ATTENTION DEMOCRATS. Address to the Democratic Voters North Carolina From the State Execu-

ROOMS STATE, DEM. Ex. COM. RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 4. To the Democrats of North Carolina:

tive Committee.

This committee begs to remind you that in thirty-two days an election will be held, and upon the result of that election, depends the good Government and well being of our State.

The constitution and character of our Supreme and Superior Courts depends upon the result of that election. A Chief Justice and three out of four Associate Justices of the Supreme Court are to be chosen on November 6th. Six Judges of the Superior Court are to be elected. These offices reach nearer to the homes and hearthstones of our people than any other class of officials. Life, liberty, property and every interest that we rold sacred and dear are more absolutely and directly in the hands of our State ludges than of any other officers in the Republic.

You will decide that day whether your laws shall be interpreted, administered and enforced by tried and true men or whether you prefer that they shall be administered by Republicans or possibly Populists. The Republicans declared the Judiciary exhausted when the lives of our best and purest fellow regular habits, 42 years of age, and employed citizens were in jeopardy and it is impossible to tell what a Populist Judiciary control of the Legislature is at stake; would do with that party's anarchistic the control of each County in the State

No one claims that our Judiciary is United States is at stake. Never had a ot as pure as any Judiciary upon the party greater incentive to work than we face of the earth; no one makes a charge against the capacity of our Judges, nor rewards of victory more satisfactory or against the records they have made more certain, and never were the rewhile in office ; no one charges that they sults of defeat more disastrous or humihave been derelict in their duty, or that in a single act have they proven unworthy of their high position.

The opposition asks that its candidates be elected not upon the ground that they are peculiarly fitted for the ger in doubt. We will elect our State office, or that they have made records confidence of the people, but solely on of both houses of the General Assembly, Carolina had a non partisan Judiciary. ber of Democratic Congressmen from They trust that this specious cry will eight to nine. The indications all over tors out of office and fill their places with Republicans and Populists. In their zeal for a non-partisan Judiciary their efforts appear to have been exhautsed with the utterance of their slogan. Proclaiming aloud their zeal for a non-partisan Judiciary they have nominated for high positions on the bench two gentlemen who, for a quarter of a century; have proven themselves to be Republican partisans of the most strictest sect, and who have exhibited the intensest partisanship one very oc-casion possible. They have chosen two Republicans who, under the old regime, occupied seats upon the bench in North Carolina, appointed by Republican Governors. These gentlemen, for a short time, made records as Judges, and at the first opportunity the people of North Carolina dispensed with their services. Since leaving the bench these gentlemen have, each, more than once, been candidates before the people as nominees upon a partisan Republican ticket. At each succeeding election the people of North Carolina have declined their services by constantly increasing majorities. Finding that each partisan candidacy left them further from the Supreme Court bench than they were when they began, to make a non-partisan effort to get there. Their friends in leaving us, acted from pure motives press their claims upon non-partisan grounds and demand an election for these veteran office seekers upon the sole ground that it is time North Carolina had a non-partisan Judiciary. Their candidates for Superior Court Judges are men with whose records this committee is not familiar. It is hoped that these gentlemen have qualifications for the position of Judge (for the Judges are our most important officers); but if they have any of the qualifications that Boys and Young Men. are necessary to make a Judge these qualities are known only to their closest friends, or are as yet undiscovered. The records made by the Democratic Judges now on the bench, and the qualifications for Judicial office, shown by the nominees of the Democratic party not already on the bench prove them to be in every way worthy. With these men on the bench the rights of every citizen, North Carolina College, on the bench the rights of every chuzen, whatever may be his politics, his condition in life, or his color will be safe. We have borrowed strength and gathered inspiration from the great victory won this summer by the Democrats of our sister States of the South, Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia and Alabama where tickets made up like the mongrel one in this State have been buried beneath decisive majorities. The returns from those elections show that as a political factor the Populist movement at the South is at an end. Claiming successively each of these States the Populists carried none of them. The become a mere side show to the Republican party, and to the least reputable wing of the Republican party at that. It has sold its principles and its honor > from the face of the earth. The Populists are losing every day their men of character and all those who went into it from principle see that they must now leave that party or prove untrue to their principles. These men see the base purposes for which they are being used by the Populist leaders; they are spurning that leadership and coming back to the Democratic party. Let us welcome back home all those, who and from conscientious principles. Their return increases our majority and adds gladness to our success. The best men in the Republican party, disgusted with such performances as have lately been seen in this State, refuse to sanction the deals made by their own discredited leaders with would-be Populist autocrats and announce that they will
