LOCAL MENTION

We have been requested to announce preaching services at Center Methodist Church, in No. 11 township, next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

G. I. Ray Lentz is today moving his family to Albemarle, where he has been appointed agent of The Texas Company. Mr. Lentz has been there for several weeks.

Thirteen new cases of measles were the only new cases of diseases reported to the county health department yesterday, according to today's report from the department.

An important meeting of the Concord Merchants' Association will be held tonight at 7:30 at the Y. M. C. A. Officers of the association declare several matters of unusual importance will come before the meeting, and all members are urged to attend.

New chairs have been purchased for the city hall, and have been distributed among the various city offices. Some of the old chairs have been placed in the court room, where there has been a scarcity of chairs for some time.

Don't forget the supper to be given at the Y Tuesday, May 8th, for the benefit of the Cabarrus Black Boys' Chapter of the D. A. R. The doors will be opened at four-thirty, and candy, fancy work and flowers will also be sold.

The condition of Mr. George Goodman, who has been undergoing treatment in the Concord Hospital, is reported as improved. Mr. Goodman is able to be out again, and has shown steady improvement since entering the hospital.

Only two cases were tried in recorder's court yesterday, the others having been continued when several attorneys who were to appear in them had to attend Superior Court. One person was fined $10 and the other $15, and court was in session but a few minutes.

The aldermen will meet at the city hall tonight at 8 o'clock in their last meeting. Tuesday a new board will be elected and the members of the new board will hold their first meeting on Thursday night. Several matters of importance are expected to be presented to the board tonight.

The campaign against typhoid fever will be opened tonight in Kannapolis by the county health department. The campaign in other parts of the county will be opened later, after a definite schedule has been adopted. The campaign against diphtheria is being conducted jointly with the typhoid campaign.

Carpenters have about completed their work on the home of Mr. and Frank Mills on North Spring Street. All of the work on the exterior of the house, which was recently damaged by fire, has been completed, and within the next several days the carpenters expect to complete the work on the interior.

The many friends here of Miss Ruth Crowell will be interested to know that she was chosen as Queen of the May Festival held at Salem College Tuesday, May 1st. Miss Crowell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Crowell, and is one of the most attractive and popular members of the younger set.

The Charlotte team is now leading in the race in the South Atlantic League. By taking two games from Charleston yesterday while Spartanburg was losing, the Hornets secured possession of the first rung in the ladder, and are leading now by half a game over the Augusta team. Charlotte opens with Columbia in Charlotte today for three games.

The general public is invited to attend the class play, "A Bunch of Fun," which the high school students will present tomorrow night at the high school auditorium. Tickets for the play are on sale now at Cline's Pharmacy. The money taken in will be used in a fund being raised to purchase a chess gift. The play will begin at 8 o'clock.

Trinity continued her march yesterday to collegiate baseball honors of the State by defeating Davidson in Durham 1 to 0. The game was one of the snappiest played in Durham in years and was featured by the work of the two pitchers. Sanderson for the winners twirled a no-hit game and Bouches of the losers allowed but six hits. Trinity has won 12 games from college teams in the State and has not been defeated by another college team in the State.

Closing Exercises China Grove School. China Grove, May 1.—The closing exercises of the China Grove graded school will be held in the school auditorium on Thursday night and Friday afternoon of this week.

J. L. Parker, of Charlotte, will deliver the commencement address Thursday night, and A. M. Hanna will present certificates of promotion to the pupils who have completed the grammar course and the prizes to those who have won distinction in various fields of school work.

Rev. C. B. Fisher, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, will pronounce the invocation and benediction. Friday afternoon the primary grades will render an attractive Mother Goose operetta and members of the fourth and fifth grades will present an amusing one-act playlet. Several musical numbers, vocal and instrumental, will be given.

Masons to Hold Special Meeting. Members of Stokes Lodge No. 32 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting in the lodge rooms tonight at 8 o'clock. Officers of the organization declare the meeting will be an important and interesting one.

SOLVING YOUR Rent Problem A CURRENT discussion treats the "high rent problem" from both viewpoints—and seemingly both landlord and tenant have justice on their sides. The fact remains, however, that when you pay rent, high or low, you deprive yourself of things your rental money might buy. And the solution—build a home! If you save regularly, you can very soon make the initial payment. The CITIZENS BANK and TRUST Company CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA.
