THE CONCORD TIMES.

tal Ibrariani

AN ESTIMATE OF SENATOR HILL.

endent',' in the November Forum.

Mr. Hill is a man of great intelliwriter once compared Mr. Hill with Jay not been centered in his purpose."

Highest of all in Leavening Power,-Latest U.S. Gov't Report

300k and Job Printing

-OF ALL KINDS-

Executed in the Best Style

AT LIVING PRICES.

Hood's is Good Makes Pure Blood

scrofula Thoroughly Eradicated. oc. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "It is with pleasure that I give you the details of our little May's sickness and her return to health by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. She was taken down with Fever and a Bad Cough. of sore mouth and when we had succeedof sore mouth and when we had succeed-overcoming this she would suffer with at-af high-lever and expel bloody looking tion. Her head was affected and matter from her ears. After each attack she be-

Jod's Sarsa Cures worse and all treatment failed to give her until we began to use Hood's Sarsaparilla.

er she had taken one-half bottle we could see t she was better. We continued until she taken three bottles. Now she looks like The Bloom of Health and is fat as a pig. We feel grateful, and cannot say too much in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla."
MRS. A. M. ADAMS, Inman, Tennessee.

Mood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels, 25e,

Mont Amena

at Mt. Pleasant,

YOUNG -:- LADIES IN THE SOUTH.

Elegantly Furnished An Able Faculty of Nine Teachers.

A thoroughly re'ith le School is the ambition of the management.

C. I. T. FISHER, Principal.

WARRANTED. PRICE 50 cts. For sale by J. P. Gibson.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

Makes CHILD BIRTH Easu. COLVIN, LA., Dec. 2, 1886 .-My wife used "MOTHERS" FRIEND" before her third con-finement, and says she would not be without it for hundreds of dollars.-DOCK MILLS. Sent by express or mail, on receipt of price, $1.50 per bottle. Book "To MOTHERS" mailed free. Sold by all BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

The Chord of Love. It sings in all. The magic strain, Unbidden, comes to me again. As if an artist's subtle skill Had touched the lute, my pulses thrill With heartfelt joy-I do not feign. It calls through all the hill and plain; It murmurs in the falling rain; Its music e'en the flowers distill—

It breathes in all. Its harmonies through nature reign It lisps in ripples of the rill; It sings when all things else are still, This rapturous chord of love's refrain-It lives in all. -Buffalo News.

When we are gone, The generation that comes after us Will have far other thoughts than ours. Our Will serve to build their palaces or tombs. They will possess the world that we think ours

The Soreheads Contributed Aid, tlanta Journal.

An important factor in the result was the persistent attack upon the administration by a crowd of Philistines in the Democratic party who placed pelf above principles, and offices above party. This norde of disappointed office seekers and ring this a sore came on her right side be | ex-protectionists, fought those in power the two lower ribs. In a short time an- with more violence than they did the broke on the left side. She would take Republicans. Their hands were always To look after all these things it takes an on their daggers and like the conspirators of ancient Rome, they were determined to stab Caesar to death though the Republic fell. All these things have played their part, and the Democracy has learned If it would regain its prestige with the people, it must shake off the trappings and its chosen leaders. The traitors in the senate who cried the Gorman bill down the throat of the house against the noble protest of Mr.

Cleveland and all true friends of tariff reform, discouraged and disheartened those who had hoped for the legitimate fruits of Democratic victory. Much of the blame for the result is ranks with which they pretend to be marching abreast. They are the Democratic soreheads, the Democratic calat Mt. Pleasailt, is destined to be,

is dest guns carried by those who cursed their

What the Pops Will Give Us.

have to name their price to get it.

Yes, good times are coming. The Fusionists will give the country Free silver. A gold standard. High tariff. Low tariff.

Free trade Free sugar. A sugar bounty. Lowe goods for the people. Greater profit to the manufacturer.

do it will be anathema maranatha." The good times are coming. If they don't arrive on schedule time, Mary Ann will be at the bottom of it,

Ann, she is the State.

A New Party Discovered. It is found upon a careful examinature the Populists have the majority. now. It is thought that this fact may have

They Will be Taken Back.

IS JUST AS COOD FOR ADULTS. or to make money out of moonshine, J. D. SHIREY, A. M., PRESIDENT. and return to their places in the Democratic party. Their old associates and Academic, Commercial, and Collegi- friends have no resentment against te Courses. Opens September 4, 1894. them for their foolish attempts to upset Offers Superior advantages to young the general peace, because those atmen. Instruction thorough and practical Good brick buildings, elegant tempts have always been set down by Society Halls, beautiful and healthful those associates to folly and not maligocation, no malaria, good board, whole- nity, and they will be taken back into Mecklenburg county is not only sub-News: "Mrs. Green Steele presented subjects and foolishly upon none. her husband with a quartette this week. Wishin the past few days three pairs of twins have come to light in Charlotte.' Luck is the encouragement of pluck.

WHO'S THE IDEAL FARMER. Undertakes to Answer the

I propose now to take up the model middle of his bales of cotton, no cheat in farmer and have something to say of anything he offers for sale.

him in this life. To whomsoever the old adage : "All adage as a part of his heritage. It is he offers for sale, job, plowing and planting, cultivating they are hers. and harvesting are but four things to be done by the model farmer. Everything, including land, horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens, and some of his labor and he must take a crop. care of his land, then his land will take care of him. ting nothing back again has bankrupted tenant in possession. many a farmer and ruined many a farm. in the year. It gives him very little less time to give to politics and politi-

No farmer ever made anything to help him on his farm by his connection of populism, be true to its principles and with politics or his association with polbankrupted today because they became giving to them a perpetuity of our 500,000 acres, and I do not think any interested in politics. Politics will bankrupt a farmer, a lawyer, a merchant, a preacher or the devil himself.

Again, the model farmer studies the their strong arms and noble hearts. character of his soil, the fertilizers Much of the blame for the result is due those who spread dissension in the able to procure the best results and the most lucrative harvest.

The average farmer of this country knows no more of the component parts umniators of a Democratic President, of the soil he cultivates than the mule diatribes were gleefully echoed by the sion, for a man must know something enemy who feared no fatal shot from in most any other calling or profession to get along at all but I have seen first of the servant. So when John Chinaclass fools make pretty fair crops.

Again, the model farmer is a frugal man; he makes every edge cut. He Of course, the good times are coming. never buys a grain of corn, a pound of There will be a demand for an un- meat, or a bushel of wheat; he lives at imited quantify of cord-wood at two home and lives well. We may talk ollars a cord, corn will bring two dol- about Delmonico's in New York, but lars the year round,-money will grow the model farmer sets the best table to tables. Really, it makes me hungry to at the table. John Chinaman was write about them. He sells his surplus called upon to serve the party and did in everything, and has a surplus of so with grace and acceptability. But

Again, the model farmer lives within his means. He will do it, if no other quired. way, like Pat said he got rich-by doing without the things he was obliged to have. Woe be to the farmer the day he gives his consent to go into debt, and the farmer who is not in debt is an And if they don't give all of these exception, world without end, to the ings right away, their names will be rule. He must raise cotton, and there be done today, or the party that don't taking the money he gets for his pro-securities and will still further depress make our crop on bread and butter and accept. them and municipal securities. Other milk." He said all through the year Democrats take a more optimistic view. he sat down to his table, morning, noon cup of coffee, nor any delicacies of luxalmost a millionaire farmer.

prised it is easy to imagine that the manly boys and womanly girls, charm results follow its use; that he would not losers were more so.

| The manufacture of the ma bids us feast and live.

biggest potatoes, the finest hogs, the best wheat, and then he keeps on hand Much mischief has been do he fattest mules the finest milch cows. making virtue seem a nuisance.

his crib full of corn, his barn full of fodder, his pocketbook with some cash Report That Yield Would Reach Ten Million always in it. The model farmer is scrupulously honest. No stones in the

When he carries a load of potatoes to town the biggest potatoes are not al- lished statement of the present cotton one gill of rice, two tablespoonfuls of things come to him who waits," may ways on top and the little ones on the crop of 10,000,000 bales; and to put be-salt, one of black pepper; cook two apply, surely the farmer can claim this bottom. The same is true of everything fore its readers a trustworthy and intel- hours longer before taking off the fire; and not indolence, which makes the his wife. The butter and chickens and ier applied to Mr. Alfred B. Shepperson, model farmer; therefore we say the first the eggs and all the little things with of New York, the wellknown cotton staessential element in the model farmer is whatever they bring upon the market tistician, and has received the following constant, everlasting, never-let-up in- are scrupulously turned over to wife as very lucid and satisfactory reply; dustry. The model farmer is as busy in her pin money, not to buy sugar and January as he is in June, as hard at it coffee with for the family, but it is hers in March as he is in October. To run a to do as she pleases with, and she takes a farm wisely it is an all-the-year-round greater interest in these things because

The model farmer will make his own boys work, for woe be to him when he edly a large one, but I confess that I am minutes, then stir in the eggs. If herds and his boys sit up in the shade the unable to see any basis for such a large are not at hand, use any seasoning preyear round and boss a poor old crippled estimate. The largest crop ever grown ferred, A little sage is very nice. ducks, geese, claim a part of his time negro and a stiff-eared mule make a in this country was that which was

The everlasting taking from and put- farm belongs to God and he is but a 674,000, and the difference between to form cups; chop the yolks fine, and the sunshine and the rain with the seed following season. industrious man, and gives him from time and harvest which they bring is six days in the month and twelve months The farmer, above all men, ought to be being marketed was any larger than time to attend political meetings and contact with sunshine and showers, any evidence, to my mind, at least;

and the stars and quiet at night. acter and purest in life. May the good ably attributed a yield so much in ex-I know some good farmers who are farmer all over our land, for it will be the model farmer all over our land, for it will be the model farmer all over our land, for it will be the land of the monster crop in 1890. purest morals and they will be the mainstay of our government and institutions, both the church and state leaning on ment of agriculture has been making

Yours truly,

Applying the Rule the Other Way.

A Chinaman, says the Clistian Admined to look well after the character man appeared at the door he was asked: "Do you drink whiskey?"

"No," said he, "I Clistian man." "Do you play cards?" "No. I Clistian man."

He was employed and gave great satisfaction. He did his work well, was honest, upright, correct and respectful. everything to sell that grows upon the next morning he waited on the lady and said he wished to quit work. "Why, what is the matter? she in-

John answered "Clistian man; I told you so before: no heathen; no workee for Melican heathen.". Liberal Christians.

When the late Professor Swing withare farmers producing and selling it on drew from the Presbyterian church For the Fusionists everything must the market today, as cheap as it is, and after having been acquitted on a trial for heresy, a large number of his adduce and buying as much with it as the mirers purchased the Central Music same produce would ever buy; really a Hall in Chicago and for years before dollar will buy more today than any day his death Professor Swing preached in the history of our country, but the there to great congregations. When he For the indications are that Mary dollar today don't pay any more debts died his church was sorely troubled to than in did in any other day in times of find some one to take his place, for few men can preach as did Professor Swing. He who makes the crop of this year A few days ago the congregation petito pay on debts of last year, and the tioned Dr. Gunsaulus, the most eminent tion that of the fusionists in the legisla- accumulated debts of this year is left Mothedist preacher in Chicago, to give up his denominational connection and One of the finest farmers in Gergia become their pastor. They are nearly considerable influence in several ways. to lay gave this as his experience. He all Presbyterians, or rather they were The Republicans will contend that they said he ran along in debt for several before they seceded with Professor did most of the voting and really car- years after the war, until finally the Swing, but in asking Dr. Gunsaulus to ried fusion through. The telegrams mortgage took his place, the merchant preach for them, they say that they do told of a new movement fer a new par- took his mule, and the devil was about not case so much for doctrine as for the duced. ty in Texas. W. F. Stroud, fusionist to take him; he had no credit and no friends; finally he said to his wife and trict, said there was a similiar move-children: "We have corn enough instead of the controversial style. Dr. ment in North Carolina. Some Demo- to feed our mules and bread for us, and Gunsaulus has not yet given his answer erats claim that the election fusionists our cow will give us plenty of milk and to this very complimentary request but has already depressed North Carolina butter; on this rented farm we will the Chicago papers predict that he will upon his annual message to Congress, of their crop, and that the spinners, ties are not worth while talking about, and night, not a piece of meat nor a which is expected to be quite long this and speculators alone will reap the benyear. While not caring to make the efit of the tardy advance. uries went on his table through the year. postive statement, I have excellent rea-At the end of the year his part of the sons for the belief that the message will GALATIA, ILLS., Nov. 15, 1833.

Paris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen:—We sold last year, 600 bottles of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC and have bought three gross already this year. In all our experience of 14 years, in the drug business, have larger sold an article that gave such universal satisfication as your Tonic. Yours truly,

ABNEY, CARE & CO.

ABNEY, CARE & CO.

ABNEY, CARE & CO.

ARTHE End of the year in part of the core and the very best of sense, and the average sense of the Populists is the perfection of nonsense. There is irreconcilable up his debts and had one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars run him, and today he election ought to, and brobably will, convince the Populists that their wild, ous farmers, and says he has not seen a for what was not done, and will urge in the very best of sense, and the average crop came to him all in cash; he settled up his debts and had one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars run him, and today he is one of our largest and most prosper-ous farmers, and says he has not seen a for what was not done, and will urge in the very best of sense, and the average crop came to him all in cash; he settled up his debts and had one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars run him, and today he is one of our largest and most prosper-ous farmers, and says he has not seen a for what was not done, and will urge in the very best of sense, and the average crop came to him all in cash; he settled up his debts and had one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars left; the next year he made the one hundred dollars left. perpetual motion ideas have no chance day for fifteen years that he wouldn't no uncertain language that the omisin a war of that sort, so that they will knock a man down who would offer to sions of the last session be partially Carolina College, probably abandon their absurd efforts credit him. He says that the two years made up at the coming session, by the that he lived closely, on bread and but passing of the free raw material bill by the senate which were passed by the credit him. He says that the two years made up at the coming session, by the story windows by their own coat-tails, ter most of the time, were the two years the Senate which were passed by the that gave him the lessons of oconomy House at the last session. It is not and frugality which made him today believed that anything that the President can say will cause the Senate to If our farmers could learn a lesson pass those bills, because the Democratic like this, quit looking to the merchant | Senators who struck the free raw matefor credit and congress for aid, but with rial features, with the exception of wool. frugality, wisdom and industry mix out of the original Wilson bill will not their muscle with their soil, their comvote for them, but the President can some discipline. Expenses per session, the Democratic fold, where they will be their business with the management of at least put himself on record as still Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is The model farmer is a man of general says that Dr. King's New Discovery is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawstantially and reliably Democratic, but information, well posted along the lines it is coming to the front rapidly in in- of history, political economy and agricreasing its population, as will be seen culture; in other words, he is a pleasant by the following from the Charlotte companion, talking sensibly upon all leight years, and it has never failed to bottle Electric Bitters and one box Buckdo all that is claimed for it. Why not len's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. subjects and foolishly upon none.

The model farmer has a genius for producing the longest ear of corn, the higgest relates at the form of the producing the longest ear of corn, the longest relates at the form of the longest relates at the

Much mischief has been done by

COTTON CROP ESTIMATES.

it was to be given to the recently pub- peel and cut fine one quart of tomatoes, working and not waiting, it is industry | The model farmer divides fairly with at the present time, the News and Courcatsup and the same quantity of sugar.

> New York, Nov. 8, 1894. Cotton has declined again to-day, chiefly, I understand, upon the crop estimate just issued by Mr. Neill, of New onion and herbs brown, and the toma-Orleans, that the crop will be over 10,- to; when quite hot put in the meat, 000,000 of bales. The crop is undoubt- milk, pepper and salt; cook fifteen planted in 1890. The yield of that The model farmer is a true Christian crop was probably 9,200,000. The

There is no evidence whatever to the purest and best man, constantly in that of the crop of 1890-91, nor is there with fields and forest, with fruits and that the weather conditions have been flowers, with the bright world all day more favorable this year than in 1890. I am at a loss, therefore, to understand As a rule our farmers are best in char- to what cause or causes is to be reason-

The acreage in 1890 was about 20, one has claimed or will claim that it was any more this year. The Departsince Februrary 1st, a careful investigation of the question of the cotton acreage, and has employed a special agent for the purpose, who has travelled through the South, and has investigated coming in, according to the Department place. estimate, is about 19,650,000 acres. Let us assume that the Department has under-estimated it somewhat, and that clusion, because it is utterly repugnant beets.

to reason and common sense. At these low prices, or anything like them, the tendency wil be to largely in-the acreage has been, and consequently next election and installed Cleveland the supply of cotton will be greatly re- as President.

I sympathize deeply with the Southsion which has overtaken their staple of two years hence is perfectly idle. The didn't like for the girls to come to President Cleveland is now working planters, because they will have sold all practical matter the present probabilireckon."

Yours very truly, ALF. B. SHEPPERSON. The Very Man.

liven the tiresome march and the uncomfortable bivouac. A Georgia man of enormous girth stood at his gate watching the passage of General Johnson's army. All at conductive to health? once three or four men left the ranks and came running toward the gate, exclaiming, "We've found him! We've

The fat man was astonished and perhaps a little frightened, and the captain of the company demanded: "Whatisit? Whom have you found?" "Why, captain," answered the men, still dancing about the bewildered citizen, "don't you see, We've found the man that swallowed our base drum !"

The honest man puts the smallest Japanese children are taught to write fully prepared paper and is full of his with both hands.

HOUSEHOLD RECEIPTS.

VEGETABLE SOUP.

ligent statement of the cotton situation add two spoonfuls of sauce or tomato A GOOD BREAKFAST DISH.

Boil the eggs very hard about fifteen man who recognizes the fact that his commercial crop of that season was 8,- minutes, cut in half, leaving the whites this and the quantity I have given as mix with ham or tongue finely minced. He totes fair with God, knowing that the probable yield was marketed in the a bit of parsley, a little melted butter and cream, till they form a thick paste; add salt to taste; fill the cups with this ten to fifteen hours' work a day, twenty: but the gift of the kind Father above. prove that the acreage of the crop now paste, cutting a piece from the round end to make them stand,

COOKING HAM. nounces it done.

TOMATO CATSUP. been by the help of the municipal bosses whom he has served that he has pros-Take dry itomatoes, put them on, stirring and mashing them till they pered. the matter, as I am told, in the most boil, then press them through a wire thorough manner possible. The acting sieve. To one gallon of the juice add the three subjects of political vitality vocate, applied for the position of cook Secretary of Agriculture wrote me on the following spices (ground:) Table- now before us are the tariff, the current the following spices (ground:) but a small increase in acreage this year finely chopped; hail it done to one-over 1893, the Department of Agriculfourth, then add one quart of good vinday of these subjects, and who has done perience. Office over Lippards & Bar richt thinking and right rier's store. ture calling the increase less than 1 per egar; boil a few minutes; when cold violence to right thinking and right rier's store. cent., so that the acreage, of the crop bottle and seal, and keep in a cool conduct regarding all three of them.

Slice cold boiled potatoes so very thin the acreage is as much as 20,000,000 that the knife-blade can be seen through acres. This, as you will see, is 500,000 each slice; put a layer in bottom of dish, acres less than in 1890, and yet we are sprinkle with finely-chopped parsley and on white oak trees and laborers will only which I ever sat down. The best bread After some weeks the lady gave a "pro- asked to believe that upon an acreage of onion, peper and salt; then pour over the best butter and milk, the best vege- gressive euchre' party and had wines 500,000 acres less than in 1890 a crop vinegar and olive oil; then another layof a million bales more has been grown. er of potatoes, &c., &c., till dish is full; I am not prepared to accept such a con- garnish with curled parsley and pickled

The Changing Fortunes in Policies,

There are those who say that the crease consumption of cotton every- Democratic party will never rally again, where, and there will evidently be upon and there are those who say it is certain the part of spinners a general disposi- to carry the next presidential election. gradually and without ostentation intion to buy cotton greatly in excess of Nobody knows anything about it; the troduce what she believed to be better their wants for the season, because at people do all sorts of odd ways. In 1872, these prices they can well afford to carry for instance, the Democratic party ap their confidence. If, on the other in the mill warehouses a large supply of peared to be swamped hopelessly and hand, she failed to appreciate the preyet in 1874 in carried the House and in judices and deprivations of those among There can be no question that unless the price advances very greatly by the though they did not get the seat. Things fulness was not likely to be a long one. time for planting the next crop, that the ran along so, the fortunes of the two acreage devoted to cotton will be reduced to an extent that it never has been cur tailed before from one year to another.

They didn't like the family and nearly all elections being close, until 1884, when Cleveland Ridge deestrict," I overheard one farmers and the family said elected President. "Ah! ha!" said er say to another. So great a reduction in acreage would the Democrats, "we have them now. cause, beyond doubt, an advance as We need only to get into power once great and rapid as the decline has been.

We need only to get into power once thing or two, and she could manage the got back in 1888, just the same, and planting this crop middling cotton was then the Republicans said: "There couldn't rest content with bookworth eight cents in New York, and should there be a great reduction of acreage this spring, it will be very likely gets back and then can't retain power Grassy folks just naturally couldn't put to go to eight cents again soon after the for but one term, we will not be bother- up with her way of learnin' the chilnext crop is planted, and the world has ed by these Democrats hereafter." And dren compliments, anyhow." recognized the fact beyond dispute that yet these Democrats carried the very

In the light of these facts it must apand the only point we make is that there is nothing in the result of Tuesday's voting to occasion undue elation on the one side or undue depression on the other. The thing for Democrats to do is to lay aside bickerings and get toif it does not contain a few wags to en-

Bicycle Riding Healthful. Biffers-Do you think bicycle riding

Whiffers-Most assuredly. health has improved wonderfully. "But you don't ride a bicycle. "Who said I did?" "But you said bicycle riding improved your health."

"Yes; get so much exercise, you know. "Exercise? How?" "Dodging the bicycles."

How few persons know how to com-

Crack a good shin, and let it simmer CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 12-With a four hours in one gallon of water; add view of finding out just how much cred- one Irish potato and one sweet potato;

> One cup chopped cold meat, half cup milk, one raw tomato, one tablespoonful butter, one medium-sized onion, half bunch chopped herbs, two eggs; put the butter in a pan, fry the and artificial political career. He has no moral resources. A product of machine politics, his career may at any time be closed by the same artificial forces that have made it; nothing is less secure than a machine built success follow the one man in its ranks who has in the most spectacular way repudiated its pledges to tariff-reform, whereupon In cooking the ham you should ob- it won its only victories within the lifetime of a generation. The tariff-reform serve the following formula in reaching perfection: Soak in cold water the night time was the last tide in national polibefore cooking; then scrape or wipe the tics. The next will be a tide of municiham clean, placing it in a boiler of cold water, sufficiently full to cover it; set it water, sufficiently full to cover it; set it the party's great principle, so he upon the fire, and let it simmer until the party's great principle, so he the Superior and Supreme Courts of the done, boiling one hour to every pound is the most conspicuous and successof ham. In baking, (after boiling) ful product of corruption in municipal on Depot Street. sprinkle thickly with cracker dust and politics. If the cities of the State of let it stand in the oven until it becomes New York had not been governed corthoroughly brown, and the cook pro- ruptly as they have been, no such career as Mr. Hill's would have been possible. A small municipal boss himself, it has

The coming of the "Yankee schoolmistress" into some of the Western establishment of the free school system. The influence of the new-comers was particularly manifest in a broadening of had hitherto limited their vision. James Baldwin, in Scribner's Magazine, says Charlotte Observer.

that the Yankee schoolmistress was a seven weeks' wonder to many of her Hoosier patrons.

people of Concord and vicinity. Office St. Cloud hotel. Calls promptly attended day or night. Night calls should be If she knew how to adapt herself to their modes of life, however, and could methods, she was not long in gaining "They didn't like the Yankee school-

Every thoughtful man knows that Too Much Style.

"Why so? Wasn't she a good teacher?" "Well, I reckon she did know a "Compliments? What's them?" "Why, bein' polite, you know. She tried to learn 'em to say, 'If you please, mum,' and 'Thank ye, sir,' and I beg pear to any one that speculation at your pardon,' and all that kind of stuff. ern people because of the great depres- present upon the result of the election And she was so blamed finicky that she crop, and from the manner in which Democratic party may get back in school barefooted, and she wanted the cotton is being pushed to market, it power then or the Republicans may boys to yank off their hats at her whenlooks to me as if, when the advance in hold the government for a long period, ever they met her on the road. It was cotton comes, it will not benefit the as they did from 1868 to 1884. As a too much style for the Grassy folks, I

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History. mo sense with the management of the Democratic fold, where they will be treated as erring brothers who are forgiven, rather than as deserters who quit when the battle was on.

The day he goes into debt. The what is a literary man. But to-day a literary man looks like any other man. He no longer advertises himself to the world by long hair and a hungry look. He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He is seldom "sicklied o'er with the pale cast through of the world by long hair and a hungry look He How few persons know how to compliment happily! Henry IV. of France was wont humorously to ascribe his early gray hairs to the effect of number-less wretched compliments which were less wretched compliments which were paid him by a bombastic orator of his times. It was probably a decendant of Le. Aides' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an incompliment of Le. Aides' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an incomplete the control of t that orator, who, announcing at the close of the forenoon session of a ministerial conference that Elder H. would read in the afternoon a paper on "The Devil," added: "Brother H. has a care-

-FOR SALE B

P. GIBSON. Concord, N.

ABSOLUTELY PURE PROFESSIOAL CARDS,

gence, whose character depends upon circumstances. A clever newspaper

Gould saying: "Gould's purpose is the citizens of Concord and vicinity. All accumulation of wealth, Hill's is the calls promptly attended day or night.

Office and residence on East Depot twenty-five years there has been no street, opposite Presbyterian church. thought or action of his life which has . C. Heuston, Surgeon Dautis As for Senator Hill himself, he has reached the zenith of his spectacular CONCORD, N. C.

Least of all can the party afford to Is prepared to do all kinds of Dental work in the most approved manner.
Office over Johnson's Drug Store.

> W. J. MONTGOMERY. J. LEE CROWELL Attorneys and Connsellors at Law

CONCORD, N. C. As partners, will practice law in Cabar-State and in the Federal Courts. Office

Dr. J. E. CARTLAND, Dentist, CONCORD, N. C.

D.G. CALDWELL, M.D.,

Offers his professional services to the people of Concord and vicinity. Office n rear of bank. Night calls should be States occurred soon after the general left at Mrs Dr. Henderson's. Office Hours, 7 to 8 a. m., 1 to 2, and Sept. 20,'94.-1y.

human sympathies. People were led to look beyond the narrow horizon that to look beyond the narrow horizon that limited their vision James JOHN THAMES, M. D., Offers his professional services to the > lett with clerk in hotel. ELECTRIC TELEPHONE Sold catright, no rent, no royalty. Adapted to City, Village or Country. Needed in every home, shop, store and office. Greatest conventions and office.

MORGAN'S IMPROVED CHILL TUNIC SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. Liver Tonics. When properly taken it never fails to cure the most obstinate case of Chills and Fever. Where others fail it will cure. It is pleasant to take, and contains nothing to injure the most delicate system. Babies take teasily. As a Tonic, it is without an equal.

Guaranteed by your druggist. VOIGT & CO., Chattanooga, Tenn.

For sale by D. D. Johnson and J. P Git son NO MORE EYE-GLASSES, SORE, WEAK and INFLAMED EYES, Producing Long-Sightedness, and Restoring the Sight of the old.

Cures Tear Drops, Granulation, Styo Tumors, Red Eyes, Matted Eye Lashes, AND PRODUCING QUICK RELIEF AND PERMANENT CURE. Also, equally effications when used in other maladies, such as Ulcers, Fever fores, Tumors, Sait Libeam, Barns,

Piles, or wherever inflammation exists, MITCHELL'S SALVE may be used to SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AT 25 CENTS

Administrator's Notice. Having qualified as the administrator of Mary Blackwelder deceased, all persons owing said estate are hereby notified that they must make immediate payment, or suit will be brought. And all persons having claims heatnst said estate must present them to the undersigned, duly authenticated, on or before the 1st day of November, 1855, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. A. A. BLACK WELDER, Administrator. By W. M. Smith, Attorney.

Eggs, Chickens, &c., Wanted. We want to buy your eggs, chickens and hams. Highest market price paid. Bring them on. SIMS & ALEXANDER, Goncord, N. C. Mch 8-tf.

Oct. 27, 1894.

I have a special preparation for wheat ond oats. Nothing can be found superior to it. C. G. MONTGOMERY. Sept. 13, '94.

NOTICE.

I want every man and woman in the United States interested in the Opium and Whisky habits to have one of my books on these dis-eases. Address B. M. Woolley, Atlanta, Ga. Box 382, and one will be sent you free.