Volume XV.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1898.

THE CONCORD TIMES.

- BOOK AND JOB PRINTING. -

-OF ALL KINDS

out from this office. We duplicate the prices of any legitimate establishment.

Case of Poisoning

RATES MODERATES

Hood's Sarsaparilla Drives the Poison from the System, Quiets the Nerves, Relieves Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

" While in the army I was poisoned inwardly with poison oak, and I did not get well for 15 years. My blood became so affected that I was taken with a backing cough, and I was thought to be going medicines without avail, and finally resolved to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Whon I had finished taking the first bottle the pimples began to disappear from my body, and after I had taken three bettles Hood's Sarsaparilla for this trouble, and it helps me. In fact I take it for all all-ments and believe it has no equal as a-blood purifier. It quiets the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It has relieved me of dyspepsia and built me up. J. I. HOLLIDAY, Williamston, South Carelina.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the best-in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Bold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Hood's Pills care Liver like easy to perate, and CABARRUS SAVINGS BANK Capital Stock. $50,000.

Collections a Specialty. Prompt * Remittances * Guaranteed or large. Interest paid on time deposits. JAS.C.GIBSON, D.F.CANNON,

FOR Rates West

Texas, Mexico, California, Alaska, or any other point, with free Maps, FRED. D. BUSH. District Passenger Agent.

LOUTSVILLE & NASHVILE R.

When a case is referred to a and seen him before Olivia." court of final appeal its decision "It's a pity you did not go there." is irrevocable. When you have said Merrick thoughtfully. "All this lost all hope, in your own case, trouble might have then been avoided. minster. By permission Franc's staid of being cured of Rheumatism or Well, how did you get to the Fen inner ar any disease caused by impure Starby, hired a horse there and rode to old ladies made much of him. We saw

Africana cures Positively. Africana cures perma-Africana cures perfectly. Africana cures quickly.

Read what a prominent Atlanta Broker writes us:

AFRICANA COMPANY: I was attacked with Rheuma tism in my feet and knee joints. was induced to try Africana, and after using five bottles prescribed to escape?" and not using rny other remedy or treatment during use of APRI-CANA. I now regard myself as free from Rheumatism. Yours truly,

J. M. Pondeu.

Sold by P. B. Fetzer, Marsh Drug Co., and D. D. Johnson

Hold-Fast CLOTHES LINE A new and useful device which every family will buy is sold only through local agents simple and strongs can be put up anywhere securely holds rope or wire; instant adjustment and removal of line; no props needed. Sells on sight. Popular price. Agents wanted everywhere. Exclusive territory. At-

A STORY OF MYSTERY. BY FERGUS HUME.

Copyrighted by the Author.

into consumption. I took many different | ing new, comparally speaking. Cercent of the grinte and an ased circuit, body was to be found." tarrh in the head and have been taking on that fatal night. Rose was being as Rose, in a fit of blind anger, might on him, but it's a mere chance. have done so. Merrick's theory as to her meddled with by the police, but now know it is Strent." they began to handle the matter. Informed by Francis as to the whereabouts of the body, they dragged the pool near the Fen inn and recovered it will be successful." the corpse of the unhappy young man. Then the imposter wrote a peremptory letter to Find fis, requesting him to come down and attend the inquest There was a rate of suspicion in the letter, and Francis could not very well help obeying the summens. He remested me to e we with him which I had every intention of doing. We settled the time of our departure and before going saw Olivia and Dr. | minet to stand by him to the end, # Merrick. Mrs. Dellin had not been ingoing on under her very nese. Thanks | mdy be sure we'll find out the rest. to the wonderful rescriblance between the twins, she accepted Felix as Francis of," he said ruefully. "If all this and Francis as himself without the foolishness gets into the press, Mrs. slightest suspicion. At first she had ob- Bellin will never let me marry Olivia." jected to the engagement, but afterward. 'I don't think Mrs. Bellin will have income, consented. To be sure, she would led dryly. "Olivin is not the kind of have been better pleased had Olivia woman to give up her lover so easily, We want your business however small married a title, but as her daught ride- particularly when she knows the truth. Francis Mrs. Bellin gave way with a As to the press, you forget that the in> ed when she heard Francis was going to editor and can keep all details out of it. should be accused of his brother's murder. The actions of Francis had been to very peculiar that I was afraid to tell | best friend I have. them to the inspector lest he should think the young man guilty. At the Briantield, I've no doubt that there you same time it was impossible to keep cursed me by all your gods for a medthem secret, as Francis had thrown the dlesome fool. body of his brother into the poel and would have to explain, to the inspector up his spirits. We saw the detective how it got there. Our only chance of who was watching Rose Gernon and proving him to be innocent lay in find gave him the picture drawn by Francovered none of us knew. Merrick's he wanted. Especially did we lay clever brain discovered a clew to the stress on the lameness, and in the end > destination of the fugitive. Marshminster?" he asked Francis. "No. Had I come by train to Marshminster I would have gone to Bellin found out the wher abouts of Strent. I Hall, where my brother was staying,

the Fen inn."

"About 12 miles."

"And from the Fen ing to Marshmin-"Ten miles."

"Much about a much ess," said Merrick. "Did yen tell Sale a yea, and ridden from Starby?" "Yes. I had no reason to conceal my movements."

"Quite so. W. li, and Line to Reso Gernon, it was your horse barent took "It was. I wonder be did not take the horse of Felix."

"For a very simple reason. He know when the alarm was given that you and Denham would go to Mar-hmin ster. Therefore, to hitly his trail the better, he went back with your horse to Starby.

"Do you think so?" "I am sure of it. Go to the Estable at Starty wight.

will be of no use Iso con. It train there for Louden

"Very probably," . ..id. ly, "and waited there for 1. fled from the ital the murderer, he tahi i. dili. gig and go to Mananiplus. The rode off to Starby and rejuited lier

London." "But why should she council movements?" "Because he knows too mand the crime," said blevick and see "Either she did it hersalf and is all tractive terms. Premiums and profit sharing. Anyone may become agent. Sample pair, by mall, 25c. KELSO NOVELTY CO., Lecust St., Philadelphia. of his speaking, or he did it, and si "Why should, the wish to a reen a man who killed her lover?" Merrick irritably, finding him. loss. "Ali this is pure the... think it is so. I am cartain thata is an understanding between Research in an .If that detective watching Row Cay catch him paying her a visit." "Why not give the detective a picture of the man?" suggested Francis. "Why not indeed?" I retorted deri-"Because we haven't got a pie- done?" I asked dismally. ture.

me as such a smuc scoundrel that I house moved about the dining room. It is not once," I said, jumping up.

"You think I am in danger?"

with the police. And you must tell them all, seeing you know where the "I'll tell them all and do the best himself innocent and accuse her. One I can," said Francis, turning pale, "but Rose can prove I was never out of ment. It now remain of for use to find your brother afterward. Your only Strent and hear his story. Francis be- chance, Mr. Briarfield, of proving your lieved Strent hald killed his brother. I innocence is to find Strent. If you give had my doubts, as I could see no motive | that portrait to the detective watching for his committing the crime, where Rose Gernon, I believe you'll lay hands "There is another means of 'identifi-

guilt was more in accordance with my cation," said I. "Streat is lame, so if a lame man calls on Miss Germon my Hitherto we kept the case from being detective, aided by the picture, will "Well, go and try my plan," said

Merrick, shaking Francis by the hand. "I hope for your sake, Mr. Brigrfield, When we left the dector, Francis looked pale and upset. He was just be ginning to realize the predicament in which he stood. I was afraid myself that when all was known he would be arrested. His own actions looked black, though I, knew they were done out of pure foolishness. Had he only trusted me at the time, all the trouble would have been averted. As it was, I deter "Cheer up, Briarfield," said L clapformed of the death of Felix, nor did ping him on his back. "If Merrick and she suspect that anything wrong was I solved so much of the mystery, you "It's the newpapers I'm thinking clared she would marry no one but She'll stick to you, as I intend to do quest is at Marshminster, which only As to Olivia, she was terribly dismay- possesses a weekly paper. I know the

> "Thank you, 'Denham," said the poor fellow gratefully. "You are the

At this he laughed and began to pick ing Strent, and where he was to be dis- cis, with a full description of the man our detective promised that he would "Did you ride to the Fen inn from nail any man answering to our description. I gave him my address at Marshminster and told him to wire when he the dector was anxious to know if his theory would prove correct. "I took the train from London to learning that he was in trouble the two "How far is it from blarry to the friend of mine, and learned that the forth. He listened with much; a tomis' "I never read a novel to touch this, he said, staring at Francis. 'Truth is stranger than fiction, after all. You greatly resemble your unhappy brother.

"Is the body much decomposed?" asked I, seeing that Francis remained si-inspector. "You neted very faelishly in this matter, both of you. Why did you not come and tell me about it all at

"I was afraid of being accused of killing my brother," said Franci

"You've made it ten times wor. now," said the inspector dryly "Had "I can't answer all questions." said | you wished to damn yourself, you could not have gone to work in a more pigheaded fashion. ".

"Are you going to arrest me?" "No. There is not sufficient evidence knew Streat, I am certain he would your story. Still," added he, with some hesitation, "you have to face the coro-ner tomorrow. He may not believe you so easily as I."

"What do you think is best to be "Well, judging from what you have "I have one at my rooms," said Fran- | told me, I should think the best thing and watching faces. The fellow struck in bed at the time Felix was in the A. T. Moreaux, Luverne, Minn. Sold traveled in princely style and were hand-turn, as There's $2 in it."—Atlanta

percence a carrenture of him while ne | "I'll wire for her to come down at a photograph certainly. Still I think it | "It will be as well. I'll send a man his hands. "It's a good thing you em- keeper. I wish to heaven, Denham," Briarfield. It may do you a great serv- you had told ine all about this at first." "I acted for the best."

"I think you stand in a perilous posi- ill temperedly, "but I hate your amabefore. Ret Clernen had tald wenoth baffle Denham will score against you coil long ago had I taken it in hand." her to come. I knew quite well she over, that my detective would send a Ridge, Boudinot and McIntosh. have come down and quarreled with man to watch her, while he waited round her house for the possible appearance of Strent.

When I got back to the inspector's room, I found that his ill temper had ards penned several pretty legends sionary. vanished, and he was doing his best to about the Indian girls of Tallulah falls, console Francis.

"I've seen a man in a worse plight than is yours, Mr. Briarfield," he was saying when I entered, "and yet he came out all right in the end. The cause of his predicament was similar." "What's that?" said Francis, looking "Lack of moral courage. Had you told Denham at the time and then both of you had told me, we might have laid our hands on Rose Gernon and Strent. As it was, you gave them time to make up their plans and get away." "Rose hasn't got away," said I grimly. "She's safe enough and will be here tomorrow." "I wish we could say the same about Strent," said the inspector.

"Do you think he is guilty?"

"Upon my word, sir, after all my ex- ents and hopes this publication may atperience of the law, I am afraid to say tract the attention of some one who who is guilty and who isn't. That the can inform her. ory of Dr. Merrick's regarding Rose cret of the crime and her silence."

be man and wife. "Or brother and sister," suggested my head. "Jealousy on the part of ter to the Cherokee chiefs, written in to the territory, in 1838, Ridge and stay together. Strent might have spurred him on to 1835, and which urges and entreats Boudinot lived about a mile apart. killing Felix."

and we parted for the night without coming to any decision as to who was the guilty party. In the morning I received a telegram from Merrick and went off with it at once to the inspector. It ran thus:

him down with Rese. Arrive at noon. Hold over inquest if possible." "By Jove, sir," said the inspector, 'that man is lost as a doctor. He ought to be a detective " (To be continued in our next.)

Is Populism Doomed?

Ruleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer. The Populists will hold another in-J. Y. Hamrick, an anti-Butler or mi- language and a rudimentary education. situation and see whether the Democrats | dian language and went out as missionwill gobble us up or not. We will also aries to the tribes. Besides the Chip discuss the matter of arranging for a pewas and Choctaws and Cherokees, body of Felix Briarfield was at the state convention. The party is shaky, remember there were two from the morgue of Marshminster The inquest | I do not know what will happen, but it | Sandwich islands. looks like the party will split and part "Mr. Daggett was the first principal go to the Democrats and part to the of the school and Mr. Andrews the last Republicans. It is quite evident that Every May there was a public exhibit Hamrick, who is a very observant man, tion and the Indian boys spoke on the and who is also a member of the state stage, first in their own language and party had seemed certain these six their hands in harmony with the music months or more. The critical situation They were never allowed to go beyond of the party makes the meeting next the limits or into people's houses with makes the average Populist angrier than them. to intimate that his party has seen its "Among these students was a Chero power, do political trading and scare For two years he was afflicted with some North Carolina Democrats. These hip disease. While he boarded at Mr writes as follows: "This is to certify to the matter. Cough Remedy. My family and neighbors have tested it, and we know it is an excellend remedy for coughs and colds.—George W. Humphrey." Sold by M. L. Marsh & Co.

The Georgia Governorship.

announces that he is unwilling to en- could I help loving her?' gage in a heated contest for the nomiserve as Georgia's Chief Executive.

BILL ARP'S LETTER.

Fragments of Indian history have acover to Starby and find out if Strent cumulated upon me of late and as they "Capital," said the doctor, rubbing delivered the horse to the livery stable concern the Creeks and Cherokees and "I've no doubt you did," he replied gia, Alabama and East Tennessee. North Georgia was especially the home "I have my doubts of that," said I as they are more properly called, lived John Ridge's cousin, was about to mar- of further exploiting we must come todryly and went off to the telegraph of- south of the Tallapoosa river. These ry Harriet Gould, the fairest and best gether again and remais an unknown fice. There I sent a telegram to Rose tribes are not to be classed with sav-Gernon asking her to come down by ages, for they were of a higher grade, was the nearest perfection of any girl I the early train next morning and also and but for the greed of the white man ever knew. She was the idol of the decide upon we have the assurance that vance in civilization and refinement un-Everybody is familiar with the story > of Pocahontas. about Hiawatha and William E. Richand so I will pen the story of John Ridge and Boudinot as given to me. and left it for her children, who had letter from a lady, Mrs. Virginia Wilfather was a Scotch refuge named Mc-Donald. The writer, Mrs. Williams, traces her lineage back to the same Mic-McDonald. Mrs. Williams would like they were awed by his presence. to learn more about Ross and his par-

the children in the Christian faith, and is No. 101 Gold street, New York.

able paper published in the nation, and newspaper (New Echota is near Calhoun, mon herd by means of the shoe factory them to accept the terms and the treaty Sarah had three children and Harriett else than shoes, because we must have These, however, were all theories, and move at once to the territory as- six, but died in giving birth to the last. signed to them.

fairs. Other fragments have come to white people." dians will be forever lost.

But to the story-"In 1817 a foreign mission school was established at Cornwall, Conn. It was a charity school for Indians mainly formal conference here next Wednes- though there were some white pupils day. One was held last autumn in the there and some defrayed their own exstate library. Your correspondent had penses. Students from several Indian a talk to-day with Labor Commissioner tribes were there to acquire the English nority Populists. . We will talk over the Some white pupils also acquired the In-committee thinks the days of the party then in ours. They were genteel and are numbered. Your correspondent graceful in their oratory. They sang told him that the disintegration of the songs in their native tongue, all waving Wednesday a necessity. Care is taken out invitation. When they visited us we to say that it is informal. Nothing laid aside our work and entertained best days; it is in fact, on its last legs. kee youth named John Ridge, the sor There are Populists who verily believe of a chief—a very noble young man, of that their party can continue until the fine form and feature and a perfect genend of time to hold the balance of tleman in his manners and deportment three things are the highest ambition Northrup's and Mrs. Northrup had the care of bim, sometimes her daughter Sarah, a sweet and lovely girl, vaited A man stands no chance of being upon him. One day Dr. Gould, who elected to the mayorship of a city unless was my cousin, said to Mr. Northrup e enjoys the confidence and esteem of John is about well. He has no physihis neighbors. Geo. W. Humphrey is cal disease about him and needs n the popular mayor of Swanton, Ohio, more medicine, but he is in trouble and under date of Jan. 17, 1896, he and you had better find out what our appreciation of 'Chamberlain's "That afternoon while Sarah was Heinzelman, a well-to-do shoe dealer, away her mother took her knitting and has just awakened from a twenty-eight went to sit and talk with John. While day trance. there she took notice of his melancholy The withdrawal of Rev. Sam Jones as and knew that he could never marry sister, and after a week her husband a candidate for Governor of Georgia has her, for he was an Indian. 'Have you begged her to return. She refused, and been quickly followed by a card from ever mentioned it to Sarah?' she asked. lion. Louis F. Garrard, in which he 'No,' said he, 'I dare not, but how nation and therefore declines to permit er said: 'Sarah, do you love John the further use of his name in connect- Ridge?' 'Yes, I do mother,' she said. speaking nor opening her eyes. She knowing fellow, but without knowing it the further use of his name in connect- Ridge?' 'Yes, I do mother,' she said. opened her clenched teeth once, when the governorship. This leaves the family trouble. My, three candidates in the field for the dem- Northrup at once took Sarah to her that will keep the hardest working man. three candidates in the field for the dem- Northrup at once took Sarah to her ocratic nomination—Secretary of State grandparents in New Haven and begged speak the name of a Christian Science in good working shape; it is Dr. Pierce's Allen D. Candler, Judge Sqencer R. At- them to wean Sarah from her Indian preacher. Kinson and Hon, Robert L. Berner, lover—to give parties and introduce her president of the State Senate. But the to nice young men, which they did, but pital, where she remained in the trance It simply aids nature in the natural proagainst you. Besides I quite believe your story. Still, "added he, with some he state convention will not meet for sever-law ke. State convention will not meet for sever-law all in vian. She remained there are the convention and excretion. It tones to nice young men, which they did, but state to nice young men, which they did, but sta three months and seemed to be pining away in silent grief. Her parents became alarmed and brought her home. What was to be done, for it would be that she suffered tormants from this seemed into the blood. It invigorates the flow of digestive juices. It makes a man "hungry as a horse" and then sees to it that the life-giving elements of the food he takes are assimilated into the blood. It invigorates that she suffered tormants from this. dates will announce their willingness to away in silent grief. Her parents be-On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I ar awful thing for Sarah to marry him. was sick with rheumatism, and lay in As a last resort Mr. Northrup told John bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle Ridge to go home and stay two years, of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first and if he got entirely well he might address on a letter mailed in Atlanta well. spector. "He is the only man to solve application of it relieved me almost en- come back and marry Sarsh. He did recently. But an address reported from "I drew it while waiting for Felix at the mystery. Failing him, you'd better the Fen inn. You know, Denham, I get Rose Gernon down. Her evidence forded complete relief. In a short time back accompanied by his father. Major "To My Son William—if he's keepin' have some skill in catching expressions may go to prove that Mr. Briarfield was I was able to be up and about again.— Ridge, the chief of the Cherokees. They Good Company. If he aint Please Re-

Major Ridge's coat was trimmed with gold lace.

"John and Sarah were married and went to the Cherokee nation to live, but not as missionaries, for John had to are of a romantic character, I am visit Washington quite often to transact ployed your leisure in that way, Mr. said the inspector, raging at me, "that constrained to record them. These business for the tribe. Sarah had sering resolutions which it learned would two tribes are our Indians and make ap vants to wait upon her and lived like a be introduced in the conference of pious quite a chapter in the history of Gedr-princess in a large two-story dwelling. "Not long after this the little town of Rev. Maj. Caylus Bade, and would Cornwall had another tumult and great have strong support. They were probtion," replied the doctor gravely. "Your teur detectives. They simply muddle of the Cherokees, for their chiefs lived excitement came into its social life. ab.y not introduced, but they ought to We were no nearly the fresh than very efforts to preserve your secret and things. I'd have straightened out this near Rome as far back as we have their then very efforts to preserve your secret and things. I'd have straightened out this near Rome as far back as we have their then have been introduced, but mey ought the first then have been introduced and adopted: history, and the Creeks, or Muscogees, nounced that Elias Boudinot, who was > would no doubt have continued to ad- family. Her brothers and sisters bad Governor Russell will bring over to our all married into the finest families in project not less than nine-tenths of his w. H. LILLY, M. D. would not dare to refuse, and, more- der the lead of such chiefs as Ross, the country and all lived well. Kindred savings and that settles it. came from neighboring towns to inter- "3. We have fooled the people ever cede with Harriet. Ministers called since 1892, when that black rascal and pleaded, but all in vain. She de- Eaves, called us against the advice and offer their professional services to the

> > This story was sent to me by Mrs. Ellen She feared it would break his heart. ces, and some of us have secured pie M. Gibbs, of Crystal Lake, Ill. Her When he came she burst into tears and for all our kin. See what we have done mother, Mrs. Taylor, who died in 1878, refused to meet him. He went away as to conty offices in Wake county. wrote this romantic sketch in 1877, and did not attend the wedding, but "5. If we cannot secure the remain when she was seventy-six years of age, after it was over he came, and the next der of the offices by co-operation with morning waited upon them at breakfast the Requblicans, we must join the Demoften heard her repeat it. By some and seemed in a measure reconciled. ocrats and take what they have. strange coincidence I have recently a But he could not see them married. I "6. Under all or any conditions, we liams, of Bloomfield, Fla., giving the them married. Boudinot was a very ing a lone fight, as it would tend to diancestry of John Ross, whose grand- handsome man. He had a charming minish our influence, while by alter. Donald tree. Her mother was a daugh- he should never come into it alive, and is said is really what we seek. ter of William Day, who married Agnes if he did, he should not go out alive, but > > > was discontinued.

Gernon is feasible enough. She certainly seems to have had more motive for.

In the content of the depositor.

We have been living the content of the visited them there and was well pleased visited them there are the content of the the content killing your brother than had Strent." old chief, appeals for preachers and with their surroundings, for they lived upon meat skin, poke salad and corn loans. is a relationship between Strent and nation and help to educate and train ren were all happy together and both to lead us out of destitution and despair that," said the inspector. "They might cember, 1897, and Mr. Ross's address bands and had not regretted their choice. finding that several of our worthy breth-Boudinot then went to Vermont and And almost by the same mail comes married Harriett's cousin and she went an interesting and beautifully written to the territory with him. After his sketch of the present condition of the assassination, she returned to Cornwall disintegrate and get lost. Muscogees (or Creeks). It was written and the children went with her and by Mr. W. W. Ramsay, of Maryville, were distributed among their mother's "Have secured Strent. Am bringing Mo., a gifted and scholarly gentleman kindred and were highly educated and Babb is mad and we must be prepared CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA who is deeply interested in Indian al- mingled in social equality with the me and if I do not abridge and compile The remainder of the narrative as and have them published in your pa- writen by Mrs. Taylor and copied for per, much valuable history of these In- me by Mrs. Gibbs relates to the story of the assassination of Major Ridge and John Ridge and Elias Boudinot, now. Boudinot's real Indian name was Lellekee-nah, but while at school at Cornwall attracted the attention of Elias Boudinot, a Philadelphia philanthropist, who His son, Elias C. Boudinot, became 25 cents a box. For sale by P. B. Fetzer. distinguished in the nation. He was born in Vanns Valley, near Rome, Ga., 1835, and died three years ago at Fort Smith, in Arkansas. BILL ARP.

The Answer Not on Record. "Will you be kind enough, sir, to hold this ram for me while I open this gate? It is fastened on the inside, and I must climb over." This modest request was made by a man who was standing go there. at a gate on a lonely road, and it was addressed to a stalwart sailor who had just come up. The only other object visible on the long, straight road was the large black ram, whose massive crooked horns were being held by the man as the two stood quite still in front of the gate. "Why, sartinly, shipmate," said the obliging tar, as he seized the ing satisfaction of beating the other big horns and relieved the first holder. fellow, The latter climbed quickly over the gate. "I thank you very much," he said politely, when he got to the other "You will be surprised to hear that I never saw that ram before to-day. The brute attacked me about half an hour ago, and we have been tussling together ever since. As long as you stand before him holding his horns firmly he can't hurt you much. Goodby. I hope you will be as lucky in getting away from him at I have been.' What the sailor said is not recorded.

28 Days In a Trance.

SHEBOYCAN, WIS., March 13.-Mrs. Minnie Heinzelman, wife of Herman and begged him to tell her what from a Christian Science meeting on troubled him so much of late. At first the night of February 1, her husband he denied having any sorrow, but being shut the door in her face and told her pressed told her that he loved Sarah to never return again. She went to her of a boastful, cheerful idiot. If his head he began to abuse her. Suddenly her face grew pale, her night, he doses himself with opiates, arms and body stiffened and her eyelids When he suffers from nervousness, he arms and body stiffened and her eyelids closed. She was placed in bed and there she lay for one week, neither ician prescribes with care. He is a very

She was removed to St. Nicholas Hos-

"To auntie, from Elizabeth," was the

THIS IS THE STUFF.

Resolutions Which Ought to Have Been Adopted By the Coaference of Pious Populists.

Populists, held at Raleigh last week by

"Resoleed, 1. That for the purpose political quantity.

'.4. As to benefits-we have got "Harriet's greatest distress was the complete control of the State offices, and meeting with her brother Stephen, who we must keep together until we can was nearest her age and devoted to her. capture the country and the Federal offi- DR. W. C. HOUSTON made Harriet's wedding outfit and saw must never show our strength by makvoice and was a splendid singer. He nately preying upon both the great parwas a very brave and fearless man, for ties we can forego our principles aud the roughs of the town had sworn that secure subsistence, which, after all that

"7. We must give up our fight against railroads, as it no longer politic, "As a result, however, of these two just like we dropped the sub-Treasury marriages the Cornwall mission school plan when we found that it was too hot | Parties desiring to lend money can to handle without excessive intellect. "Boudinot and his wife went to the and besides some of us are now in a And now comes a marked copy of a Cherokee nation, where two children fair way to acquire property rights our charge to the depositor.

"It's my opinion," said I, "that there teachers to come out to the Cherokee near by to Sarah Ridge and their child-bread until we found a Moses in Butler to come out to the Cherokee near by to Sarah Ridge and their child-bread until we found a Moses in Butler families had all the comforts of life and into the Elysian fields of plenty, cwned especially to teach them in their Sun- many of its luxuries. The two Cornwall by Reps. and Dems., and having got D. G. CALDWELL, M. D. "Humph! There's something in day schools. This appeal is dated Degirls had chosen most excellent hus inside and taken possession of these and "Boudinot taught school awhile at ren are left without other provender And here is The Vinita Leader, an New Echota and published an Indian than what we can fool out of the com-"Or even lovers," I said, nodding contains General Andrew Jackson's let- in Gordon county). After the removal therefore, again we say, brethren, let's

"9. We cannot combine on anything something to denounce, and we must "10. We condemn war with Spain as it might cause our brotherhood to "11. We must throw overboard such political Jonahs as Dr. Mott and others. to catch H-ail Columbia from him this campaign.

"12. Pie is what we are all afterprinciples next. Silver will do to work site courthouse. on this year."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or adopted him and gave him his name no pay required. It is guaranteed to give and left him a large legacy in his will. perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price

Political Notes from Billville

Only one office in town seeking the man. The man owes it $500. The candinates are mortgaging the Capital, mules, and the mules are kicking. This is the season when the six-dol- Individual responsilar man is after the sixty-dollar office. There are no politics in heaven. That's why some of the politicians won't

We are disqualified as a candidate paid as agreed. Liberal accommada for superintendent of the poorhouse.

Too many of our relatives there.

We never fought in the war, but we're

To be disquarmed as a candidate paid as agreed.

J. M. ODELL, President,
D. B. COLTRANE, Cashier We never fought in the war, but we're going through the state campaign and that will entitle us to a pension. It isn't so much the money that's in the office-it's just the plain, soul-fill-

When we are all safelly anchored in position let us not close the office doorunless it lets in a $50 draft.

A man would rather win $1 on a wager General Machinists than earn $5 at honest labor.

men to boast o overwork them selves and how little illnesses that put other people on their backs. It may not sound nice to aches, it isn't worth paying any attention to: if he feels dull and drowsy during the day, it isn't worth serious consideration he is troubled with sleeplessness at walks into the nearest drug store and orders powerful medicines that even a phys-Golden Medical Discovery. It is made of pure native roots and barks. It contains no minerals, no narcotics and no opiates. and disease germs from the system. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder.

"I had indigestion and a torpid liver," writes Mrs. A. I. Gibbs, of Russellville, Logan County, Ky., "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me."

It is the best of all nerve tonics. It cures bronchial, throat and lung affections as If constipation is also present, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken. They never fail; they never gripe. Drug-gists sell both medicines.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS,

Longfellow wrote a beautiful story clared she would marry him and go with him to his people and be a missionary.

Laves, called us against the advice and clared she would marry him and go with him to his people and be a missionary.

Laves, called us against the advice and citizens of Concord and vicinity. All with him to his people and be a missionary.

Laves, called us against the advice and citizens of Concord and vicinity. All with him to his people and be a missionary. rect, opposite Presbyterian church.

CONCORD, N. C. Is prepared to do all kinds of Denta work in the most approved manner.
Office over Johnson's Drug Store.

W. J. MONTGOMERY. J. LEE CROWEL

MONTGOMERY & CROWELL, Attorneys and Counselors-at-Law. CONCORD, N. C. partners, will practice lawin Cabar rus, Stanly and adjoining counties, the Superior and Supreme Courts of the State and in the Federal Courts. Office on Depot Street. leave it with us or place it in Concord National Bank for us, and we will lend it on good real estate security free o to owners of same. DRS. GALDWELL & STEVENS,

Office in former Postoffice Building on Main

DR. H. C. HERRING, DENTIST, is again at his old place over Yorke's Jewelry Store,

L. T. HARTSELL, Attorney-at-Law

CONCORD N. C

Prompt attention given to all business. Office in Morris building oppo

Concord National Bank.

With the latest approved form of books, and every facility for handling accounts, offers a

FIRST * CLASS * SERVICE to the public,

Profit, 22,000 bility of shareholders,

Keep your account with us. Interest

$50,000

BLUME & BRO.,

Machine Works, CONCORD, N. C.

and Machine Dealers. We do heavy machine work; also engine and prices as low as consistent with first-class workmanship and materials. When in need of anything in our line give us a call. Office and works, Corbin St. WANTED-TRUSTWORTHY AND AC wive gentlemen or ladies to travel for responsible, established house in Concord. Monthly $65,00 and expenses. Position steady.

and boiler work especially. Pipe cutting and threading done to 10 inches inclusive. All orders have our prompt and careful attention,

Reference. Euclose self addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Dept. H SAVE MONEY; and TIME

Sell or Exchange Your Wood and Buy Smith Coal from MANTED-Trustworthy and active gentlemen or ladies to travel for responsible, established house in Cabarrus county. Monthly $65 and expenses.

Position steady. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Co., Dept. W., Chicago. Nov18-8w.

NOTICE.

Is hereby given that I purchased at Sheriff's sale for taxes on May 3, 1897, The Concord Mining Company's land, consisting of 5 acres, near Concord, adjoining W. J. Montgomery and others, and if not redeemed at the expiration of the year, will demand deed for the same.

L. R. MONTGOMERY.