TO "BLOW TOWNS OFF MAP."

Letter Signed "I. W. W." Threatens Reprisals Along M. & N. A.

Every town along the Missouri & North Arkansas railroad is in danger of being "blown off the map" by the use of airplanes, according to a letter received by Governor McRae, of Arkansas.

"If you don't want every town on the Missouri & North Arkansas wiped off the map, you had better get busy and release all persons sent to the pen and have every member of that mob at Harrison sent up," says the letter.

"If you don't act, we will give them a terrible dose of their own medicine. The whole proceeding are a violation of all law and order.

"If this is not done, we will send an airplane over those towns and burn and blow them up.

"We will see who laughs last. Get busy and right this wrong.

"P. S.—Every striker that was forced to leave must be paid double value for his property or hell will be paid. Do you hear?"

The letter was signed "I. W. W."

The envelope was postmorked at Springfield, Mo. No anti-aircraft batteries will be established to repel the "invasion," the governor said.

SAWYER WILL SERVE HIS TERM IN PENITENTIARY

Withdraws Appeal and Surrenders and Starts at Once For State Prison at Raleigh.

Winston-Salem, Feb. 4.—C. M. Sawyer, well known business man of Winston-Salm, who was recently convicted of the charge of conspiracy to burn his harness store on Main street, and gave notice of appeal, served notice on the clerk of superior court that he had abandoned his appeal. He immediately surrendered to the sheriff of Forsyth county and started to Raleigh to begin service of his eight-years sentence in state prison.

This notice was witnessed by the six men who had signed Sawyer's bond. Sawyer then went with his attorney, Raymond Parker, to the sheriff's office and advisd Sheriff McCreary that he was ready to start to the penitentiary. He was accompained to Raleigh by Deputy Sheriff Holder.

WANT FORD AS INDEPENDENT.

American Economic League Would Nominate Motor Car Man.

A new political organization with the object of nominating Henry Ford for the presidency on an independent ticket was announced in Omaha, Neb., by the American Economic League. The league is a national organization with headquarters in Omaha and is an outgrowth of the Progressive party in Nebraska and of third party movements in other states. Roy Harrop of Omaha is president and E. E. Wickham of Ogden, Utah, is secretary. Ford petitions are being circulated in four states, according to Harrop, and sixteen additional states will be invaded soon by the organization, he said.

"So your name is Johnny Thompson," the teacher said, to make sure of the facts, "but your mother's name is Jones."

"Yes ma'am," Johnny replied, "you see she married again anr I didn't.

Forest Hill Goes Forward.

Work, suspended some time ago on the big annex of the Forest Hill Methodist Church, will be resumed at once and the enterprise rushed to completion. This was the enthusiastic decision of the church at the regular preaching service yesterday morning.

The pastor spoke very briefly and turned the meeting over to the congregation. There were not set speeches, but a large number spoke with unusual feeling and pledged themselves to pay the outstanding subscriptions on the building fund and continue the work till it is done.

When the last touch has been put upon this building it will be one of the largest and best arranged churches in this section of the state. Not only the membership of this historic church, but its friends everywhere, are responding in a magnificent manner to the call of opportunity to have a part in the building.

A very surprising and most interesting feature of the day was the display of potted plants and cut flowers from the florist. When the congregation assembled for service they were greeted by a scene that sent a thrill of pleasure to every heart. The chancel, pulpit and piano, in fact the entire front of the old auditorium, had been adorned as a bride for her husband. Ferns, other evergreens and three large vases of carnations, the latter the gift of Mr. W. R. Odell, chairman of the board of stewards, had been tastefully arranged to present a most pleasing effect.

All in all it was one of those days that will stand out in the memory of everyone present.

Mr. Armstrong Accepts the Chairmanship.

Upon the insistent invitation of Col. Geo. H. Bellamy and Mr. J. L. Beal, of Raleigh, Rev. J. Frank Armstrong, of this city, has accepted the chairmanship of Cabarrus County in the Near East Campaign.

Mr. Armstrong was chairman of Cabarrus last year and was able to roll up a surplus above our quota of nearly 50 per cent. Word comes from Raleigh that the people in every part of the State are responding with a liberality never before known.

Tried to Rob Grave of James Jones.

New York, Feb. 3.—Wm. H. Williams, special agent of the Treasury Department, admitted today that an attempt had been made to rob the Brooklyn grave of James Jones, American seaman, in whose coffin the crown jewels of Russia were reported to have been smuggled into this country.

Explained.

Mrs. Newbride—Our cook says those eggs you sent yesterday were quite old.

Grocer—Very sorry, ma'am. They were the best we could get. You see, all the young chickens were killed off for the holiday trade, so the old hens are the only ones left to do the layin'.

Mrs. Newbride—Oh, to be sure? I hadn't thought of that."

AN INCREASE IN LIVESTOCK.

Small Increase in Cattle and Sheep and a Slight Decrease in Horses

The annual report of the department of agriculture on the supply of livestock in the country, just issued, shows 5,590,000 more hogs, 720,000 more cattle and 882,000 more sheep on farms and ranches than a year ago, with a small decrease in horses and a small increase in mules.

Total farm value of livestock is 5,111 million dollars, 312 million more than a year ago, but 940 million less than a year ago, and 3,054 million dollars less than in January, 1920.

Numbers of values of different classes of livestock, and comparisons with the figures announced a year ago are here shown:

Horses numbered 18,853,000, a decrease of 203,000 from last year. Value was $1,314,956,000, a decrease of $29,180,000.

Mules numbered 5,506,000, an increase of 39,000, and were valued at $472,735,000, a decrease of $8,843,000.

Milk cows numbered 24,429,000, an increase of 347,000 and were valued at $1,241,673,000 an increase of $13,970,000.

Other cattle numbered 41,923,000, an increase of 373,000, and were valued at $1,076,254,000, an increase of $87,494,000.

Sheep numbered 37,209,000, an increase of 882,000, and were velued at $278,939,000, and increase of $104,394,000.

Swine numbered 63,424,000, an increase of 5,590,000, and were valued at $726,692,000, an increase of $144,251,000.

The number of these animals not on farms, that is in cities and villages, is not estimated but their number in 1920 was reported by the census as: Horses, 1,765,611; mules, 378,250; cattle, 2,111,527; sheep, 5540,042; swine, 2,638,389.

The value per head on January 1 this year and on that date in 1922 was: Horses, $69.75 and $70.54; mules, $85.86 and $88.09; milk cows, $50.83 and $50.98; other cattle, $25.67 and $23.80; sheep, $7.50 and $4.80; swine, $11.46 and $10.07.

THUMBS IN SOUP NOT SCALDED.

So St. Louis Hotel Resists Claim of Patron to Damages for Spilling.

"On a waiter's thumb" hangs $500 for Ralph D. Coleman.

Coleman, an official of the Colton Belt railroad, sued the Hotel Jefferson in St. Louis, because a waiter spilled a bowl of hot soup on him "scalding him severely and causing him great humiliation."

The hotel will base its defense on an attempt to show the waiter had his thumb in the soup and that it could not have been "scalding."

Coleman maintains a "waiter's thumb" is oblivious to hot soup.

Which Front?

Weary Waggles—"Lady, I'm an ex-soldier. Will you gimme a sandwich?"

Mrs. Blooey—"Were you at the front?"

Weary Waggles—"Yes, ma'am, but nobody answered the bell, so I came arounds to the back door."

Tim: "How are you getting along at home while your wife's away?"

Jim: "Fine. I've reached the height of efficiency. I can put on my socks now from either end."
