Child Hurt When Struck by Car. A four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hense Barbee, who live on the old Concord-Charlotte road near Coddle Creek, was seriously injured Monday afternoon when struck by an auto driven by a man going to Albemarle. The child was taken to a Charlotte hospital Monday night for treatment.

According to reports reaching Concord the child was hurt when he stepped into the road from behind a car just as the Albemarle man drove by. The child had gone with his mother to the mail box, the report said, and after getting the mail the child stepped from behind the car driven by the mail carrier, being hit just as he reached the road. His condition is reported as critical.

Preventative Medicine. The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or attack of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the cold rages on, the greater the danger.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of cold appears, so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.

Burlington to Have a New Six-Story Hotel. Burlington, April 9.—Rapid progress is being made on plans for Burlington's new hotel. The architect, Mr. Hartmann, of Greensboro, has submitted plans for the new hotel building to the directors of the enterprise, and the plans show that the new hotel building will be one of the most modern in the state, and will be a handsome and imposing edifice. The plans provide for the erection of a fireproof, six-story building, besides a basement.

SERVICES AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Dr. Leonard Preached Monday Night on Prayer.—This Is Men's Night. "You cannot be a Christian without prayer; you may be a church member without prayer," said Dr. Leonard in beginning the service in Trinity Reformed Church Monday night. The preacher called attention that both prayer and Bible reading are necessary for the Christian. He said "neglect neither, but of all things be sure to read your Bible." Prayer is talking to God and Bible reading is God talking to us.

The reason for the scarcity of ministers today is that the church is not praying for the Lord to call forth ministers. Jesus said, Pray ye, the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.

Dr. Leonard preached on the text in Matthew 9:23, "When He saw the multitudes, Jesus was interested in crowds. Preachers are interested in crowds. He confessed that he liked to preach to crowds. The best work is not always done with the crowds. The best fruit is hand picked. Jesus dealt with individuals like Nicodemus, Zacchaeus, Andrew, the Woman of Samaria.

Multitudes followed Jesus. They pressed upon Jesus. Jesus was moved with compassion towards them. He loved them. He fed them. He blessed them.

There are crowds yet to be reached. There are multitudes of people to be reached with the gospel message, great multitudes in Concord and in other places of our own country. These masses need the gospel.

The sermon was full of touching stories out of the fruitful ministry of Dr. Leonard, stories that touch the heart as they come from his heart out of his own experience.

In the afternoon Dr. Leonard indicated several groups of people that every church ought to minister unto. Dr. Leonard has had experience in starting mission churches. He said that mission churches are started by poor people and children. He said that he had seen these children grow up to be the well to do people in the community and in the church. Dr. Leonard said that a church that neglected the children, the children of the poorer people would eventually lose out, and that the church that gathered these into her folds and ministered unto them would be the strong and influential church in the next generation. The service was a very helpful one.

Tonight is men's night. The Men's Bible Class is responsible for the attendance. The men and young men of Concord are invited. Dr. Leonard will speak on "The Four-Square Man." The boys will be given the front pews in the center section and the men will back them up. Mr. Swartz will lead another inspiring song service.

AND THERE WASN'T THE SLIGHTEST SMELL FROM DEAD RATS. Writes John Simpkins, farmer of Amundale, N. J.: "Rats were costing me hundreds yearly tried cats, ferrets, poison, could not get rid of them. Bought $1.25 pkg. of RAT-SNAP (5 cakes). Used half, and live rat since. Dead one a plenty. I like RAT-SNAP because after killing rats it dries them up—leaves no smell." Three sizes, 25c, 55c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Ritchie Hardware and Cline's Pharmacy.

New Auditorium Thrown Open. The splendid new auditorium at No. 2 graded school was thrown open last night when the pupils of this school gave an entertainment under the direction of the teachers. The auditorium has a seating capacity of 750, being provided with the latest model opera chairs. It is 78x55 feet, is well lighted with modern electric fixtures, and the stage is about 30x50 feet. The large auditorium was about two-thirds full and the constant rounds of applause after the rendition of each number gave evidence that the entertainment was enjoyed by those present. The stage had been beautifully decorated for this occasion with evergreens and flowers.

About 100 children took part last night and each one rendered well the part represented. Miss Ethel Lippard at the piano gave able support to the musical numbers.

Death of Mrs. Lizzie Oehler. Mrs. Lizzie Oehler, widow of the late George Oehler, died Monday night about midnight at her home in No. 2 township. She was more than 80 years of age and had been ill for some time. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock in the Poplar Tent Presbyterian Church, and interment was made in the cemetery there.

Mrs. Oehler is survived by one son, Mr. John Oehler. She was a member of one of the most prominent families in the county and was widely known and greatly beloved throughout that section of Cabarrus county.

OFFICE BUILDING TO BE ERECTED BY OHIO FIRM

C. W. Johnston Awards Contract for $1,000,000 15-Story Structure. Charlotte Observer. The awarding of the contract for the 15-story building to be erected on the site of the burned Trust building to the Hunkin Corkey Construction Company, of Cleveland, was announced in a telegram received here Monday from C. W. Johnston, president of the Anchor Mills Company, owner of the site.

While the contract price and details were not announced, officials of the company say that it will be about $1,000,000. Mr. Johnston has been at New York several days and is expected back here the latter part of this week.

The structure will be one of the largest office buildings in the Carolinas and among the handsomest in the South, according to W. L. Stoddard, New York architect, who drew the plans and who conferred with Mr. Johnston and his associates here several days ago about the plans. Within the 15 floors will be 285 offices with a total floor space of 195,000 square feet.

THOUSANDS TURNED AWAY FROM RESORTS Southern Pines and Pinehurst Had Extraordinarily Successful Season. Southern Pines, April 10.—That 15,000 people were turned away from Pinehurst and an equal number from Southern Pines during the past season is an indication of the growing popularity of these North Carolina winter resorts. The figures with Pinehurst are official, the statement having been made by Leonard Tait, president of the Pinehurst Company at a recent meeting of the Kiwanis club. With Southern Pines, the figures are estimated, but the steady stream of inquiries from New England and Northern points during the year found local hotels and in keeping hard pressed for space the entire year.

The popularity of North Carolina resorts lies in the fact, according to officials of the railroads touching on these resorts, that they are Southern and that they are only a few hours from the principal business centers of the nation. The Sandhills are sixteen hours from New York City. At both Pinehurst and Southern Pines, plans are being made to provide greater accommodations.

Concord Highs Play Davidson Varsity. The local high school baseball team got rather ambitious yesterday afternoon and played the Davidson College varsity team. While the score went five to nothing against them, a closer analysis of the game shows that the Davidson sluggers got only six hits off Hamilton in seven innings, while the high school players go four off Sorrells, on of Coach Currie's best bats. Hamilton, however, was a little wild and walked four men.

Cleaver, the first man up, drove the first ball Sorrells pitched over second for a clean single, and the stands raved like the pitcher. Crawford, the leading hitter of the Davidson team, failed to hit safely in four trips to the plate.

The high school team contributed the fielding feature of the evening when they pulled a double play. Cleaver to Kridler to Walker. Cleaver also fielded in great style, while Misenheimer in center field, covered the whole outer garden and pulled down everything that came out his way, some of them labelled three baggers.
