The White Goods and Removal Sale Continues 10 More Days

We have decided to continue our big Removal Sale for ten days longer on account of not being able to get into our new building as we had planned too. Some of the equipment for our new electric elevators has been delayed and work on the building has been delayed by weather conditions. It will not be possible for us to move for about two more weeks and we are offering our entire stock of goods at a great reduction. New goods arriving every day and we are putting them out at sale prices. The last ten days of this Sale are the biggest days—new specials added every day. We reserve the right to limit any items on sale. Bring this circular with you for we guarantee any items until each lot is sold. Sale lasts through Tuesday, February 13th. Ten more big days to do your shopping during this sale. Thousands of people have attended and everyone is well pleased with the values we are offering. We are going to move and must reduce our stock. Read over the list of specials below and come today for the prices will go up just as soon as this sale is over. Just a few specials listed below.
