The Concert Tuesday Evening.
The people of Concord were given an evening of great pleasure when they heard Dr. C. G. Vardell and Mrs. W. E. Robeson in a recital given under the auspices of the Altman Association of Flora MacDonald College at the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening. Mr. Vardell inherits the musical ability of his talented mother, who was Miss Linda Rumpke of Salisbury. His program Tuesday evening included selections from both old and modern masters, including two numbers of his own composition. The third number on the program was Bach's Prelude and Fugue in B Flat, always welcomed by a brilliant and correct that showed mastery of the organ. Mr. Vardell's interpretation of Nerval's Sketches of the City, was a delightful tone picture, contrasting the brightness of the city in distance with the somber retrospect of the grandmother, and the whistling urchin in the street. The audience enjoyed particularly Mr. Vardell's own compositions, Serenade Mizonne and Scherzo (from Sonata). The selection of stops and faithful execution only added to the beauty of these compositions. Mrs. W. E. Robeson, head of the violin department of Flora MacDonald College, assisted Mr. Vardell by giving four selections, "Melody," by Daves and "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn were played in an especially sympathetic and beautiful manner, while the "Spanish Dance," by Sarasate, showed wonderful technique and mastery of the violin.

A number of people from Charlotte and Salisbury came over for the recital. Mr. Vardell and Mrs. Robeson will always have a warm welcome in any return engagement they may make in Concord.

Mrs. M. C. Setzer, of China Grove, given Surprise Birthday Dinner.
On last Saturday afternoon at five o'clock the children, relatives and a number of friends, about seventy-five in all, gave Mrs. M. C. Setzer, of China Grove, a surprise birthday dinner. The surprise being complete. A most sumptuous dinner was spread on a table in the yard. In the center of the table was a large cake on which was placed a number of small candles representing her age. Being a sprightly widow, the writer withholds the number of candles. Rev. C. A. Brown, pastor of the honored guest, invoked God's richest blessing on her and all present, after which she was invited to help herself. The dinner was prepared and spread for her and that she should be satisfied if it took it all. Not feeling competent for the task, she gave those present an invitation to help themselves which they gladly accepted and ate to their entire satisfaction.

May Mrs. Setzer live to see many returning birthdays and each one be as happily spent as this one. X.

SOCIAL MEETING
Held by the Ladies of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church.
The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held a most delightful social meeting at the home of Mrs. T. D. Maness Monday afternoon from three to five o'clock. About fifty ladies were present. The program arranged by Mrs. Ray Lentz was unique and of special interest in every detail.

The opening service, carrying out the life of Christ in song and story, featured the devotional exercises and was very impressive and uplifting. A choir of gifted musicians rendered fine selections, both instrumental and vocal as the program proceeded, and at its conclusion favored the company with several numbers which contributed much to the pleasure of the social hour following.

A brief history of the First Baptist Church, from its organization in 1880, to the present time, was read by Mrs. E. L. Craven, one of the five remaining charter members. The story of struggles and triumphs, courage and sacrifice engaged the attention of the audience with almost breathless interest. Beginning with the leadership of Rev. Geo. P. Bostick, the special characteristics of each pastorate during the thirty-seven years was portrayed in progressive steps from a Sunday school of ten members, to the present church membership of more than three hundred, organized in every department of denominational enterprise and projecting an equipment for larger local development in the erection of an up-to-date church building now in course of construction.

At the close of Mrs. Craven's reading a request was made that the sketch be sent to the Biblical Recorder for publication and also given a place in the cornerstone of the new church. A delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

St. Joseph, Mich., May 2.—Charles E. Ruthenberg of Cleveland tonight was found guilty of violating the Michigan law against syndicalism. Ruthenberg faces a prison sentence of ten years or a fine of $5,000 or both. The jury was out four hours and 50 minutes and took three ballots. The first two ballots stood nine to three for conviction, three jurors arguing that the state had not conclusively shown Ruthenberg's state of mind on the communist propaganda and plans at the time he attended the party's convention in this country last August and was arrested.

WILSON FOUNDATION FUND TAKEN OVER BY TRUSTEES
$800,000 is Formally Transferred From Committee to Newly Organized Board.
New York, May 1.—Contributions from every state to the Woodrow Wilson foundation, exceeding $800,000, were formally transferred today from custody of the national committee to the newly organized board of trustees. The board, which will from now on administer the affairs of the foundation, was selected by the executive committee earlier in the day.

Ernest M. Hopkins, president of Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., was elected president of the board; Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy, and Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, were chosen vice-presidents; Mrs. Katrina Ely Tiffany was elected secretary; the Central Trust company, of this city, was designated as treasurer.

The first award of the foundation will be made in November of this year, it was announced. The recipient will be chosen by a jury to be selected by the board. Mr. Roosevelt said the award will be based upon recognition of an achievement which carries out the "ideals which we associate with President Wilson."

Predicts Another War in Europe Within 10 Years.
Richmond, Va., May 1.—Speaking tonight before the 10th annual convention of the Association of Governmental Labor Officials of the United States and Canada, Dr. Royal Meeker, formerly secretary of the International Labor Conference at Geneva, predicted another war in Europe within 10 years.

"The next war is inevitable within the next 10 years unless there is a change of mind and heart in the countries of eastern and central Europe," Dr. Meeker asserted. Declaring that jealousy, passion and suspicion is rampant in the old world, the speaker said that if Europe could "forget her history, what a blessing it would be." Dr. Meeker described the international labor situation as "rotten" although he said it has shown some improvement in the last year.

Concord's "white way" is beginning to have a different appearance. Several electricians are now cleaning the good globes and replacing the ones which have burned out.
