NUMBER 16.

"I was weak, nervous and dizzy, with a inting sensation when walking," writes see Childress, E.g., of Samuel, Sullivan i. Tenn. "Could not walk any distance; ways felt bad after eating; felt as though mething was sticking in my throat, allows uneasiness in stomach. Destored mething was sticking in my throat, allys uneasiness in stomach. Doctored the three physicians but they did not fieve me. I grew worse and used crything I could think of; was nearly ady to give up and then some one told that Dr. Pierce's medicine was good. I began taking his 'Golden Medical scovery.' I have taken seven bottles of at now and am as stout as ever, and enying health as much as ever before. I orked all summer and this winter as uch as any one. My case was liver dispessand nervous dyspepsia of which your redicine has cured me. In September 1955 my weight was about 95 pounds, now is 195. Please accept my sincere thanks."

HASTE NOT, REST NOT

Bind the motto to thy breast; Bear it with thee as a spell, Storm or sunshine, guard it well; Heed not flowers that round thee bloom-Bear it onward to the tomb.

Haste not, let no reckless deed Mar for aye the spirit's speed; Ponder well and know the right-Forward then with all thy might! Haste not; years cannot atone For one reckless action done.

Rest not; time is sweeping by-Do and dare before you die: Something mighty and sublime Leave behind to conquer time. Glorious "tis to live for aye When these forms have passed away.

Raste not, rest not; calmly wait: Meekly bear the storms of fate; Duty be thy polar guide-Do the right whate'er betide! Haste not, rest not; conflicts past, God shall crown thy work at last!

> Both Sides Have Been Wrong. Charlotte Observer.

As the great anthracite coal miners' strike nears its end it must be apparent to all who have followed its course that there has been a good dealof wrong on both sides. Without reference to the merits of the controversy in its beginning it is apparent that the operators have been too unbending in their attitude, too arbitrary in their refusal to arbitrate; while the operatives, who became dissatisfied with conditions and quit work were wrong, as strikers so often are, in resorting to intimidation and violence to prevent other men from taking their places. Laboring men in all departments of life should recognize the great principles of equity that the right to go to work and the right to quit work are inalienable. This will not be, perhaps, until the Golden Rule is universally adopted and lived up to, but this can never be shaken as an equitable proposition, because it is founded on a rock.
