

VETERANS MET TUESDAY.

Confederates Have Great Time at Annual Picnic.

Tuesday was Confederate Veteran day in Concord. In the early hours...

At 11 o'clock the Cabarrus Camp United Confederate Veterans met at the court house...

Commander, H. B. Parks; 1st Lieutenant, G. E. Ritchie; 2nd Lieutenant...

The Camp then adjourned to the court house lawn where music was rendered by the Woodman Band...

After the dinner the veterans gathered in front of the City Hall and faced the camera of Photographer Newman...

The matter will most probably come before the next General Assembly of North Carolina and it is to be hoped that the Cabarrus legislators will be alert to promote the cause...

MEETING OF ALDERMEN.

Sewer Line from Graded School No. 2--The Bill Posting Ordinance--Other Matters.

The board of aldermen held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at the city hall.

Fifty dollars was appropriated for the colored firemen toward defraying their expenses to the tournament, which meets in Winston-Salem in September.

An order was made that a sewer line be constructed from the No. 2 graded school building to connect with the main line of the city.

The bill posting ordinance which was passed several months ago was changed. The former ordinance required that in 24 hours after the performance of the show the posters should be taken down.

The matter of requiring restaurants to observe Sunday hours, which has been up for the consideration of the board on previous occasions, was again discussed last night, but no definite action was taken.

Some Fine Grapes.

Capt. Jonas Cook, who has the reputation as the best grape raiser in the county, brought to our office Tuesday a bunch of grapes that would take the premium at any fair.

Miss Myrtle Suther is visiting relatives in Salisbury.

HISTORIAN'S PAPER.

Read at Reunion Tuesday by Mr. John D. Barrier, Historian of Camp No. 212.

Mr. John D. Barrier, of Charlotte, historian of Cabarrus Camp, No. 212, read the following paper at the reunion here Tuesday:

Another mile post has been reached as we have marched along the highway of life; but none too soon has the period arrived that affords us an opportunity to greet each other again amid emotions made inexpressible by memories of no less vivid because the drama was enacted more than forty-five years ago.

A feature of much gratification to us as our locks are whitening for the harvest is the view of the fruitbearing of our posterity who are presenting to us those that shall rise to perpetuate our memories--when we shall be reaping the reward of the faithful.

The honor of membership in the ranks of the Confederate Veterans is yearly growing more real.

Our sponsor from little gorhood up, Miss Lula Jay Harris, graduated at the Presbyterian College in Charlotte at its last commencement. She requested that all the Confederate veterans available should come in a body and occupy reserved seats in her honor.

At your last meeting you made me chairman of the delegation to the State Reunion which met in Charlotte. Seeing the impossibility of conferring with the other members of the delegation before the meeting, I called on Gen. Carr at the Selwyn and prepared the way for offering the motion contemplated in the resolution of Col. Means as to a committee on securing a monument in our State in honor of the Women of the Confederacy.

The matter will most probably come before the next General Assembly of North Carolina and it is to be hoped that the Cabarrus legislators will be alert to promote the cause and guard well its interests.

My duties would be incomplete if I did not go into the sad record of the dead since we met a year ago. Some of these were not members of our Camp but they wore the gray and defended the cause.

George Garmon. Mr. George Garmon died very suddenly on August 18, 1909, at the age of 75.

M. H. Winecock. Mr. M. Henderson Winecock went to the reward of a faithful service to his country and his God on Sept. 28, 1908, at the age of 69 years.

C. A. Dayvault. Mr. Charles A. Dayvault died Sept. 30, 1909, at a good ripe age.

J. D. McLester. Mr. J. Daniel McLester, a member of Co. H, 14th regiment, died October 10, 1909, at the age of 72 years.

He was a native of Stanly county but spent his later years in Cabarrus.

He held the commission of lieutenant in the service and was a man of marked zeal in church and as a citizen.

Frederick Cline. Mr. Fred Cline, a veteran of Co. F, 7th regiment, fell from the ranks on March 16, 1910, dying suddenly at the age of 70 years.

S. C. Fulham. Mr. Samuel C. Fulham died March 21st, 1910, at the ripe old age of 80 years.

J. E. Hartzell. Mr. Jonas E. Hartzell died March 24, 1910, at the age of 74.

Col. P. B. Means. Col. Paul B. Means died April 20th, 1910, at the age of 65 years. We miss him exceedingly as he was always with us on these occasions and at the last meeting he was especially interesting and congenial.

J. C. Fink. Mr. John Charles Fink died at the very good old age of 82 years, on May 14, 1910, at his home near Mt. Pleasant.

G. W. Edwards. Mr. Geo. W. Edwards, a native of Union county, died in our midst on June 26, 1910, at the age of 65.

Jesse Skeen. Mr. Jesse Skeen, the long time "Village Blacksmith" of Mt. Pleasant, died June 26th, 1910, at the age of 78.

Capt. J. M. Odell. Capt. John M. Odell died at his home near the great industrial plant that stands as a monument to his enterprise on July 21st, 1910.

Accident to Master Jones Yorke. Master A. Jones Yorke, Jr., the young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Yorke, was the victim of what came near being a serious accident Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

In Recorder's Court. Archie Bost and "Son" Pearson were tried in the Recorder's court Wednesday charged with breaking property at the colored graded school building.

In Honor of Miss Margaret Davis. Mrs. I. I. Davis entertained a number of the little girls Tuesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of her attractive little niece, Miss Margaret Davis, of Morganton.

McEachern-Yates. Mr. J. F. McEachern and Miss Nettie Yates were married last night at the bride's home on Crowell street.

Whale Nearly Capsizes a Boat at Morehead. Tuesday afternoon while Col. Tate and son and Mr. Hardee, of Tennessee, were out in Capt. Charlie Bennett's boat at Morehead City, trolling for mackerel...

Back from the Convention. Quite a number of Republicans from Cabarrus attended the Republican State Convention at Greensboro yesterday, and returned last night. Those attending were: J. M. Burrage, H. S. Williams, W. A. Overcash, George W. Lee, J. P. Harris, C. L. Sims, A. L. Fink, W. Ed Harris, J. F. Honeycutt, Lucy Moore, Joe A. Walter, C. R. Andrews, S. R. Andrew, J. Frank Goodman, Leighton Brown, M. L. Buchanan, J. H. Dorton, Messrs. Newell and Rogers.

MOREHEAD ELECTED.

Duncan Withdraws and the Fifth District Congressman is Elected Chairman by Acclamation.

The Republican state convention yesterday afternoon at Greensboro, named Congressman John Motley Morehead as chairman of the state executive committee by acclamation, the other candidates, Hon. E. Carl Duncan and Maj. J. E. Alexander, having withdrawn from the contest after their names had been placed before the convention.

The convention also endorsed and heartily commended the administration of the retiring state chairman, Ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, a ringing resolution of thanks for his faithfulness and fairness and eminent services being unanimously adopted.

For office of Chief Justice T. T. Hicks, Judge R. M. Douglas and Judge W. P. Bynum were placed in nomination. First Ballot: Hicks, 481; Douglas, 337; Bynum, 248.

Second ballot: Hicks, 671; Douglas, 420. Hicks' nomination was made unanimous. For associate justice: Judge R. M. Douglas and Judge E. W. Timberlake were nominated by acclamation.

James H. White, of Madison, and G. M. Hoover, of Davidson, were nominated by acclamation. The Belks Surrender. Monroe Cor. Observer, 10th. Will and Winfred Belk, the two young white men, wanted for the murder of Ben Hunter and the wounding of Walter Stack, Monday, came into town today and surrendered to the sheriff.

Walter Stack stated that he and Hunter were overtaken in the road by the Belks, who immediately opened fire upon them. Both jumped from their buggy and started to run. Stack escaped with a wound in the arm, but Hunter was shot down. His body was found in a cornfield Tuesday morning, where it had lain all night.

The mayor wagoner is to be congratulated upon winning at least a partial victory in passing the bill board ordinance. The mayor was the author of this ordinance and it was first introduced, when it required that all posters should be torn down in 24 hours after the performance was presented that they represented.

The ordinance was modified Tuesday night so as to require that all head lines and date lines be erased in that length of time. The mayor would never have agreed to a compromise except for the fact that the first ordinance might be a little severe on the bill posters.

The Cabarrus delegation voted solid for Settle for Chairman of the convention and had it come to a vote on Chairman of the State Committee, would probably have been solid for Morehead.

Mr. Fred Patterson will return tomorrow from Rest-A-Bit-Farm near Tarboro, where he has been the guest of a house party given by Miss Adelaide Barrow.

AFTER THIRTY-NINE YEARS.

Conscious Stricken Man Pays Debt of $5 With Interest.

This morning Judge W. J. Montgomery received the following letter: W. J. Montgomery, Concord, N. C. Dear Sir:--On the 30th day of October, 1871, I came through your town on my way west.

I have lots of kin folks in your country; in fact I have some not far from your town. You may tell the circumstances but please withhold my name on account of my kin folks. May God bless you and yours. I hope to hear from you soon and that all is well.

It has been nearly 39 years since the above debt was contracted. At 6 per cent, the interest amounts to $11.70, more than double the amount of the principal. Judge Montgomery says if any man ever does a lawyer a bad turn his conscience is sure to disturb him sooner or later.

MT. PLEASANT NEWS.

The Sunday School Convention--Death of Little Girl--Personal Items of Interest.

The Sunday School Convention for No. 8 township met in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon. A very interesting meeting was held, all the schools in the township being represented.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker, died Tuesday. The remains were interred at the Methodist cemetery.

Effie, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mildred McGraw, died yesterday after a severe illness of a few weeks. The burial will take place today at old Mt. Carmel church.

Mr. Henry Robertson and family of Albemarle, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. R. P. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barrier are at Mr. Barrier's parents for a while. Mr. Barrier is now being engaged instructing the band here.

Mrs. Wm. Roger, of Mt. Holly, is visiting her father, Capt. Cook. Dr. C. A. Misenheimer, of Charlotte, spent a few hours here yesterday.

Mr. Lewis Heilig, of Concord, was a visitor here last week. Mr. Charlie Brown has moved his family to Spencer, where Mr. Brown has a position with the Southern Railway.

The Mt. Pleasant band goes to Crescent today to furnish music for Orphan's Day at Nazareth Orphan Home.

Mr. James Fisher, of Spencer, spent last week here. Dr. A. W. Moose is attending the political convention in Greensboro. He is not expected to return for a fortnight, not that the convention or politics will keep him, but that he intends taking a well earned vacation.

Mrs. J. M. Lowry, of Kershaw, S. C., is visiting Mrs. C. G. Heilig. Mrs. Lowry, nee Miss Claud Miller, will spend some time with relatives in town.

Mrs. H. W. Mullis is visiting in Salisbury. The Kindley Mills start up this morning after a shut down for repairs. The bank was doing business on a small scale yesterday. Mr. Lee Foil, who has charge of the business was confined to his room.

Mrs. M. C. Bowman returns this week from an extended visit to friends in South Carolina. After a weeks' visit here, Mrs. A. P. Lentz and daughter, Miss Mary, returned yesterday to their home at Mt. Holly. Misses Ollie and Stella Foil are visiting Miss Lucile Shaver at Gold Hill. The appearance of the street have been greatly improved by a first class mowing which Mayor Shuping had given them last week. Those familiar with the outlook say that next year promises to be a banner year for the educational institutions here. Mt. Pleasant, August 11. Mayor Gaynor Has Fine Prospects for Recovery. William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York, lies in St. Mary's hospital with two segments of a split bullet, fired Tuesday by James J. Gallagher, who sought to assassinate him, still buried in his neck and mouth, but he has shown not one alarming symptom. It is beyond human power to say whether he will recover, for not even the most renowned specialist can say whether blood poisoning will be the aftermath, but as yet the mayor's temperature has given no cause for alarm on this score. Every indication is that the wound is healing beautifully.

Mr. W. R. Harris has been here for several days getting ready to move his family to Asheville. Some time ago he purchased a furniture business there, and since that he and his son, Theodore, have been in charge of the business. Today, Mr. Harris moved his family to Asheville to live. Our people regret to lose these good people as citizens. Mr. Harris has been prominent in all work, and is a citizen of the best type. Mrs. Harris is an enthusiastic and valuable church worker, and has taken a prominent part in the club and social life of the city. Master Randall Harris has been one of the Times' best carriers, and we much regret to lose him. A sale that is "worth while" at Miss Nannie Alexander's Friday, August 12th. Most excellent values in ribbons.
