RAILROAD SCHEDULE
In Effect December 3, 1922.

State, but he gave a conception of justice and fairness that stamps him as a man who will give every prisoner at the bar a square deal, but at the same time will protect the interests of the State.

BUILDING ACTIVITIES.
December building contracts in the Middle Atlantic States (comprising Southern New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and the Carolinas) amounted to $37,636,000, which was 14 per cent. over the figure for November and the same increase over December, 1921.

Included among last year's figures were the following important items: $208,456,000, or 43 per cent., for residential buildings; $91,348,000, or 19 per cent., for public works and utilities; $67,315,000, or 14 per cent., for business buildings; $44,892,000, or 9 per cent., for educational buildings; and $12,444,000, or 7 per cent., for industrial buildings.

Contemplated new work reported during the year amounted to $827,150,000, compared with $488,924,000 for work actually started.

J. BRYAN GRIMES.
In the death of J. Bryan Grimes, late Secretary of State, North Carolina has lost a fine citizen and a most efficient public servant. Beginning his important duties while still a young man, Mr. Grimes served his State in such a manner that he was recognized as one of the greatest Secretaries of State North Carolina has ever known, and he ranked with the State's most illustrious men at the time of his death.

A BAD IMPRESSION.
A visitor in Concord this week asked if the streets here are ever cleaned. This person came from Greensboro, and was shocked to see the dirt and filth that is allowed to accumulate and remain on the streets here.

ADVICE TO WOMEN.
Joseph Daniels, generally known as North Carolina's most famous living citizen, recently delivered a Founders' Day address at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., in which he admitted that this is an age of women and advised the members of the gentler sex to go into politics "heels over head."

SOLICITOR LONG.
Zebulon Vance Long, of Statesville, solicitor for the district embracing Cabarrus County, was broken in during the trying of criminal cases in this county during the January term.
