Bala mills Friday night. A good degree of enthusiasm was manifested and the interests were told is quite commendable. They will probably organize to a man out there.

Library for Concord.

Mr. Clarke, organizer of the University Surfeit Literature Library Company of Chicago, is in Concord taking applications for membership in the Library. This is a matter of paramount importance to our people. More than a dozen of the leading towns of our State; Salisbury, Statesville and Albemarle among them, have already availed themselves of the advantages afforded by this Library.

All persons interested are requested to leave their address at the postoffice.

WANTED—Colored woman to travel in N. C.; $50 monthly and railroad fare to start. References required. Send addressed envelope for our reply. President MacBrady, Star Bldg., Chicago.

Gen. Carr's Reception.

Gen. Carr was given a very hearty ovation at the St. Cloud Hotel Friday night. The Concord band was on hand and entertained the crowd that assembled and waited till the general arranged his toilet and appeared in the hotel lobby. Then a rousing call was made, when the Gen. appeared on the curbing and was introduced by Dr. R S Young.

The General seemed in best of plight, the picture of health and vigor. He spoke in tender vein his attachment to the people of the State and eulogized the citizens of Concord especially to whom he was grateful for the generous demonstration.

His speech was brief but catchy. He was met with a general handshaking and cordial greeting.

The Next State Fair.

The next State Fair begins Thursday, Oct. 22nd, and closes Saturday, October 24th. This fair week will be a gala day for the State. The farmers will leave their fields to come and examine this aggregation of the State's best products, and the merchant, lawyer, doctor and other professional men will leave their offices and strive to be present.

Every effort is being put forth by those who have the matter in charge to make this the completest exhibit of the State's resources that has ever been given.

More than $6,000 will be given in cash premiums in the different contests. Besides this, many special offers will be made.—News and Observer.

A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

Under the deft fingers and skilful management of Prof. R L Keesler the Carnival building is fast developing into "a thing of beauty." On either hand long rows of stalls in which are to be sold numerous attractions, with its walls draped in patriotic colors greet the eye and in the rear an elevated stage has been erected upon which the drama "Man Proposes" will be performed. Everything is being done for the entertainment of those who avail themselves of the treat.

Chapel Hill Will Play Virginia.

An interesting fact to the enthusiastic of athletics is the assurance that the University of North Carolina will again tackle Virginia in a game of football.

It will be remembered that after Carolina's victory over them in '98 on account of a misunderstanding athletic relation between the two colleges were declared off but we are glad to learn that these relations have been restored and our boys will tackle the Virginians in Norfolk on November 14th.
