

The Davidson Dispatch, published at Lexington, is offered for sale by its owner, Mr. W. M. Sherrill. His reason for selling is that he is going to engage in another business. Lexington is a town of 2,500 population, and a good business place. The Dispatch is the only paper in the place. Write to W. M. Sherrill at Lexington for further particulars.

The watchword among the Democrats in North Carolina should be that announced by the State as its chart and guide—steadfast support of the Democratic party and its well established principles, and white supremacy and intelligent and honest administration of public affairs in North Carolina. If our friends will stand together on that we can be indifferent about the result of the elections up at the great North. Let us here stand close together.—Raleigh State.

We agree with the able and erudite editor of the State in the above. We submit, then, that it was a sorry and unwise piece of business to put a rank free silver plank in the State Democratic platform, when a large and respectable body of the party is opposed to it, and especially when this is a question for national legislation, and one with which the State has and can have nothing to do. If every man in North Carolina were in favor of free silver at 10 to 1 it would not amount to anything toward effecting such legislation with the majority elsewhere opposed to it. Above all it was an unwise thing for the State Democratic State Executive Committee to meet and to reaffirm the free silver plank, thus widening the breach, without doing their cause or anything else any corresponding good. Yes, let the Democrats of North Carolina stand together; but we want to say that the action of the extreme free silverites in the State has done more to widen the distance between themselves than all other causes combined. One of them only last week said publicly that all the sound money Democrats ought to get out of the party. Such talk as this is not calculated to bring about Capt. Ashe's much desired union of opposing party factions.

We are glad to see one Populist paper that does not stultify itself by endorsing (y. Thompson's insult to the church and its members. The Salisbury Watchman says: "The Watchman will never be found among those who seek to defame and abuse the church of Christ. What would North Carolina be to-day without her churches and Christian ministers? In the language of the late Armas Ward, we say: 'Show us a land where there are no meeting houses and we will show you a place where the women are siphoned, where old rags are stuffed into the broken windows, and where maps of the devil's wild land are painted on men's shirt bosoms with tobacco juice.' Let us praise the churches for the boundless good they have done to humanity instead of abusing them for the few good deeds they have left undone."

We observe that some of the State press do not understand the meaning of the following sentence: We hold to the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal.—Raleigh State.

It is also true that others of the State press do not seem to understand the meaning of the following clause, which is in the same paragraph with the above sentence: "But the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value or be adjusted through interest, by agreement, by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in payment of debt."

Whitney Positively Declines to Run. New York, November 15.—William C. Whitney was asked to-day to State his position as a Presidential possibility. He answered: "I wish it understood that I am not a candidate for nomination at present, and will not be. My friends know my desire on this subject, and will act accordingly. No man, I believe, can truthfully say that he would not like to be President. It is an honor to represent a nation which cannot be too highly esteemed. I will not say that I would not be pleased if I were President, but I will not allow myself to be made a candidate under any consideration. I do not want office of any kind."

"Nothing would induce you to change your opinion?" "Absolutely nothing. My mind is made up on this point, and I do not know of anything that can change it."

"Your friends have used your name as a candidate." "Yes, it has been mentioned with others, but I hope now that my name will be dropped and not mentioned in any way in connection with the Presidency. I prefer to remain in private life and those that know me are aware of my reasons."

A Negro Boy Shoots a White Girl. WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 18.—Bob Seales, a young colored man bound to a farmer named John Meadere, near Madison, to-day shot and fatally wounded the 12-year-old daughter of Thomas Bolton, a tenant on Meadere's place. The negro went to Bolton's house while the latter was away from home and tried to get the girl to go with him to a piece of woods. She refused and began screaming. Seales told her he would kill her if she declined to accompany him, and at the same time drew a pistol from his pocket and shot her above the left eye. Seales is only 15 years of age. He has the reputation of being a bad character. Officers and a mob of citizens are hunting for him and if caught he will certainly be lynched. A report received to-night says they are on the fiend's track.

Live Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 18th, 1895. President Cleveland has more than 60,000 names on his list of members of his party—many being deficient in diplomatic skill. His inclination to accept the invitation extended by the government of Great Britain to form an alliance with that country for the purpose of protecting British and American interests in Turkey shows that he has diplomatic skill enough to defeat a well planned scheme of British diplomacy. When that invitation was extended it seemed a natural sort of thing to do, but the present situation in Turkey shows what a dangerous thing it really was. As things now stand there is every probability that Great Britain will be involved in a war with one or more countries as a result of the present complications in Turkey, and had President Cleveland not seen through the scheme this country would have been involved with her. As it is, the U. S. by acting alone has secured the protection for Americans in Turkey that has been accorded to any other foreigners in that country, and when the fighting begins Uncle Sam will be merely an onlooker, only interested in selling all the combatants everything they can pay for.

How completely Mr. Reed will dominate the Republic in a majority in the House is shown in the scramble for the other offices of that body. Although a number of candidates have been in the field for sometime they have been able to get very few members to commit themselves; they are all waiting to find out Reed's choice before announcing their own. By the way, speaking of Reed and his method, there is something for those Republicans who have been yelling "Wall street domination!" at the Democratic administration and Congress to ponder over in the Republican announcement that Mr. Reed has been consulting Wall street bankers to learn what their wishes were concerning financial legislation.

Captain H. W. Hcwgate, whose wholesale embezzlement of government money was a national sensation some fifteen years ago, having exhausted all legal quibbles, or his money, will this week be taken to the Albany penitentiary to serve the eight-year sentence imposed upon him by a jury that says things somewhat differently from the jury which at an earlier date declared him not guilty as charged in the first indictment, and confirmed by a decision of the Court of Appeals against a new trial for him. Had not Secretary Morton ordered his arrest he would still be at liberty, although everybody in Washington appeared to know that he was living in New York.

The wisdom of the government in printing its own postage stamps is shown by the annual report of Mr. Claude M. Johnson, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, where the work of the department during the year has been better printed than ever before for the government paid less by being $50,000 and $75,000 than ever before for the same amount of work. Wholesale abuse of the franking privilege caused it to be wholly abolished for a long time. Although only existing in a modified form for the last few years it has not been abolished. It has been abused. It is known that the republican campaign committee used it to send out documents that were not franked during the Congressional campaign of last year and the last presidential campaign. But a case has recently come to the knowledge of Secretary Morton and the book-dealer claims that he has been abusing it to their own profit. The case will probably be referred to the Attorney General in order to decide whether any legal wrong has been done. It came to the knowledge of Secretary Morton that a second hand book dealer was selling government publications and which Congressional blanks to those who wished to mail them. An employee of the Department of Agriculture went to purchase one of these publications and obtain one of the franks. He easily did so. The frank bears a rubber stamp fac-simile of the signature of Representative Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio, and the book-dealer claims that he came legitimately by them and acknowledges to have used a considerable number of them sending books through the mail for his customers. It has been ascertained that it is common practice for the clerks of Senators and Representatives to sell government publications to book dealers and to furnish Congressional blanks for mailing them.

Dr. Columbus Durham Dead. RALEIGH, Nov. 15.—Late last night Rev. Dr. Columbus Durham died quite suddenly at his home here. The telegraph offices were closed, so the news could not be sent away. He was perhaps the best known Baptist in the State; was aggressive and a tireless worker. He was the real leader of the fight against State aid to the University. His influence among the Baptists, particularly among those in the country, was immense. He was 51 years of age, and was a native of Cleveland county. His brother, Captain Plato Durham, was well-known as one of the most forceful Democratic speakers. Dr. Durham served during the war, and just after its close became a preacher. Meanwhile he studied at Wake Forest College. He was a forceful speaker and a fearless one. For many years, perhaps, he had been connected with the mission work of the Church.

STATE NEWS.

A gentleman who has travelled over a large part of Union county tells the Monroe Enquirer that he never saw so many new corn cribs—and all of them full of corn, too.

Winston is being stirred as never before by Evangelist W. P. Fife. Up to Saturday the number of professions that had been made at these meetings was estimated at more than 600, of whom 500 were males.

Buncombe Farmers' Alliance has passed resolutions endorsing the State Alliance in denouncing the lease of the North Carolina road and decided to raise money to test the legality of the lease.

The difficulty between Rev. Wm. N. Cleveland, brother of the President and pastor of the Presbyterian church of Chaumont, near Watertown, N. Y., has been composed. The congregation felt out with him because he is a Democrat.

Mr. G. W. Cater, of Greensboro, who had been in Atlanta for several months, was killed by an electric street car Monday morning. He stepped on the track to stop a car, not noticing that the switch was open. The track was not and slippery from frost and dead leaves and the brakes failed to check the car, which ran into the open switch and upon Mr. Cater, dragging him fully fifty feet and mangle him horribly. Death was almost instantaneous.

Heirs to Millions. Last Sunday's Charlotte Observer contained the following: "Cotton Town was elected yesterday, but not over cotton. It was thrown out of its state of every-day monotony by the fact that a legacy had been left it. Here is the good news in a nut shell: Mr. Cross, cutter and buyer for Heath & Reid, was notified yesterday morning by Mr. Wm. Smith, of Concord, who had been for years counsel for the family, that he was one of three heirs to an estate valued at from one to two million dollars, part of which is in this country and the rest in Brazil.

The Work of a Drunken Prisoner. SALISBURY, Nov. 16.—A terrible affair occurred here at 1 o'clock to-night. The calaboose, containing two men, Sam Kimmons, a white man, from near China Grove, and Bob Boyden, colored, was burned. The alarm was sounded at the first discovery of the fire, and the firemen responded and made heroic efforts, but owing to the building being almost secure, it was some time before the door could be broken open. When the men were reached Kimmons was so badly burned that it is thought he will die. Boyden escaped. It is believed the latter set the building on fire. Both men were placed in the lockup for being drunk.

Register of Deeds Woodson has completed the abstract of Rowan's taxes for 1895 and will present his report to the county commissioners at the December meeting. The report is full, showing the value of all property and the amount of taxes that will be collected. The total value of all property, real, personal, railroad and corporation is $2,967,930. This amounted to $3,324,369 in 1894, showing a fall-off of $336,439. The total number of polls is 3,458, being 67 more than last year. The white polls gained 111 but the colored lost 54.

The total taxes for all purposes, State, county, schools and special, is $42,321.74. The number of polls listed, 3,458 is entirely too small for a county the size of Rowan. There are evidently several hundred who are not doing their duty in this respect. The value of land and town lots is also ridiculously low. The former is not quite two million dollars. The latter not quite a million dollars. This amount does not represent one-half, or more than one-half the actual value of the property, and makes a poor showing for the county. But Rowan is no worse than other counties in this respect. All put too small a valuation on property, real and personal, and the result is that North Carolina—one of the very best States in the Union—does not compare favorably with many of her sisters. A reform is needed in this line. Values should be placed higher. Taxes would not be increased thereby but the outside public would know that we regard our property as worth something and would be more anxious to invest their money here.

Butler Still Mysterious. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—While Butler continues to evade the main question as to what his action in the Senate on re-organizing will be Allen, Peffer, and other Populists clearly define their antagonism to the Republicans. Peffer says he will not vote with the Republicans in re-organizing the Senate. I know that he has been counting on him to come extent. North Carolina Democrats are saying that the action of the Populists will embarrass Butler if he means longer to train as a Populist, unless he goes with them in opposing re-organization. They think his subtlety in preserving a mysterious attitude may eventually ruin him, when it is known on which side the Elliott cat finally jumps.

GENERAL NEWS.

This year the Democrats have made some gains. In New York we gained 60,000; in Pennsylvania, 50,000; in New Jersey, 29,000; in Ohio, 25,000; and in Iowa, 10,000.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, an ex-Republican and now a Populist and free trader, gives out that the free silver element must have a national party all to itself next year. It appears that as an outgrowth of the Memphis free silver convention a conference is to be held at Chicago about Christmas and there and then it is proposed to launch the ship.

A frightful accident, resulting in the loss of thirteen lives, occurred near Cleveland, Ohio, Saturday evening. The accident was caused by the carelessness of a street car conductor, who ran a car on a bridge across Cayahoga river when the draw was open to allow a boat to pass. The gates to the bridge were closed and danger signals set, but these were disregarded and the car with its freight plunged 120 feet into the river. The motorman and five passengers jumped from the car and escaped, and one other passenger was taken from the river alive. The others perished.

Much of the material for the new jail has been placed near the building site, work on it will commence to-morrow. Quarterly conference was held at Bethesda church, 2 1/2 miles below here, Saturday and Sunday. The church, which is a new one, was dedicated on Sunday. The dedicatory sermon being preached by Presiding Elder Scroggs.

Rev. Scroggs preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist church at this place Sunday night. Glad to see our former townsmen, Messrs. C. A. Dry and J. F. Correll, of Concord, in the burg. The public school at this place closed last Friday, and Prof. Kirk restored upon his high school duties this morning with a good enrollment of pupils. Mr. G. D. Palmer will leave in about three weeks for Paducah, Ky., where he will engage in business. We sincerely regret to lose Mr. Palmer, both as a townsman and county officer.

The farmers in this section are holding back their cotton, waiting for the price to reach 10 cents. We hope that their waiting will not be in vain, but the price might possibly fall below its present notch, and we think they had better sell their cotton and rest satisfied with their present good luck.

Dame Rumor says there will be another marriage in town soon. Rev. R. M. Taylor, pastor of the Albemarle circuit, will leave next week for the Methodist conference. This is his last year on this charge. He has made a good and faithful pastor, and has many fast friends, all of whom regret to give him up. Nov. 18, 1895. People from every direction are flocking to Atlanta, and the carrying capacity of trains are taxed to their utmost. Thirteen trains are scheduled to leave Washington for Atlanta today.

THE CAUCASIAN ANSWERED. Salisbury World. The Caucasian dared the Charlotte Observer in the following words to tell who was paying for the sound money pamphlets by "Merchant," which are being distributed.

"Now we give you a 'black dog dare' to come out and tell who pays for the distribution of 'Merchant's' pamphlet and other gold-bug literature. We dare you tell it. You don't dare do it and you know it. And the Observer without any equivocation told the mark and named the man who bears the expenses. The dare was perhaps so replete with that coarseness which distinguishes gentlemanly journalism from mud-spattered penny-a-liners that the Observer was constrained to take no notice of it. But upon second consideration it acted most wisely and, not so much for the edification of the Caucasian perhaps as to satisfy some others who have exhibited a morbid curiosity concerning this matter, it met the question with a square and clear cut answer. Now the question arises, in what way does it concern the opponents of a measure as to where the means of popularizing this measure comes from. No one has questioned the right of the free silver organs to use two pages of ready print or plate matter in advancing their cause. Neither have they any just cause to complain. Then why, in the name of consistency, are such papers as the Caucasian forever and eternally poking their noses into the affairs of private citizens? Mr. One chooses to expend a certain amount in circulating sound money doctrine and he has just as unquestioned a right to do this as any party to distribute campaign matter. We say, let the political organs fight on merit, and if there is no merit to fight for, as is the case of the party which the Caucasian is backing up, keep quiet."

Stevenson Says Cleveland Will Be Accorded a Re-Nomination if He Wants It. Pittsburgh Special, 12th, to New York Herald. Vice President Stevenson passed through Pittsburgh to-night, on his way home to Bloomington, Ill. He thought the recent Republican victories would not affect Democratic chances next year. He said that President Cleveland will be accorded a re-nomination if he wants it.

Scott's Emulsion makes cod-liver oil taking to a pleasure. You hardly taste it. Each knows nothing about it—it does not trouble there. You feel it first in the strength that it shows in the color of the cheek, the rounding of angles, the smoothing of the wrinkles. It is cod-liver oil digested for you, slipping as it were into the blood and losing itself there as rain-drops themselves in the ocean. What a satisfactory thing this is—to hide the taste of cod-liver oil, evade the tax on the taste health by surprise. There is no secret of what it is made of—the taste is lost, but nothing is lost but the taste.
