Starting and Staying.

At the start in a long race, the advantage often appears to be with an outsider. But the race is won not in starting but in staying. The quality which wins is staying power. It is so in the race of life. Staying power wins, and as a rule the best stayer is the man with the best stomach. - All physical strength s derived from food which is properly digested and assimilated. When the food eaten is only partly digested and assimilated there is a loss of nutrition which means a loss of strength and the general result is physical break-down.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives strength and staying power, because it cures dis uses of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food esten, and so strengthens the body naturally by the nutrition derived from food.

nutrition derived from food.

"I was troubled with indigestion for about two years," writes Wm. Bowker, Esq., of Juliactta, Latah Co., Idaho. "I tried different doctors and remedies but to no avail, until I wrote to you and you told me what to do. I suffered with a pain in my stomach and left side and thought that it would kill me. Now I am glad to write this and let you know that I am all right. I can do my work now without pain and I don't have that tired feeling that I used to have. Five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' cured me." Accept no substitute for Golden Medical Discovery. There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

THE IRISH PAMINE. Give me three grains of corn, mother-Only three grains of corn; It will keep the little life I have Till the coming of the morn. am dying of hunger and cold, mother-Dying of hunger and cold; And half the agony of such a death My lips have never told.

A wolf that is fierce for blood; All the livelong day, and the night beside, dreamed of bread in my sleep, mother, And the sight was heaven to see; awoke with an eager, famishing lip. But you had no bread for me.

How could I look to you, mother-How could I look to you, For bread to give to your starving boy, When you were starving, too ? For I read the famine in your cheek, And in your eyes so wild, And I felt it in your bony hand, As you laid it on your child.

The Queen has lands and gold, mother-The Open has lands and gold. While you are forced, to your empty breast A skeleton babe to hold-A babe that is dying of want, mother. g As I am dying now, With a ghastly look in its sunken eye, And famine upon its brow.

What has poor Ireland done, mother-What has poor Ireland done, That the world looks on, and sees us starve. Perishing, one by one? Do the men of England care not, mother-The great men and the high, For the suffering sons of Erin's Isle, Whether they live or die?

There is many a brave heart here, mother,

Dying of want and cold, While across the Channel, mother, Are many that roll in gold: There are rich and proud men there, mether, With wondrous wealth to view, And the bread they fling to their dogs tonight, Would give life to me and you.

come nearer to my side, mother. Come nearer to my side, and hold me fondly, as you held, My father when he died; Quick, for I cannot see you, mother, My breath is almost gone: Mother! dear mother! ere I die.
