Charlotte Observer, 15th: Yesterday was the first day since Will Harris returned to this county from the penitentiary that news of his whereabouts failed to reach town. Since Harris shot Sam Huey, no manifestation of his presence has amounted to a certainty, and so the officers all over the county are forced to play a waiting game.

Raleigh Post: There are thousands of readers of this paper who will sincerely regret to learn that Rev. Jesse H. Page is critically ill at his home in Henderson. One of the salt of the earth, an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile, lies stricken of disease. The Father whom he has served so long will look tenderly upon him in his weakness.

An effort is being made to secure Gen. John B. Gordon to lecture here. See in another column the advertisement for bids for the erection of three school houses in the county.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IN No. 4 TOWNSHIP. We have been requested to publish the following, and gladly do so: The annual Sunday School Convention of No. 4 township met at Centre Grove E. L. Church Tuesday, August 13, 1903.

The exercises of the following programme were rendered and were heard by a large and appreciative audience: Opening Song—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," sung by all the schools.

Scripture Reading—Rev. J. N. Huggins, of Concord. Prayer—Rev. A. J. Crane, pastor of Bethpage.

Welcome—Hattie Dayvault, of Centre Grove. Welcome Solo—Janie Trice, of Centre Grove.

Response to Welcome—Rev. Mr. Crane. Song—Mt. Olivet Church. Solo—Rev. Mr. Crane.

Duet and Recitation—Mt. Olivet. Subject, "Christian Grace." Song—Centre Grove. Recitation—Bethpage, followed by song.

Recitation—Mt. Olivet. Song—Centre Grove. Address—Rev. J. L. Morgan, pastor of Trinity and St. Enoch's Churches. Subject: "The Word of God in the Sunday School." Mr. Morgan said: The foundation stone of all good works must be based upon the word of God.

First, we must be prepared before we can impart knowledge. In a few well spoken words the speaker told how to prepare for the work. One of the most effective ways of preparation for the Sunday School work as teacher is the teachers' meeting.

Teachers should meet and discuss questions dwelling directly upon the Sunday School and the lesson to be taught. Mr. Morgan then spoke of the duty of parents to children in connection with the Sunday School, and the kind of literature we should use.

The speaker closed with an appeal to the parents to take more interest in training their children for church work, and asked the old people to go with the children and impress upon their minds the fact that they are to learn the word of God.

Song—Bethpage. Address—Mr. D. B. Coltrane. Subject: "The Work of the Teacher." Mr. Coltrane spoke briefly, but with the sound doctrine of the one great Book and with Christ as an example he showed the ideal teacher doing ideal work in a way appreciated by all.

Continuing, the speaker said to be a teacher we must have faith in God, in the church and in self; have a desire to do something, to be somebody. By our daily walk and conversation we should impress upon the child's mind the necessity of a purpose in life.

Song—Centre Grove. Song—Mt. Olivet children. Song—Bethpage. AFTERNOON SESSION. Recitation and Song—Mt. Olivet. Recitation and Song—Bethpage. Recitation and Song—Centre Grove. Recitation—Mt. Olivet.

Address—Rev. F. A. L. Clark, pastor of Smith's Chapel M. E. Church. Mr. Clark spoke of the Sunday School in its early history. In an interesting manner he compared the opportunities offered to those of the early Sunday School.

Song—Centre Grove. Song—Mt. Olivet. Song—Bethpage. Recitation—Annie Rodgers. Subject, "What Can I Do for Jesus?" The members of the different schools then sang, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Benediction was pronounced and all went home feeling that it was good to be at such a convention.

That's Right. Concord Tribune. Our neighbor, The Times, has this to say of a piece of Cabarrus road: "The road from the end of the macadam beyond the Buffalo creek bridge to Poplar Tent is undoubtedly the worst in the county. It is a disgrace to a progressive county like Cabarrus. It is full of holes and rocks, and looks as if it had not been worked or had attention for two years."

Now, when we get down to the bottom of the business, though there is not much bottom in January, a great portion of the Cabarrus roads might be termed disgraceful. There is only one thing to do and that is to build them thoroughly and well, so that they will last for all time. To do this costs money, and the sooner we make up our minds to get the money and build good roads the better it will be for the county. To keep up we must have good roads without these disgraceful spots.

War on the Bucket-shops Declared By Judge Neal. CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 17.—In his charge to the grand jury this morning, Judge Walter H. Neal declared war on the bucket shops.

He charged the jury that it was a crime under our law to buy or sell for future delivery on margins, corn, cotton, wheat or other food or agricultural products, that the law made it illegal to operate so called bucket shops, and those who were in charge of such as well as those who buy or sell therein were guilty under the law.

DAMAGE BY FLOODS. Coddie Creek Higher Than It Has Been in 40 Years. There was a heavy rain on last Monday night generally throughout the county. The heaviest part of it, however, was along Coddie Creek, and on Tuesday that stream was higher than it has been since 1864.

It rose very rapidly Tuesday, about eight feet in an hour at one time. The corn in the bottoms along the creek is badly damaged, and much of it ruined. A great deal of hay which had been stacked in the bottoms has been destroyed.

On Mr. J. P. Allison's place three large stacks of clover hay were washed away. At the Bala cotton mill the water came up in the engine room and considerable damage was done. We learn also that the old Morris mill was moved from its foundation. The creek went down considerably to-day, and the worst is probably over. There was evidently a cloud-burst up the creek in No. 3 township.

Rocky River also is on the rampage. Great damage has been done to crops along this stream. Marriage of Rev. H. H. Blair to Miss Hammar. Yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. D. R. Hoover, in this city, Rev. H. H. Blair, of Greensboro and Miss Laura Anna Ramsaur of Lincoln, were united in matrimony.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. B. Heller, pastor of the bride, and Rev. J. N. Huggins, pastor of Forest Hill Methodist Church in this city. Only immediate relatives and a few of the near neighbors were witnesses.

The ceremony was simple and impressive. The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. Refreshments were served, and an hour spent pleasantly after the ceremony, when amid many congratulations, the bride and groom took the evening train for Asheville, Waynesville, and other points in the mountains, where they will spend a week or two before going to their home in Greensboro.

Miss Ramsaur is the only sister of Mrs. Hoover, and is a member of one of the oldest and best known families in Western North Carolina. She was reared near Lincoln where she is much loved and very popular. Mr. Blair is well known as a leading member of the Western North Carolina Conference, was pastor for some years of Forest Hill Methodist Church in this city, and is now editor of the Conference organ, the North Carolina Christian Advocate. A host of friends wish the couple a long and happy married life.

Orphanage Will Be Located at Crescent. SALISBURY, N. C., Aug. 15.—North Carolina Classic of the Reformed church has been in session here this week. A large number of representative delegates and officials were present to hear and act upon a report of a special committee on the establishment of an orphanage. This committee had made careful investigation at a number of points in this part of the state and recommended that the orphanage be started immediately and that it be located at Crescent. Nazareth Orphan Home will be the name of the new orphanage, which it is understood is the only one of the kind in the state and a work that has long been needed by this denomination. The board of managers elected Rev. J. M. Lyerly, chairman, Dr. W. B. Dutta, secretary, and J. H. Moore of Gold Hill treasurer.

Charley Schwarz, 7-year-old boy of Savannah, was found at Warsaw island stark naked. Nine days ago he went to bathing while on a picnic and was carried off some distance by the tide. When he returned to where he went in his clothes had washed away and he took to the woods to hide his nakedness and lost his way.

The stream of lava, after flowing 2,650 feet in the direction of Otaojano, has stopped, while the other stream is still moving and has reached a point 2,550 feet toward Pompeli.

The Balkan situation shows no improvement. Turks are reported to be murdering Christians. The Russian fleet has sailed for Turkish waters.
