TILLMAN TALKS ABOUT FUSION.

JOHN B. SHERRILL, Editor.

The South Carolina Senator Says He is Sorry for Us.

One of the most unique characters in national politics was here yesterday. Need I say that Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, is the man to whom "I was troubled with chronic diarrhese I refer? He was on his way home a vacation. Though he was in Raleigh only ten minutes, and did not get off

Inspected By a Negro

Jones county is suffering from the esulted in the present Board of Education which elected five school committeemen, three of them white and two colored. One of these negroes is named

Ed. Kinsey and he has maintained his

"rights" by inspectin a white school.

Mr. J. B. Collins is the school teacher who had charge of the Maysville school last. He is a young man of intelligence gentlemanly demeanor. The school at Maysville has some fifty white scholars, boys and girls, and some of the girls almost old enough to be dignified by the title of young ladies. There are three white school committeemen in Jones county, but the negro Kinsey visited the school alone. He spent an hour in the school room where the white boys and girls were being taught. He found that the desks were not made properly and recommended that the backs be changed. What
