One new case of smallpox, five new cases of whooping cough and 12 new cases of measles were reported to the county health department Thursday. The smallpox patient lives in Kannapolis.

Six defendants were tried in recorder's court Friday. Four were charged with speeding and were fined $10 each; the other two were charged with violating a city ordinance, one being fined $5 and the other $10.

Mr. Joe Haynes, of No. 3 township, left Sunday night for Baltimore for treatment. Mr. Haynes' condition for some time has not been favorable, and it is hoped he will be greatly benefited by his stay in a Baltimore hospital.

The editor of the Personal and Social Page will be glad to receive items of interest to readers of this page, not only from Concord but from Kannapolis, Mt. Pleasant and other places. Address all communications to Miss Cottrell Sherrill, care The Tribune.

Carpenters and other workmen are making fine progress with the addition to the Parks-Belk Company. Some of the equipment of the store, including the offices, have already been transferred to the new structure, and other goods are being moved daily.

Peck's Taxi Service, beginning Monday, March 12th, will operate two buses daily between Concord and Albemarle. The first bus will leave Concord at 7:30 a. m. and Albemarle at 9:30 a. m. The second will leave Concord at 1 p. m. and Albemarle at 4-p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Reed have made final plans for the erection of their new home on North Union street. Excavation work for the structure has been started, and it is planned to complete the home, which will be modern in every respect, in the near future.

George Washington Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Major Johnson, died Friday morning at the home of his parents on East avenue, Kannapolis. Funeral services were held at the home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. C. Jamison, and interment was made in the Kannapolis cemetery.

About 40 city teachers went to Charlotte Friday night to hear an address by Dr. Englehard, of Columbia University, an authority on education matters. The Concord delegation was delighted with the address which was delivered at 8 o'clock in Charlotte's newest school building.

Mr. W. W. Watts, of South Valley street, who has been confined to his home for some time on account of an accident, is spending the week-end in Charlotte with his sister, Mrs. Cora Williamson. He was accompanied by his little daughter, who will be examined by a specialist while in Charlotte.

Deputy Sheriff Caldwell and Jailer McClure carried a man from this county to the State Hospital at Morganton Friday. The man gave the officers no trouble after they started with him, but he bucked and fought some several hours before leaving Concord, when officers were trying to manage him.

Quite a number of the teachers of the Concord Public Schools went to Charlotte Friday to hear Dr. Englehard, of Columbia University, who delivered an address in the new High School building at 8 o'clock. Dr. Englehard is recognized as one of the foremost educators of the country, and practically every one of the 50 Concord teachers heard him.

Mr. John M. Oglesby has returned from Raleigh, where he assisted State officers of the American Legion in entertaining Alvin Owsley, National Commander of the Legion, who was a guest of the North Carolina Legionnaires this week. Mr. Oglesby made the trip in his car, and was accompanied by Mr. Jimmie Caldwell, of Albemarle.

Mr. James B. Brickell, who will be one of the chief foremen for the crew which constructs the Concord-Kannapolis road, has arrived in Concord and is making preparations for the work. Mr. Brickell states that he will select detour routes within the next few days and these will be announced in this paper. He expects to get the work started in the near future.

Misses Ruth and Nellie Dry, Prof. J. B. Robertson and Rev. M. L. Kester have returned from Hickory, where they attended the alumni rally at Daniel Rhyne College. The rally was held preparatory to the $850,000 campaign the college will inaugurate next month, and the Concord delegation declared the rally was one of the greatest events in the history of the college.

Interest in the city election, to be held on May 8th, is increasing a little now, though no general interest is yet shown in the event. Persons who registered for the school bond election need not register again to vote in the election, but all others must register, as the school bond registration made void all registrations before it. The aldermen will name the judges and registrars at their April meeting.

A city official stated Friday that he had written the Southern Railway Company in regard to the stretch of road from Corbin Street to the passenger station. "This road is the property of the Southern," he stated, "and it is up to the Southern to maintain it. During the past several months the road has been nothing but a stretch of holes, and as an official of the city I have entered protest."

The work of trimming the trees in the courthouse yard continues. The work has caused a great deal of comment. There are many persons who say the trees are ruined; others are just as certain that the trimming will be the best thing in the world for them; others have nothing to say. Work on several of the larger trees has been completed, and it is probable that the entire job will be completed by tonight.

The Y basketball team ended the 1923 season Friday night with a game played in Kannapolis with the Davidson team, one of the strongest teams in the State. The locals led most of the way, but during the last few minutes Crawford, for the collegians, opened up with all he had and ran the score to 32, while the locals could secure but 27 points. The game was witnessed by a good crowd, many of whom were from Concord.

The Legion club room was packed Thursday night for the boxing bouts offered by the local Legion post. There were 22 rounds of boxing offered, and the big crowd enjoyed every minute of the evening. The Tenner-Young bout created the greatest interest, and both men showed up well. There were no decisions announced, but Tenner clearly outpointed Young. It is probable that the Legion will offer another boxing card in the near future.

Concord Y Holds Strong Davidson Basketeers 32-27 at Kannapolis.

Friday night the local Y five traveled to Kannapolis for a post-season game with the strong Davidson College boys and held the collegians to a 32-27 score. The game was a spectacular one especially in the second half when the score saw-sawed back and forth. In the first half both teams seemed to play a safe defensive game, neither side scoring for several minutes. At the end of the first half Concord led 13-8. Then Crawford was switched to forward and wrecked all the locals hopes by caging seven field goals. Three of these were on Long and four on Bost who went in for a few minutes to substitute for Dick who got put out temporarily in a collision with another player. This lead was more than the locals could overcome although the game was an exciting one to watch. A number of Concord rooters were on hand to cheer the Y boys.

Elks Elect New Officers.

At its meeting on Thursday evening Concord Lodge No. 857 held its annual election of officers for the year beginning April first. The following will be the new officers: Brevard E. Harris, Exalted Ruler; H. G. Ritz, Esteemed Leading Knight; J. A. Goodman, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Boyd A. Moore, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; L. C. Barringer, Secretary; Chas. N. Fields, Treasurer; Joe Bost, Tiler; Geo. L. Patterson, Trustee; Dr. T. N. Spencer, Representative to Grand Lodge; A. Campbell Cline, alternate to Grand Lodge. Installation ceremonies will take place the first meeting night in April, which will be on April 12th.

Concord Items in Albemarle Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie White and daughters, Misses Sadie and Mary White, of Concord, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Tucker. Joe Glass, of the Mutual Motor Sales Company, spent Sunday and Monday in Concord. Mr. Jess Raeferd, of Salisbury, spent Monday afternoon in town the guest of his niece, Miss Lanie Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Will Ringham, of Concord, were guests Sunday of Mrs. G. P. Watkins.

Mrs. L. B. Linker and daughter, Mrs. J. R. Harris, and three children, of Concord, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Widenhouse. Mrs. Widenhouse and Mrs. Harris are sisters. Robert Linker, of Concord, spent a short while in town Monday, guest of his sister, Mrs. E. A. Widenhouse.

Mr. Ridenhour Resigns Pastorate.

Albemarle News-Herald. On Sunday morning Rev. V. C. Ridenhour resigned as pastor of the Lutheran Church in Albemarle. He told his congregation that he had received a call from Lincoln, and had decided to accept. The synod met at three o'clock Sunday afternoon to consider the resignation. They decided that his salary was to be raised some hundreds of dollars and that he was to be asked to stay. So many protests have been received from members of his congregation and other friends in town that Mr. Ridenhour has agreed to reconsider and at the present moment is undecided as to what he will do. Mr. Ridenhour has been with us for several years and it would be a great loss to the community as a whole, as well as his own congregation if he were to leave. We sincerely hope that he will decide to stay among us.

Sister Register Comes Back.

Charlotte Observer. Said "Sister" Register: "Wish you'd tell those folks from Gastonia and Lumberton who wrote so much about those 'collection plates' and their churches not taking up collection, but placing a box in the vestibule for voluntary donations, that I 'spice those boxes are so big that they float over them every time they go to church.'"

File Your Income Tax Returns Now.

Every person who is due to file a Federal Income Tax Return, whether such person is due tax or exempt from tax, is informed over and over again that the time for filing Returns will expire on Thursday, March 15th. After that date the law holds that every person who is liable to file and has failed to file such Returns is delinquent and subject to penalty.

U. D. C. Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Dodson-Ramsen chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. M. Lafferty. Mrs. Lafferty, Mrs. G. M. Lore, and Mrs. Nell Edison were hostesses. The chapter decided at the meeting to purchase a portrait of a Confederate general to be presented to School No. 2. The committee to select the portrait is composed of Miss Betty Leslie and Miss Rose Harris. Nothing else of general interest was presented to the meeting for action.

KIWANIS MEETING

Club to Bring Great Builder Here—Rev. M. A. Osborne Delivers an Address.

Announcement that the world's greatest city builder will be in Concord in the near future and deliver an address to the public: election of delegates to the Kiwanis International Convention in Atlanta; a splendid program arranged by team No. 6. Clarence H. Carrier captain, were the features of the meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Concord at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening.

The club chose to represent it at the International Convention, May 28-31, the present president, Dr. Tracy N. Spencer, and District Trustee John B. Sherrill. Alternates are J. Lee Crowell, Jr., and Dr. Julius Shavers. Rev. Jesse C. Rowan stated to the club that it will be possible to have in Concord on March 26th a lecture from Mr. John R. Todd, president of the Todd, Robertson & Todd Engineering Company, of New York City, who is undoubtedly the greatest city builder in the whole world.

The greatest projects and buildings in New York City, which are the greatest in the world, were brought into being by this man. Some of his works include the great Cunard Line office building, the finest in the world; and the projected Cunard terminal, which will cost from sixty to seventy-five millions of dollars. Mr. Todd will be in Concord as the guest of Rev. Mr. Rowan, and will deliver his lecture here before going to Davidson College to deliver it on the following evening. The club voted unanimously to have this great man speak to the public of this city, and appointed the following committee to confer with a similar committee from the Rotary Club relative to making arrangements and having the members of both clubs, together with a large audience of other persons present: Jacob O. Moore, J. A. Kennett and W. A. Foil. The young men of Concord are especially invited to attend this lecture, since Mr. Todd is greatly interested in the young men of today.

The Cabarrus County Fair was brought to the attention of the club, and upon motion the club voted unanimously its endorsement of the project. The program committee under Clarence H. Carrier took charge of the meeting, and entertained the members with two solos by Miss Mary M. Laughlin, the accompaniment being played by Miss Nell Herring; also an address by Rev. M. A. Osborne, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, this city.

Rev. Mr. Osborne's subject was the worth of a man. He looked at a man's worth from a chemical standpoint, his worth to himself, his worth to his family, his worth to his community, and his worth to the church. In speaking of a man's worth to a community the speaker laid particular stress upon the splendid things that can be accomplished by helping the young men and boys of today to make the most out of themselves and prepare themselves more thoroughly to take the places of those who will be passing on. A man can hardly find a work of any kind that will bring larger returns than that which is realized from the attention and help given the boys of today.

The membership of every church, said Mr. Osborne, is composed of three classes: the shirkers, the jerkers and the workers. He explained the term "jerkers" by telling of the team which went along all right so long as there was no load on the wagon, but which, when given a load to pull, began to jerk and fall back, thus getting nothing accomplished. He closed his talk with an appeal to all the Kiwanians to be workers in their churches.

The silent boost was given by Gus Kennett. The attendance prize, donated by Joe Pike, was drawn by Sidney E. Buchanan.

Store Entered by Thieves.

Thieves some time Friday morning entered the store of W. L. Widenhouse & Co. and carried off goods valued at about $100. It is believed the goods were carried off in a truck. The management of the store states that officers visited the store about 1 o'clock and found everything all right. When they returned again shortly after 2 o'clock they found the rear door open and the goods gone. The store was entered about a month ago and goods valued at $250 were stolen at that time. The goods stolen in the raid Friday morning consisted of clothing, shoes and sweaters.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the church parlor.

REV. T. N. LAWRENCE TO LEAVE CONCORD IN JUNE

Resigns as Rector of All Saints Episcopal Church—Will Go to Maryland From Concord.

Rev. T. N. Lawrence, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, has tendered his resignation to the members of the vestry, to become effective June first. The announcement of the resignation was made Saturday by Mr. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence came to Concord two years ago from South Carolina, and during their stay here have made many friends who will regret to see them leave this city. Mr. Lawrence stated that he and his family will spend the summer in Maryland.

Mr. Lawrence has taken an active interest in every phase of public life since coming to Concord. He is a member of the Concord Rotary Club, and has been song leader in that organization since it was formed. He is recognized as a preacher of unusual power and zest, and the Church under his leadership has enjoyed two fruitful years.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of Thedford's Black-Draught and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition. Thedford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Try Black-Draught. Sold everywhere.
